...EVANGELIST'S GOODS SEIZED

Mrs. McPherson's Auto and Bank Account Attached

Real Estate Also Held for Her Ousted Manager

Hearing of Plea to Regain Property Set Today

Within a few minutes of the ... Frank Timpson, former manager of ... Angelus Temple, had filed ... against Aimee Semple McPherson ... yesterday afternoon for ... breach of contract and had attached ... the evangelist's automobile, ... bank account of the temple and ... estate near Angelus Temple belong... to her, a hearing to dissolve the attachment, filed by George Ar... attorney for Mrs. McPherson, ... been set for 10 a.m. today by Presid... ing Judge Craig of the Superior Court. The hearing will be before Municipal Judge Blake in Department 20.

Timpson's suit was the second filed this week against the evangelist, Cromwell Ormsby, her former attorney, having filed a suit for $234,000 Monday.

CONTRACT EXPIRES IN ...

Timpson asserts in his petition that he was hired for a period of two years and that his contract did not expire until June 12, 1931. He asserts he was to get $500 a month for a certain period and then $1000 a month for the remainder of the time. He says he was discharged on the 9th inst. without cause and owes $7000. His attorney is David ... Cannon.

Mrs. McPherson either was ... took a street car or rode with ... last night as her Cadillac ... was tied up in a Hollywood ... by the Sheriff's office. The ... account of the temple at 1100 ... est Boulevard also was garnished. No return had been made to the Sheriff's office late last night as to the amount in the account.

Attorney Acret, however, said it was the Angelus Temple people who deposit and that there are several thousand dollars in it, he understands. Lots 85, 87 and 89 in Block O, Montana Tract, City of Los Angeles, also are covered by the writ. According to Attorney Cannon, this is the legal description of land on which the temple and said to be owned by Mrs. McPherson.

PAYMENTS BEING MADE

The automobile, the Sheriff's office found, is held by the General Motors Acceptance Corporation, indicating that monthly payments on the machine are being made.

"There is no ground for the ...son's suit," Attorney Acret said last night. "He was hired by Aimee Cromwell Ormsby, without the knowledge of Mrs. McPherson. The copy of the asserted contract is signed 'Aimee Semple McPherson' by Cromwell Ormsby' and we say that he had no right to act for Mrs. McPherson. These suits mean nothing to us."

"The contract was signed by Ormsby all right," said Attorney Cannon, "but as her attorney in fact."

In the meantime Rev. John ...ben, who when he was dismissed several weeks ago as assistant pastor at Angelus Temple, asked that an investigation be made of Angelus Temple affairs by the District Attorney's office, states that many ... churches have enrolled under the banner of the secessionist movement.

MANY CHURCHES RESIGN

"It is untrue that all the churches with the exception of Pasadena have returned to the Four Square fold," he said yesterday. "Members of our ... churches which seceded may have gone back but we have gone ... churches on the Pacific Coast, ... of the following churches are with us 100 per cent: Bremerton, Wash., with Mary Bernice Cobb as pastor; Burlington, Wash.; Rev. Mrs. Audrey Lee; Whittier, Cal., Rev. Mrs. Lund; Lomita, Rev. Roy Lund; Santa Ana, Rev. Jack Smith; Pasadena, Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Alford; Oakland, Rev. James Foster; Fresno, Rev. William Ogle; Hyde Park, Mrs. Neva Wiseman; Boise, Mrs. Margaret Fredin; Salt Lake, Mrs. Myrtle Badger; Carson, Rev. Myrtle Gillespie, pastor; Seattle, Rev. A. Axup; Long Beach, Rev. H. E. Shepherd and Huntington Park, Mrs. Beatrice Letherbury.

"Mrs. Minnie Kennedy has written a letter to Mrs. Rosie Allen of the Pasadena church urging her return to the Four Square movement. She has refused. Sunday afternoon at the Music Hall, South Broadway, she will give her reasons for not going back.

Nothing has taken place this week before the grand jury, according to Chief Trial Deputy Daniel Pierce, who stated yesterday that, contrary to rumor to the contrary, Ormsby and Timpson have not been served with grand-jury subpoenas.

DIAMOND BADGES GIVEN TO MAYOR

such badges are presented to the newly elected Mayor and each newly appointed commissioner. "It is just an old custom that we are carrying out, and shows our appreciation and attitude toward our service," he explained.

Various amounts, ranging from $1500 to $5000 were estimated as the approximate cost of the badges, but Commissioner Porter explained that it cost only $85 for the entire amount, he said, was donated by the officers of the department. Along with the badge came a neat leather carrying case, and after making the gift and posing for photographs the Mayor and the executive staff ... his pocket.

When the gathering adjourned Mayor Porter, accompanied by Commissioner Westall, who is the manager of the Los Angeles Investment Company, 3200 East Foothill Boulevard, and Commissioner Lonergan and Wilson inspected the grounds and plant of the organization.

GIRL WEDS PASTOR

LA CRESCENTA, Nov. ... Friends here announced the ... riage of Miss Lillian Short to ... J. W. Joslin, formerly pastor ... the Crescenta Four Square Gospel house. The marriage took place in San Bernardino, Rev. Charles ... Jaynes of Riverside performing the ceremony. Mr. Joslin is the former pastor of the Four Square Gospel house at Corona.

Will Rogers Remarks:

BEVERLY HILLS, Nov. 22.—[To the Editor of The Times:] That was the first time Mr. Henry Ford had ever attended one of these big financial pow-wows, and he didn't know that all you was supposed to do was to pass a resolution and then adjourn. He thought you had to do something definite, so he raised everybody's salary.

The Senate got sore when Mr. Hoover declared a national day of Thanksgiving to celebrate their closing. Now I kinder string with the Senate on this. They didn't pass the tariff bill for the thing wasn't any good. Never blame a legislative body for not doing something. When they don't, that won't hurt anybody; it's when they do something is when they become dangerous.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

TIGER DYING BY INCHES

End Staved Off by Clemenceau

Marvelous Courage Shown in Conscious Moments as Agony Continues

Physician Says That He May Live Out Night After Let-up in Uremia

PARIS, Nov. 23. (Saturday) (AP).—The condition of Georges Clemenceau, war-time Premier of France, was described by Dr. Degennes early today as still most critical, but he considers the patient may pull through the night.

Last evening the physician had said that the situation was practically hopeless and that the Tiger of France was dying. After a consultation lasting an hour with two other physicians summoned to the bedside last night Dr. Degennes said that Clemenceau had obtained slight relief from the uremia from which he had suffered for two days and which was a dangerous drag on his heart action.

Despite his belief that Clemenceau may live out the night, Dr. Degennes disclosed that the midnight examination had shown that the uremic poisoning gradually was spreading through the whole bodily system.

Death, he said, thus is merely a question of hours.

As the danger of a heart collapse lessened with the decrease in

TOWN PREY TO FLAME

Montara Made Mass of Ashes

Soldiers of Presidio Rush to Aid Fighters Beaten by Forest Blaze

Twenty Men Flee for Lives as Waves of Fire Peril Public Buildings

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—With the coast town of Montara practically in ashes at a loss of $200,000, and three great fires defying every effort to check them, flame-swept San Mateo county today asked for United States soldiers to reinforce the exhausted army of fire fighters.

Under command of Maj. Ralph C. Smith of the Thirtieth Infantry, three officers and 190 men were rushed from the Presidio to the new danger zone, where fire threatened to sweep the countryside.

Reports were that flames near the junction of Skyline Boulevard and Half Moon Bay highway had jumped the boulevard.

FIGHTERS CONCENTRATE

This led to a concentration of the fire-fighting forces in that area in the fear the flames will race through heavily wooded sections to the county poor farm and a number of sanatoriums lying back of Belmont and San Carlos.

Even as the concentration began, twenty men were caught in a pocket caused by backfires along Skyline Boulevard and had to flee for their lives.

State Forester Pratt came from Sacramento to take charge of the situation, regarded as extremely serious.

ONE VICTORY WON

The fire fighters won one victory. By furious work with a tractor and plows a wide firebreak was established, saving San Mateo County Memorial Park, a grove of redwoods dedicated to World War veterans.

The virtual destruction of Montara came with little warning in the dead of night. A roar awakened E. R. Wagner, proprietor of the Holland bulb farm. From his windows he saw a sheet of flame racing down on the town.

Wagner said he had barely bundled his family into his car, when the fire roared around his place. He lost five furnished houses occupied by his employees, five drying sheds, a barn and several head of cattle.

FLEE IN NIGHT CLOTHES

So sudden was the onslaught residents barely escaped with their lives, fleeing only in their night clothes and leaving their belongings to the flames.

The town was described as one of suffering and privation and appeals to the Red Cross were made and Red Cross workers were sent from here.

Pescadero, also a coast-side community in the same region, battled successfully, forcing the fire wall back five miles; aided partly by prisoners from the County Jail who were pressed into service in the effort to recruit all available man power.

San Leandro, threatened last night and today, breathed with relief as flames were pushed back high into the hills. In San Rafael rehabilitation is in order after the destruction there yesterday.

Oakland was called upon to stop a blaze that flared up on Leona Heights and drove toward Chabot Observatory. It was stopped.

Other fires were reported from Pleasant Valley, fifteen miles west of Nevada City, along the Downieville highway twelve miles northwest of the same city near the Colgate power plant of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company not far from Marysville, and in Calavaras county.

BYRD MOUNTAIN FILMS GOOD

Little America Rejoices as Hard Developing Task Ends in Success for New Photos

BY RUSSELL OWEN

(Copyright, 1929, by the Los Angeles Times, the New York Times and St. Louis Post Dispatch. All rights for publication reserved throughout the world.)

LITTLE AMERICA (Antarctica) Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—While men are swarming over the big Ford plane after her mountain trip and fortunate landing on rough, hard snow, trying to find the cause of the unusual gas consumption and remedy it, another group has been busy in the photographic laboratory developing the aerial film on which pictures of the remarkable mountains of the Queen Maud range were registered.

Three men splashing about in the dark for eighteen hours, filling and emptying the fifty-gallon tanks which hold the big rolls of film, spilling water because of their cramped quarters, tired, but overjoyed because their work showed good results—it was an inconceivably delicate and difficult task under these primitive conditions.

WORK UNDER HANDICAPS

But how their work was repaid—dozens of clear-cut and beautiful pictures of magnificent peaks, rising step by step from the barrier, plain, stark, bleak and majestic. They now are being assembled so they can be studied in detail, and some day will be the first accurate record of this part of the Antarctic.

Preparations to develop the films were made while the plane was in flight. About 800 gallons of water was needed. That may not mean much to people at home, but down here there "ain't no water." It has to be made. Some expeditions have found it difficult to get enough water for necessary cooking and washing purposes. Coal is necessary and coal down here is as valuable as diamonds.

A pail full of hard-packed snow—nove, as it is called—makes about a third of a bucket of water. So, to get 800 gallons of water more than three tons had to be hauled and melted.

After Capt. McKinley, the aerial photographer, had had a few hours sleep on his return from the flight he started in about noon on Wednesday. Joe Rucker helped him with the developing and Blackie helped with the water, while Jim Feury ran the torch which melts the snow.

FILMS PROVE FINE

As they worked on, emptying and refilling developing tanks in the dark—for aerial film has to be developed in absolute darkness—they could not help splashing water on the floor and occasionally the hose from the outside tanks got away from them. They soon had an inch or two of icy water on the floor of the laboratory and worked in it for hours.

Mac was intensely anxious to see what the first roll would show. Aerial film is hypersensitive, and under favorable conditions is not kept more than a few weeks. This film had been packed away a year and a half and carried through the

ESTATE OF LOEW PARED BY DEBITS

Theater Magnate's Riches Shrink Half in Closing, Due to Liabilities

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. (Exclusive) Debts and other deductions reduced the estate of Marcus Loew, theater magnate who died September 5, 1927, from a gross of $1,673,293, to a net of $826,647, it was shown in a transfer tax appraisal filed today by Deputy State Tax Commissioner Stephens.

The principal asset is in securities valued at $1,427,479, the principal item of which is 135 shares of Empire Corporation, valued at $1,172,202. This corporation includes among its holding 150,548 shares of Loew's, Inc., valued at $2,608,767.

The debts of the estate amounted to $657,560. The bulk of the money goes to the widow and two sons.

NEW DRY RULING SCORED

Decision of Peoria (Ill.) Judge Hitting Liquor Buyers Brings Out Many Foes But Few Friends

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—America's jails and penitentiaries would not hold 1 per cent of the convicted felons if the Jones "five and ten" law and the Congressional Act of 1790, upheld yesterday by Federal Judge Louis Fitzhenry of Peoria, Ill., were effectively prosecuted, Senator Otis F. Glenn, Republican, Illinois, declared today.

The Illinois Senator denounced the principle involved in the Fitzhenry ruling as so extreme that it will defeat its own purpose and militate against rather than aid law enforcement.

The statement of Senator Glenn was one of the mildest in a barrage of comments from Washington officials upon the Fitzhenry decree which caused the biggest prohibition stir in the capital since the Brookhart "wet dinner party" sensation.

Any person who buys liquor or secures liquor in the possession of a friend or relative is—unless he reports his knowledge to the United States government—as much of a felon as a distiller or a bootlegger, the Peoria judge held in a ruling which he gave upholding the Jones law in the case of Bertley Smith, who was tried last week for selling liquor in 1927. The 1790 statute making a person withholding knowledge of a felony a felon himself is still applicable, Judge Fitzhenry held.

Leading wet Senators, among them Senator Millard E. Tydings, Democrat, Maryland, and Senator Royal S. Copeland, Democrat, New York, foresaw disastrous consequences if Judge Fitzhenry is right. Even the drys balked at approving the decision. Senator Morris Sheppard, Democrat, Texas, said he hopes the higher courts will test it, but Senator Borah declined to discuss the opinion until he reads it.

Dr. Clarence True Wilson, secretary of the Methodist Board of Temperance, Prohibition and Public Morals, had the only sympathetic word for the new development. He said he believes Judge Fitzhenry has made a real contribution to the enforcement of prohibition.

On the other side, Henry H. Curren, president of the Association Against the Prohibition Amendment, said that Fitzhenry already

GATE SHUT ON MIRACLE CEMETERY

Cardinal O'Connell Ends Malden Shrine Hysteria by Closing Order

BOSTON, Nov. 22. (AP)—Cardinal O'Connell of Boston archdiocese announced today that Holy Cross Cemetery at Malden will be closed to all but funerals beginning Monday. The cemetery has been visited by thousands during the past few weeks following reports of miraculous cures at the grave of Rev. Patrick J. Power.

In a brief announcement the cardinal said the cemetery would be closed until a thorough investigation had been made into the situation which has arisen as a result of the reported cures. He added that he hoped the public would abstain from visiting the cemetery tomorrow and Sunday "so as to avoid the great inconvenience arising from such numerous crowds as have been gathering there lately, especially on Sundays and holidays."

Coast Steamer Goes on Rocks in Dense Fog

EUREKA, Nov. 22. (AP)—Meager advices reaching here tonight reported the grounding of the coastwise steamer Daisy Putnam in a dense fog ten miles south of Punta Gorda early today. Capt. M. C. Yetting and his crew of twenty-one men were declared to have waded ashore and were believed making their way toward Punta Gorda lighthouse.

The steamer, owned by the Freeman Steamship and Lumber Company, was reported fast on the rocks at Spanish Flat near the spot where the Indiana Harbor was wrecked several years ago.

The Daisy Putnam was built in 1913 and has been in the coastwise trade since that time. She is 201 feet long with a forty-one-foot beam and a draft of fourteen feet. She is of 476 registered tons.

Unless this year is unlike others in the past, numerous other gifts of turkeys will be received at the White House within the next few days.

BILLIONS IN CONSTRUCTION PLEDGED TO PRESIDENT

Railroads and Other Industries Will Push Gigantic Programs as New Aid to Prosperity

BY LAURENCE M. BENEDICT
"Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—Programs involving the expenditure of billions of dollars were outlined before President Hoover today by the railroad and construction interests of the country in proof of their willingness to aid in the administration's prosperity program.

By the end of the year, it developed, the railroads alone will have expended $1,247,782,000 on construction, improvements and equipment. Of this amount $783,972,000 remained to be expended on October 1 and there is to be no curtailment of original plans.

These figures and this assurance were given the President today in a telegram from R. H. Aishton, president of the American Railway Association, from its meeting in Chicago. The association represents 91 per cent of the total railway mileage in the country.

It is the opinion of the White House that the railroad construction and improvement program will assure greatly increased employment in the railway equipment industry next year over the current year, and a substantial addition to the demands of the carriers for steel.

PLANS EXPLAINED

The railway executives who conferred with the President Tuesday reported today to the railway association at Chicago on plans discussed at that conference for the railroads to assist in maintaining prosperity and employment by all possible expansion of construction and maintenance and increased orders for supplies.

The association promptly pledged itself to co-operate with the President, and with other industries in every possible way, and to this end it named Mr. Aishton as the representative of the railroads to keep in touch with other industrial groups and with the development as they arise in the Hoover program to promote economic stability. Aishton will be the liaison officer, so to speak, between the railroad interests and the general industrial world.

Before the President received the wire from Aishton he conferred for several hours with spokesmen for construction groups, including builders' exchanges, realty men, road builders, lumber dealers and manufacturers and various other groups. The groups he saw today do not exactly create construction programs, but they carry them into effect. Hence the purpose of their meeting with the President was mostly to lay before him surveys they have made of business conditions throughout the country and their appraisals of the business trend of the immediate future.

OUTLAY TO BE LARGE

The road builders, for their part were able to tell Mr. Hoover that they foresee a possible increase in road construction of about 10 per cent, bringing the total expenditure for such work in 1930 to something like $1,100,000,000. This estimate does not cover work to be done in municipalities, where another increase is anticipated.

The President was told that the total for the country including street construction probably will reach $2,200,000,000 for next year.

With these reports before him it now is the opinion of the President that the next step toward maintenance of national prosperity is for the various industries to find an effective way to co-operate with each other. The Chamber of Commerce of the United States today took action to that end by calling a meeting of industrial and trade groups for December 5 in Washington. The President has agreed to open this conference.

TEXT OF TELEGRAM

The telegram from the American Railway Association was received at the White House late in the day. It follows:

"The railway executives who were called into conference by you at Washington last Tuesday have as you requested, communicated to their associate executives at the meeting held today in Chicago, the same views expressed to them in respect to maintaining stability and promoting prosperity in business and I am authorized to give you the

MacDONALD FLAYED ON RED ACCORD

Member of Parliament Makes Vitriolic Attack at Meeting of Conservatives

LONDON, Nov. 22. (AP)—A vitriolic attack on Prime Minister MacDonald on the resumption of diplomatic relations between Great Britain and soviet Russia was made by Commander Oliver Locker-Lampson, Conservative member of Parliament, at today's session of 4000 Conservative party delegates.

A resolution introduced by the commander protesting against resumption of diplomatic relations with Russia was adopted by the conference, with but one dissenting vote.

In introducing his resolution Commander Locker-Lampson, who long has been a persistent advocate of the expulsion of soviet agents from Great Britain, said:

"Crooks, cads and Bolshevik bounders from Moscow will not enrich our stock. They have much degraded and debauched our standards. Soviet Russia is a moral outlaw. She is a moral leper and the cry 'unclean, unclean' ought to go up as long as she refuses to pay up."

The commander declared that Premier MacDonald is a "very vain and very weak man and king of the quacks." He said he is "fed up with MacDonald and his bleating about peace and parity with America. How dare MacDonald talk about peace when he is bringing war into England and the empire. We already have lost Egypt and we will lose India if MacDonald has a free hand, now he has sold the pass of the British citadel to these alien enemies in Moscow."

Stanford Polo Player Killed as Pony Falls

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—Barton Alan Goodspeed, '31, varsity polo player, was thrown from his horse and killed when the animal somersaulted and rolled over him in polo practice this afternoon. Crushing of his chest was ascribed as the immediate cause of Goodspeed's death by physicians at the Palo Alto Hospital, where his fellow-players rushed him after the accident. He died on the way.

Regarded as one of the best riders in the university R. O. T. C., from which the polo players are recruited, Goodspeed had substituted on Stanford's crack quartet last season and was practically sure of a regular berth this year. The victim was 21 years of age.

Salt Slide Traps and Kills Man

SAN JOSE, Nov. 22. (AP)—Andrew C. Christianson, 64 years of age, assistant superintendent of the Alviso Salt Company near here, was crushed or smothered to death when buried beneath about twenty-five tons of salt in a bin at the company plant this afternoon.

Thirty or forty workmen dug for almost two hours before recovering the body. Christianson apparently had climbed down into the bin to make an adjustment when the mound of salt caved in on him.

REDS TAKE CHINA CAPTIVES

Soviet Dispatch Says 8300 Soldiers With Rifles and Field Guns Captured in Counter-Attacks

KHABAROVSK (Siberia) Nov. 22. (AP)—The official Tass News Agency reported tonight that more than 8000 Chinese soldiers and 300 officers had been captured and disarmed by soviet forces in a series of vigorous counter-attacks.

The report stated that about 10,000 rifles, a considerable quantity of field guns, ammunition, miscellaneous arms and equipment had been taken by the Red soldiery. The counter-attacks are described as directed against continuous provocative assaults by Chinese along the soviet border in the trans-Baikal and coast line districts during the last three weeks.

DEFEAT OF CHINESE DESCRIBED BY GENERAL

(Copyright, 1929, Chicago Tribune.)

MUKDEN, Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—Gen. Liang Chung-cha and the remnants of his brigade of border defense troops managed to evacuate Manchuli on the 20th inst. by a circuitous route and reached Hailar this morning, where Gen. Liang is in the hospital due to wounds.

Following the evacuation the Reds entered the city and reoccupied the old Russian barracks, the soviet troops now being back in the same position on Chinese soil which was occupied by the Czarist troops prior to 1918 when the Bolshevist revolution force dthe imperial troops to evacuate Chinese soil.

A brief report from Gen. Liang received at headquarters here today confirmed the death of Gen. Hankwanti, commander of the Chinese troops in Dalai Nor. Gen. Liang also stated that during the Red air bombing of Dalai Nor between 700 and 800 Chinese and Russian civilians, mostly coal miners, went into the mines in order to escape the rain of Red air bombs as well as the artillery fire which was centered upon the little village adjoining the mines. When the soviet troops arrived and found the civilians underground they stationed a guard at the mouth of the mine, shooting all who attempted to escape. Later they opened the valves and flooded the mines, assertedly drowning the entire population.

Gen. Liang's report also stated that the Red forces now occupy the assurance of their very sincere and earnest spirit of co-operation in the work you have undertaken.

"These executives in their associations represent approximately 95 per cent of the total operating revenues and approximately 91 per cent of the total railway mileage in the United States. They realise the national importance to the social and economic well being of the country of business stability and prosperity and their duty so to discharge their transportation responsibilities as to make their service harmonize with the wisest and most intelligent judgment and plans for the public welfare.

PROGRAM ARRANGED

"The program of capital expenditures already arranged for is impressive, amounting up to October 1 of this year to $1,247,792,000 for Class 1 railways, of which $673,972,000 remained on that date to be expended. This figure of $1,247,792,000, compares with a capital program of $902,307,000 for the same period of 1928, an increase of over 38 per cent. The number of freight cars on order on October 1 was 29,481, a greater figure than on the corresponding date in any year since 1924, and this number has been increased as of November 1 to 39,642, which is an increase of 27,561, compared with the same date a year ago. On October 1 there were 384 locomotives on order, as compared with 119 on the same date in 1928 and 134 in 1927.

"There are also now on order approximately 1,250,000 tons of steel rails for delivery beginning early in 1930. It is estimated that this will be increased by orders for approximately 1,000,000 additional tons, which would make the rail deliveries in 1930 approximately 2,500,000 tons and substantially in excess of last year. Not believing that there is anything in existing conditions to require it the executives have no purpose whatever to reduce or abandon any part of this program.

CONFIDENCE FELT

"They are proceeding with confidence in the future business prosperity of the country and in reliance upon the full co-operation of industry in all its branches equally interested under these circumstances. It is their hope and expectation to proceed on at least a normal business in their future capital and maintenance expenditures. A movement to increase them, however, has been started and is being actively and intelligently pressed forward.

"In respect to your desire to organize a committee of contact for the various industries and with a view of harmonizing and stimulating constructive work, resolutions were adopted at this meeting designating me as chairman of the executive committee of the Association of Railway Executives to act for the railways as a means of keeping them in touch with other industrial groups and with developments as they occur; and I was requested to assure you of the willingness of the executives to assemble and make serviceable, through competent agencies, current figures with respect to capital expenditures and other available information that may be desired."

SECRETARIES SIT IN

Secretary of Commerce Lamont and Secretary of Labor Davis sat with the President today in his conference with construction leaders. Mr. Davis said that sentiment canvassed at the meeting indicated no serious aftermath of the stock market collapse.

Among those invited to the White House today were Darwin P. Kingsley, president of the New York Life Insurance Company; T. T. Flagler of Atlanta, president of the Associated General Contractors; Samuel Hotchkiss of St. Joseph, Mo., of the National Association of Builders Exchanges; Frank H. Smith of Chicago, president of the Portland Cement Association; Harry H. Culver of Culver City, Cal., president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, and Wilford Murth of New York, former president of the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

Others in the group were B. G. Reimer of Orange, N. J., president of the American Roadbuilders' Association; Samuel Echels of Harrisburg, Pa., president of the State Highway Association; G. L. Carpenter of Minneapolis, president of the National Lumber Manufacturers' Association; F. W. Reimers of Hammond, La., president of the Southern Pine Association; Arthur Beresford of Washington, president of the American Engineering Council; W. M. Wood of Decatur, Ill., representing the American Institute of Steel Constructors; A. Trulseichmann, Chicago, president of the Home Modernizing Bureau; D. T. Riffle of Pittsburgh, president of the National Building Trades Employers' Association, and A. M. Lewin of Cincinnati, president of the Retail Lumber Dealers' Association.

It was announced at the White House this evening that the conference between the President and the public utility groups scheduled for Monday has been canceled, but that the utility people will meet in New York Tuesday and submit a report of their conference to the President. It is assumed they will promise the same 100 per cent cooperation offered by other groups.

Monday the President will confer with representatives of the farming interests. That in all probability will be the last meeting with large groups in his prosperity series, although so long as there is any need for it he will continue to call to the White House key men in the various industries.

CALIFORNIA MEN PLAY IMPORTANT PART

BY ROBERT B. ARMSTRONG

"Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23. (Exclusive)—California is taking a large part in the business conferences being held by President Hoover. Harry H. Culver, president of the National Association of Real Estate Boards, arrived by plane to take an important part in the construction conference held in the Cabinet room at the White House today.

Earlier in the week Henry M. Robinson of Los Angeles, representing the California State Chamber of Commerce, was one of the leading participants in one of President Hoover's business conferences and is working with Secretary of Commerce Lamont to obtain the full quota of co-operation for the State of California in private and public improvements desired by President Hoover. He also will work with Julius Barnes, chairman of the board of directors of the United States commerce body, who has called the December conferences.

QUIZ ASKED IN CONGRESS BY MOONEY

Letter to Senator Schall Blames Preparedness Day Bomb on German Agents

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. (AP)—Investigation by Congress of the Preparedness-Day explosion of 1916 in San Francisco, in which ten persons were killed, was asked by Thomas J. Mooney, who is serving a life sentence for the crime, in a letter received today by Senator Schall, Republican, Minnesota.

In support of his appeal, Mooney asserted the explosion was part of a dynamiting plot executed by Louis J. Smith, who was said to have made a death-bed confession in Cleveland, O., and who, Mooney said, was hired by German agents. Mooney has charged he was "framed."

"I ask you," Mooney said in the letter, which was put into the Congressional record, "To place before Congress an appeal for an investigation of the entire matter insofar as it was a Federal relationship in that they committed this crime in furtherance of their general plan of attack on the Allies' cause in this country."

Others named as plotters by Mooney were Col. Von Bopp, German Consul; C. C. Crowley, asserted "go-between" and "close-up" man to the Consul, and a man described as Von Brinken, military attache.

FOURTEEN DIE IN COLD WAVE

is accompanied by sharp drops in temperatures and in some sections of Lake Erie it has assumed the proportions of a blizzard. The lowest temperature in New York City was 30, but there was a biting northwest wind blowing.

Chicago early this morning and today suffered its most severe early winter frigidity, the thermometer registering 8 above, accompanied by a biting wind of high velocity. The suburbs suffered more than the city. Berwyn and Melrose Park reported temperatures of 2 above while Winnetka and Wilmette thermometers read just 4 above at 8 a.m. Oak Park reported 5 above and Evanston a low of 6 above.

HUNDRED FIRE ALARMS

There were 100 alarms to keep firemen busy during the day, most of them being small blazes in flats caused by overheated stoves.

Approximately 300 homeless men made a concerted drive on police stations at an early hour, to sleep on floors and benches out of the cold.

The cold caused more than a mile of trolley wire in Berwyn to snap, tying up traffic.

Similarly severe cold weather is reported in dispatches from Midwest centers. There were extremely low readings for this season around Kansas City. Norton, Kans., reported 20 below with two inches of snow. At Concordia it was 2 below. There was light snow at Goodland, Dodge City and Wichita.

FORTY-DEGREE DROP

After a drop of forty degrees in twenty hours at Garden City, the mercury registered 6 below zero. A light, dry snow which fell yesterday until after midafternoon has drifted considerably, but all main highways are reported passable.

Temperatures as low as 10 above zero were recorded in Missouri. Light snow fell in scattered sections of the State, particularly in the southeast part. The mercury reached 10 above at Hannibal and St. Joseph, 12 at Columbia, 14 at Springfield and 16 at St. Louis.

Chilean Accepts Post as Arbiter

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—Manuel Foster Recabarren, Chilean jurist, has accepted, jointly approved by the United States and Mexico the position of neutral and third member of both the special and the general Mexican-American claims commissions. He is the third internationalist to fill the repeatedly vacated position of arbiter on both commissions since they were created in 1923, and formed the basis upon which relations between both countries were resumed.

Capital Blast Deaths Grow

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. (AP)—The death list in the explosion under a 5 and 10-cent store yesterday rose to six today with the death of Mrs. Florence Darlington, 50 years of age, who succumbed to internal injuries. Several others are believed to be near death.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—White House attaches have caused a slump in the market for unusual Hoover autographs with the announcement that the city, in a manner of speaking, is full of them.

T. P. Madigan, New York autograph dealer, had proclaimed himself possessor of a rare autograph—that of President Hoover attached to a sample of Hoover's art.

It seems that the President has a habit, when conversing with callers at his desk, of drawing geometric designs on a pad of paper in front of him while preoccupied with the conversation. One of his callers recently took one with the President's signature on it away with him and it came into the hands of the collector in New York.

White House attaches, however, say that numerous friends of the President, as well as the families of virtually all White House employees, have them and are treasuring them against the day when undoubtedly they will be highly valued.

the terrible pain which had wracked the aged man for nearly forty-eight hours, the more insidious danger of uremic poisoning increased. Physicians had been able to strengthen the heart by injections, but the chances of their checking spread of the poison is slight.

COURAGE SHOWN

The 88-year-old statesman's marvelous courage helped him stifle any expression of pain while he was conscious, but he moaned and cried out during his intermittent spells of unconsciousness.

"I am suffering atrociously in my intestines," he told Dr. Degennes in a matter-of-fact tone, without a hint of self-pity. Then he lapsed again into unconsciousness.

Clemenceau's dying agony has roused the pity of all France. Any political ill feeling left from the Tiger's tempestuous career seems to have vanished, and the eyes of his countrymen are fixed in complete sympathy on the modest ground-floor apartment of "Pere La Victoire" (Father Victory) in the Rue Franklin.

is overruled by a higher court. He said: "It is cheating the Constitution to say that it is a felony to buy liquor when Congress deliberately refused to put any such provision in the Eighteenth Amendment."

At the Department of Justice, charged with enforcement of the Volstead and Jones acts, news of the revival of the eighteenth-century statute received a cool reception. Asked if the District Attorney has been instructed to take cognisance of the old law in enforcing the prohibition law, Atty.-Gen. Mitchell answered: "No."

He also answered: "No," in reply to inquiries if any study of the 1789 statute is being made with a view to using it or if district attorneys have been directed to go after liquor buyers with the intention of testing a liquor-buying case in the Supreme Court.

James J. Britt, chief counsel for the Prohibition Bureau, stated frankly that, although he believes Judge Fitzhenry's decision is legally correct, it will not be enforced generally.

FORD TO BOOST OUTPUT OF CARS

Production of 12,000 Daily Will be Established

Assembly Plants Will Shut Down for Short Time

Each Will Work Up Stocks to be Ready for 1930

DETROIT, Nov. 22. (AP)—Readjustments that must be made in preparation for next year's production will bring about a shut-down of from ten days to two weeks in each Ford assembly plant throughout the country, it was learned today at the executive offices of the Ford Motor Company.

Some of the plants already have closed, and others will follow suit, as their stocks of materials are worked up, it was explained in emphasizing that the plants will not close simultaneously. All the material on hand in each assembly plant is to be worked up before that plant closes. Under this arrangement many of the assembly units with large stocks on hand may not close until after other plants have reopened.

OUTPUT TO BE 12,000

A shut-down will not be necessary in the Detroit area, it is said, because the workers can be shifted from one line of work to another pending completion of the readjustment of plant equipment.

How long it will require for all the Ford assembly plants to clear their present stocks and complete the readjustments referred to in plant equipment could not be stated definitely. It was said, however, that a production schedule in excess of the maximum thus far this year will be in operation "long before the first of the year."

From another source it was learned that a daily production schedule of 12,000 units is planned as soon as possible after all assembly plants have cleared present stocks of materials.

CONFERENCE PLANNED

Henry Ford returned from Washington today, but said there was nothing further to add at this time to the announcement he gave out at the capital regarding an increase in wages for Ford employees.

"I will go into conference with my son (Edsel Ford, president of the Ford Motor Company,) as soon as he returns to Detroit within the next few days," Mr. Ford said.

"There is to be no cut in production and none is contemplated, the stock market situation has not affected our plans or policy in the least. We are going right ahead on the lines indicated in the views which I presented to the President's conference."

tropics, which is death to improperly packed film.

When Mac had an opportunity to peek at his first negatives and found distinct images he could have danced for joy in the water. It was a great testimonial to the film and the way it had been protected. Being buried in the snow since coming off the ship probably helped to keep it.

As soon as one batch of the film, a roll seventy-five feet long and nine inches wide and containing 110 exposures, was finished the next one was started and the first film wound on the drying reel.

This reel takes up most of the outer room of the laboratory and water from one large tank which was used in developing and washing the last roll had to be carried under the reel.

A man can just get under it with nothing in his hands by bending and pushing, and with a pail of water it was a task to make anyone vociferous. Then to make matters more complicated the motor which turns the drying reel got wet and burned out and the reel had to be turned by hand after the last strip had been put into place, because if the reel stops the film streaks.

But it was done finally and there were 220 photographs, showing the barrier all the way to the mountains and back to the forced landing, also pictures of the mountains taken from the air and while the plane was on the ground at the mountain base.

It had taken eighteen hours of hard work on the developing alone and many more in preparing for it.

After a night's rest Mac began to print from the negatives and everyone in camp has been running in to look at the mountains of which all had heard so much. As soon as they can be assembled, a better idea of what they show can be gained.

HOOVER ISSUES CENSUS APPEAL

Proclamation Emphasizes People's Duty

Explains That Answers Can Harm No One

Purpose of Undertaking Clearly Given

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. (AP)—As the chief citizen of the nation, President Hoover reminded all other citizens and persons in a proclamation today of their duty to answer questions put by census enumerators beginning next April.

"No person can be harmed in any way by furnishing the information required," he said, emphasizing that the census had nothing to do with taxation, military or jury service, compulsory school attendance or similar matters. Any person refusing to answer is subject to penalty.

The President's proclamation called upon everybody in the United States to co-operate with the army of census workers who will be going from door to door next spring and after. He noted that the law requires the decennial count to determine representation of the States in the House.

THE PROCLAMATION

The proclamation read:

By the President of the United States of America.

A proclamation:

Whereas, by the act of Congress approved June 18, 1929, the fifteenth decennial census of the United States is to be taken beginning on the first day of April, nineteen hundred and thirty; and,

Whereas, a correct enumeration of the population every ten years is required by the Constitution of the United States for the purpose of determining the representation of the several States in the House of Representatives; and,

Whereas, it is of the utmost importance to the interest of all the people of the United States that this census should be a complete and accurate report of the population and resources of the nation;

Now, therefore, I, Herbert Hoover, President of the United States of America, do hereby declare and make known that, under the law aforesaid, it is the duty of every person to answer all questions on the census schedules applying to him and the family to which he belongs, and to the farm occupied by him or his family, and all other census schedules as required by law, and that any person refusing to do so is subject to penalty.

CENSUS PURPOSE

The sole purpose of the census is to secure general statistical information regarding the population and resources of the country, and replies are required from individuals only to permit the compilation of such general statistics. No person can be harmed in any way by furnishing the information required. The census has nothing to do with taxation, with military or jury service, with the compulsion of school attendance, with the regulation of immigration or with the enforcement of any national, State or local law or ordinance.

There need be no fear that any disclosure will be made regarding any individual person or his affairs. For the due protection of the rights and interests of the persons furnishing information every employee of the census bureau is prohibited, under heavy penalty, from disclosing any information which may thus come to his knowledge.

I, therefore, earnestly urge upon all persons to answer promptly, completely and accurately all inquiries addressed to them by the enumerators or other employees of the census bureau and thereby to contribute their share toward making this great and necessary public undertaking a success.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the great seal of the United States.

Done at the city of Washington, this 22nd day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine, and of the independence of the United States, the one hundred and fifty-fourth.

HERBERT HOOVER,
President of the United States.
By the President,
HENRY L. STIMSON,
Secretary of State.

Liang's report declares: "The soviet troops are making extensive preparations for a long stay, definitely indicating that the real intentions of the Red army is a political and territorial conquest."

Mukden military headquarters today issued orders for the immediate arming of two cavalry brigades of Mongols, residents of the Barga district, which will be placed under the command of Gen. Five Red airplanes appeared over Hailar at 10 o'clock last night, and after dropping illuminary bombs, dropped several high explosive bombs which landed in the residence section of the city, largely occupied by Russian emigres and refugees.

Western homes need Extension Telephones

In other days when the telephone was not in such universal use, a single instrument in some central hallway was considered "convenient."

Today when one's friends may call by telephone at any hour or minute, a single instrument is not considered true telephone convenience.

This typical one-story western home has three telephones at a cost of but a few cents a day. They are beside the easy chair, at the bedside, and in the kitchen.

MULTIMILLIONAIRE'S DOCTOR TESTIFIES

witness said, his patient was under such strain that he broke into heavy perspiration when attempting conversation and became dumb when asked any personal question. For almost a year prior to the beginning of his improvement he was reported to be in almost a stupor, which the specialist said had followed a year of great excitement.

In cross-examination of Dr. Meyer, an angle of Mrs. Stanley McCormick's attack on the care of her husband ordered by his brother and sister was taken to be indicated by a very thorough inquiry into Dr. Meyer's asserted plans to establish a laboratory at the McCormick estate in Montecito and to send there physicians being trained in the profession of psychiatrists.

DENIES SCHOOL PLAN

Dr. Meyer fought any inference that he, by recommendation of his reports read by Baker, was seeking to establish anything like a school at the McCormick estate here. Baker's questioning, however, held to that point that carrying out Dr. Meyer's recommendations would have resulted in establishing a training place for psychiatrists at Riven Rock.

Excerpts from Dr. Meyer's reports to the McCormick guardians were read to show that Meyer had recommended that the household at Riven Rock be enlarged, that men of Stanley McCormick's education and background be brought in to be his companions and that the round of walks, drives, music, reading, plays and motion pictures be broken up from an appearance of a specific routine with a definite purpose into the events of a normal household seeking these amusements as a normal gratification of its tastes.

WEARY AND WAN, CONGRESS QUITS

Week Holiday Taken Before Long Session Begins

Senate Ends, Still Arguing Over Tariff Measure

Report on Radio Situation Asked in Resolution

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. (AP)—Still arguing over the unsettled tariff legislation, Congress ended its extra session tonight for a week's holiday before the regular long term opens in December.

House Republicans referred caustically to the Senate's failure to complete the tariff bill, the last of the four legislative recommendations submitted by President Hoover to the session.

Weary and wan after days and nights of debate, the Senate found itself unable to keep a quorum on hand for the final day and gave up the contest until next session. It couldn't adjourn until 10 p.m., so a recess was taken about noon until 9:45 p.m. Then at 10 p.m. it adjourned sine die.

The tariff comes up again in the Senate next month as unfinished business and leaders of the coalition of Democrats and western Republican independents, which has control of the bill, believe it can be disposed of before the first of the year. They intend to continue the elimination of proposed industrial rate increases and confine the measure to higher duties for agricultural products.

HOOVER INFORMED

Leaders of the Senate and House buried their differences over the tariff long enough to go together to President Hoover and inform him that his special meeting was adjourning. He told them he had nothing more for this session.

Senator Jones of Washington, acting Republican leader, said the Congressional committee told the President that Congress had completed its work "in so far as possible." Representative Tilson of Connecticut, the House Republican leader, later said to newspaper men that the Representatives of the House "didn't have their tongues in their cheeks" when they reported to the President.

"How about the Senators?" he was asked.

"Oh, they had on their best poker faces," he replied.

Senators Jones and Walsh, of Montana, acting Democratic leader, and Representatives Tilson and Garner, of Texas, Democratic leader of the House, comprised the Congressional committee.

RANKIN ATTACKS BILL

In the fifty-minute concluding session of the House, the Senate tariff situation came up for discussion again. Representative Crowther, Republican, New York, said the people will blame the Democrats and "so-called Republicans" in the Senate for not getting the tariff enacted during the special session. Representative Rankin, Democrat, Mississippi, replied with an attack upon the bill, insisting it cannot help the farmers.

After several quorum calls were necessary in the Senate to get the tired members to work on the bill, Senator Cousens, Republican, Michigan, remarked that "everybody seems to be loafing on the job." Chairman Smoot of the Finance Committee packed up his tariff books and walked out. Thereupon the Senate recessed until just before the adjournment hour.

Preparatory to the regular session program, the Senate today adopted a resolution by Senator Sackett, Republican, Kentucky, calling for a report on the radio situation from the Radio Commission. The question extending the life of the Radio Commission comes up next session.

Drive to Defeat Norris Charged

TUSCUMBIA (Ala.) Nov. 22. (AP)—William Madgett of Hastings, Neb., a former president of the Nebraska League of Municipalities, declared today that the "power trust and all other such trusts" are campaigning actively for defeat of Senator Norris because of the Nebraskan's efforts in behalf of enactment of legislation providing government operation of Muscle Shoals.

Speaking before the Public Ownership League of America here, Madgett said the power companies are discouraging all efforts to remove electrical distribution from a private basis, and "their activities against Senator Norris easily can be understood."

SENATE CRITIC STICKS BY GUNS

New York Banker Astounds Coalition Group

Lobby Committee Calls Him Because of Attack

He Advises All Republicans to Pass Tariff

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. (AP)—Senators from the coalition tariff majority, partially blamed for the stock market plunge by Fred I. Kent, New York banker, challenged his declaration through three hours' questioning today but he stuck to his opinion.

Called by the lobby committee because of the attack on the Democratic - Republican independent group's actions, the banker maintained it had caused the Senate "to cease to function." The tariff debaters demanded how he would write the contested bill, and he advised that all Republicans should stay together and put through a bill supported by a majority of that party—regardless of individual or group opinions.

QUESTIONS FIRED

The independently minded committee members obviously were astounded by this reasoning and two or three occasionally hurled questions at Kent simultaneously.

Senator Borah of Idaho, a leader of the Republican independents, and Senator Walsh, of Montana, acting Democratic leader, participated with Chairman Caraway in the severe examination.

Senator Glass of Virginia, a former Democratic Secretary of the Treasury, joined the committee—although not a member—to inquire into the bankers' ideas on the stock-market situation.

Borah informed Kent the coalition had announced no program for downward revision of the industrial tariff rates.

"It was not announced," Kent insisted, " in a way that impressed people that way. I know that there was fear among industrialists as to how the tariff was going to develop."

PUBLIC UNCERTAIN

Kent persisted that the public mind was "uncertain" because of the failure of the Senate to pass the tariff bill and, asked whom he blamed for that, he named the Republican independents. Asked how he would remedy the situation, he insisted that the independents should work with the Republican majority and seek to convince its own party of its views and abide by the decision of the majority of the party.

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, asked Kent if he thought the Republican independents should have supported the tariff bill "regardless of their own views."

"They should have convinced a majority of their party that they were right," Kent replied.

"But they couldn't do that," Walsh reminded.

"Then maybe they weren't right," Kent suggested.

PRESSED FOR VIEWS

Pressed to tell what he would have done if he had been a member of the Senate opposed to the rates in the tariff bill, Kent said he would have tried to convince the other members of his party that he was right.

"If I were correct, I thing I could convince the others," he observed.

"If you couldn't do that, then what would do?" Walsh demanded.

"That would depend on what was said," Kent returned adding that he would vote for what he believed to be for the "best interests of the United States."

After examination of Kent was completed, Chairman Caraway announced no hearings will be held next week while the Senate is in recess.

The only other witness today was J. A. Arnold, manager of the Southern Tariff Association, who told of attempts to organize the Western Tariff Association and the National Tariff Council in the West. The purpose of both associations, he explained, is to promote protective tariff sentiment.

SPAIN AIMS AT INCREASE IN HER NAVY

Sixth Place Among World Powers Sought in Program Now Being Pushed

MADRID, Nov. 22. (AP)—Spain is planning to recoup some of her lost prestige of other centuries on the seas by pursuing a naval construction policy, which officials of the Ministry of Marine say will rank her sixth among the great world powers.

The vessels, some of which were begun about two years ago, are to be built in Spanish shipyards at Cartagena, Cadiz and Ferrol and all will be under construction by June, 1932. Completing of the program is expected within three years.

At present the Spanish Navy is made up of sixty-three ships of all classes, mostly smaller craft. The largest are the Alfonso XIII and the Jaime I, each of 15,700 metric tons' displacement.

Officials said that in its new construction program Spain will continue to cling to the idea of building small craft, as it is felt that it will be useless to try to compete in extravagant expenditure with the larger powers in launching dreadnaughts.

Among the new boats planned are eight destroyers of 1800 tons, twelve submarines of 1000 tons and various auxiliary craft.

OKLAHOMAN SEIZES AQRICULTURAL PLUM

CHICAGO, Nov. 22. (AP)—R. L. Burel of Enid, Okla., branch manager of a Kansas City grain company, today was appointed chief accountant for the Farmers' National Grain Corporation, the $20,000,000 marketing agency set up under direction of the Federal Farm Board. William L. Stahl of Indianapolis was chosen director of publicity.

Carolina Preacher Suggests Whip for Northern Critics of Southern Abuses

GREENVILLE (S. C.) Nov. 22. (AP)—Rev. D. B. Hahn, Baptist, would have public whipping posts established for "northern reformers who think they are called upon to reform conditions in textile mill villages here."

He gave his views before the South Carolina College Press Association and said northern newspapers were conducting campaigns of propaganda against southern textile mills.

Reds Ignoring Call Face Death

MOSCOW, Nov. 22. (AP)—Hereafter soviet citizens working or residing abroad who may refuse to obey the summons of their government to return to Russia will be adjudged guilty of treason. When finally taken in custody they will be shot within twenty-four hours after identity is established.

This measure was taken today by the Centra. Executive Committee of the soviet union in the light of the recent refusal of M. Bessodovsky of the soviet embassy at Paris to return to Moscow to face trial on charges of embezzlement.

BUSINESS IDEAS SOUGHT IN EAST

Chief of New State Bureau of Commerce in Capital

Co-operation in Marketing Problems Requested

Data on Shipping Also to be Gathered by Bowen

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 22. (AP)—Laying the foundation for his future activities, Charles C. Bowen, recently appointed chief of the new State Bureau of Commerce, is in Washington, conferring with Federal officials, business leaders and transportation heads relative to development of domestic and foreign markets for California products.

Bowen's trip east, authorized by Gov. Young upon recommendation of A. R. Heron, director of State Finances, primarily is to gain co-operation between Federal and California officials on marketing ideas. Bowen also is to see officials in New York and Massachusetts, where bureaus of commerce have been operated for some time.

The new bureau chief is conferring with officials of the Federal Departments of Agriculture and Commerce, the Federal Farm Board and the United States Chamber of Commerce.

He was instructed before leaving here to pay particular attention to the problem of export market development and in line with this idea he is to talk about available foreign markets, particularly in South America and the Orient, with heads of various steamship companies handling American exports.

ONE TASTE and you've made a discovery

Women tell each other of the remarkable new bread made with NATURAL flour (unbleached). You can see and taste the amazing difference.

COMPARE Highland bread with the bread you are now serving. Note the thinner, tender crust of Highland bread. Taste the nut-sweet flavor.

Separate the slices of both loaves. Note how Highland slices are all the same. Each fine textured and white as angel food.

Taste the blended goodness of natural wheat hearts. You can tell instantly the difference between bleached flavor and natural flavor. Highland bread made with pure natural flour gives a delicate flavor you have never before known. This is the taste of true food value.

Food experts say this new bread gives greater value than any other food or combination of foods. The life-giving protein of Highland bread excels that of such worthy foods as eggs and milk.

Here is health for your children. Best of all, they can help themselves. Each Highland loaf is ready cut into even tender slices. Thoughtful mothers all over Los Angeles keep Highland bread always within easy reach of hungry children. Dietitians point out that ten slices daily of this purer, richer bread keep a child healthy and happy—give more than half the needed food value—build energy, strength, resistance to sickness.

Each day you will learn many new benefits of this new bread, our masterpiece of baking.

Get Highland bread from your grocer. Look for the gay Scotch piper on the package. See the name Mack's Highland bread. There is only one.

ESPEE BATTLES IN RAIL HEARING

Fights Hard to Tear Down Link-Plea Support

North's Need for Another Line Minimized

Witnesses Recount Lack of Public Necessity

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—Although delayed and in some few instances stopped by objections, the Southern Pacific battered away steadily today in its process of tearing down the points of public convenience and necessity laboriously built up by witnesses supporting the link application of the Great Northern and Western Pacific.

Productivity and potentiality of the territory at issue were attacked at length, both in ponderous exhibits, maps, graphs, profiles and photographs, and in the assertions of witnesses.

The bulk of their testimony acted as rebuttal to statements previously made by witnesses for the appellant railroads and with one outstanding exception, denied the glowing future pictured for the territory if the new line is permitted to enter.

The exception came when the Union Pacific, through Samuel W. Murray, chief engineer of the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation Company, controlled by a company in which the Great Northern owns one-half interest, attempted to show the Great Northern will be unable to use trackage connections with the new line for high-speed trains unless much improvement and some relocation of line and equipment is made.

WITNESS BATTLES

Dana T. Smith, Union Pacific counsel, co-operating with the Espee in opposing the new line, was forced to extreme lengths to get the point into the record because of previous exhibits covering the situation, but finally managed it.

On cross-examination F. G. Dorety, Great Northern attorney, hammered Murray into a comparison of conditions on the line in question, that from Wishram to Chemult, to conditions on the Espee's Siskiyou line. Murray fended him as long as he was able, but finally admitted the Southern Pacific "might" have to spend as much as $100,000,000 to put its Siskiyou line into the same position of modern standardization as the Espee believes the Wishram-Chemult line of the appellants' connections should be.

G. J. Sielaff, Southern Pacific mining engineer, denied the contention of appellant that mineral and diatomaceous earth deposits to be tapped by the new line or its intervenor connections will be of large commercial value. Sielaff said the mineral resources of the area north of Westwood are the poorest in the State, that south of Westwood and east of the Indian Valley Railroad the chief output is copper, now being mined, and west of there mineral deposits virtually have been exhausted.

AS TO ROCK AND GRAVEL

The best diatomaceous-earth deposits in California, he declared, are in Southern California, and those in the region to be reached by the new line are of little value.

There is plenty of rock and gravel in the area, however, and the Southern Pacific made capital of this by calling attention to its consistent use by the California Highway Commission in building new highways and improving existing ones.

George W. Barr, agricultural agent for the Southern Pacific, declared that of 5808 square miles of territory from which the new line would draw its traffic, 5130 square miles, or 88 per cent of the total, is nonagricultural and cannot very well be made to produce anything beyond its present capabilities except with spurring factors not available or prohibitive in cost if introduced.

Even timber, the heaviest natural resource of the territory, suffered during the wrecking process.

ARMY MAN TESTIFIES

Although Max Thelen, attorney for a group of farmers and ranchers in the Big and Pall River valleys, attempted to disprove Southern Pacific contentions the prospects for increased production there are heavily overrated, the Southern Pacific countered with testimony from its agricultural expert to the general effect it is hopeless to build up soil productivity there without water.

There has been previous testimony the Pacific Gas and Electric Company uses all available water supply.

The military necessity of the new line was attacked further by Maj. J. J. Sullivan of the United States Army Reserve, who is assistant superintendent of the Espee's Shasta division. Sullivan asserted the major troop movement in a war emergency would be from east to west rather than from south to north or vice versa. His views were reflected by other witnesses on this phase.

AS TO RAILWAY EXPRESS

Even if the Southern Pacific were cut off, it was contended, the new line would be equally susceptible.

Other witnesses asserted the Great Northern would not gain in express revenues if the new line were built, the point being scored after a long and acrimonious argument over the introduction of a contract with the American Railway Express; that the Great Northern will not increase the supply of refrigeration cars for movement of perishables; that the Southern Pacific is not receiving a fair return on its investment in the territory; that highways existent, being built or contemplated, will serve the territory the new line proposes to serve; and that Southern Pacific lines and connections now afford contact with all markets to which California products are shipped and this ability will be enhanced by completion of the $12,000,000 Suisun by bridge in 1930, eliminating the ferry haul across Carquinez Straits.

The hearing was adjourned tonight until Monday morning.

TIDAL WAVE COST RUNS HIGH

Property Loss Estimated at $1,000,000 or More; Death Total Still Stands at Thirty-six

ST. JOHN'S (N. F.) Nov. 22. (AP)—First reliable estimates of the damage caused along the southern coast of the Burin Peninsula Monday night by the tidal wave which followed upon the earthquake began trickling in today.

The property loss will not be less than $1,000,000, George Bartlett, a merchant in the town of Burin, said today. He came here heading a delegation of citizens seeking government aid for the stricken fishing villages of the wave-swept districts.

Bartlett said he was on board a boat tied at the Burin dock when the wall of water rushed into the narrow rockbound inlet. There was a mighty roar, a swish of spray and suddenly the vessel was lifted high into the air. Bartlett ran out on deck and saw that the boat then had been carried several feet above the dock.

SCREAMS AND CRIES

A store he conducted alongside the wharf was washed away and carried into a field yards away from the waterfront. Screams and cries for help came out of the night from all sides.

Frantically the townspeople ran about in the darkness, vainly seeking companions who had been torn from them in the rush of water. The scene was appalling, he said, and the unfortunate ones along the waterfront, believing the coast line was sinking, feared the end was near for them.

The death list along the devastated section of the coast still is estimated around thirty-six, but so suddenly did the disaster strike, hurling fishing smacks against the rocks and tearing waterfront buildings from their foundations, it is feared that with more detailed reports the number of dead will mount.

REPORTS STILL LACKING

It will be several days more before reports can be obtained from some of the tiny fishing villages scattered along the coast. Roads and bridges were torn out by the gigantic wave piling up into the inlets and inland communication facilities were put out of commission in some sections by storms.

Government steamers are taking physicians, nurses and medical supplies as well as provisions into the communities.

Huge storehouses, holding the season's catch of fish, were reported lost and supplies of coal, fuel and provisions already laid in for the winter were swept away.

Burin inlet, which before the tidal wave could accommodate vessels of fifteen tons, now is reported too shallow for ships of that size.

DR. DICKIE TO NAME ROSS IN CHARGES

State Health Department Head Demands Suspended Statistician's Resignation

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22. (AP)—Unless L. E. Ross, suspended chief statistician for the State Department of Public Health, resigns in the meantime, Dr. Walter M. Dickie, director of the department, announced today he will file charges against his subordinate with the Civil Service Commission Monday.

Dr. Dickie suspended Ross because of certain "activities outside of the department." He refused to elaborate on his statement other than to say that unless Ross's resignation is forthcoming he will file a report outlining the charges on Monday. Under civil service rules the head of a State department has the authority to suspend a civil service employee for thirty days, at the end of which time formal charges must be filed.

Dr. Dickie inferred that Ross's resignation will be submitted to him by Monday morning.

Ross declared tonight that his suspension yesterday by Dr. Dickie has not been handled "with a view to justice."

Ross said he believes "much needless trouble in connection with the matter could have been avoided by a frank, business-like inquiry and discussion."

Jordan Prepares to Listen in On Palo Alto Game

PALO ALTO, Nov. 22. (AP)—Dr. David Starr Jordan, chancellor emeritus of Stanford University and an invalid since his collapse, July 3, last, was looking forward today to the gridiron classic tomorrow between Stanford and University of California.

Dr. Jordan's condition has shown improvement during the last few weeks, so much so that today he penned his first letters since the day of his illness. He is able to spend between one and two hours each day in a wheel chair, and part of this time out of doors. This has provided the hope that for part of the game, at least, Dr. Jordan may listen in to the radio broadcast. Mrs. Jordan, however, has expressed the fear that the event may prove too exciting for him.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 22. (AP)—Dispatches tonight to El Universal from Pinotepa, Oaxaca, told of two heavy earth shocks which threw the populace into a panic but caused no damage.

The first was at 11:10 o'clock last night and the second a few minutes later. Another slight shock was felt early today.

LIE DETECTOR SHOWS CRIME

Murder Charge to be Brought on Machine's Showing

Ex-Convict Held for Theft of Car Accused

Suspect Granted Injunction Against Device's Use

SEATTLE, Nov. 22. (AP)—Decastro Earl Mayer will be charged with the murder of James Eugene Bassett, member of a Baltimore family who disappeared here more than a year ago, Prosecuting Attorney Colvin announced late today. He said the charges, which he declared would be based upon an asserted confession obtained from Mayer by use of a "lie detector machine," would not be filed for three weeks unless Bassett's body was recovered before that time.

MAYER DENIES

Mayer denied he had made any confession to Colvin and ridiculed the supposed usefulness of the machine. Mayer yesterday appeared in court with the complaint that he was being tortured with "truth serum" and a truth machine. He obtained a temporary injunction, returnable tomorrow morning, restraining further grilling on the part of Colvin and Claude G. Bannick, King county Sheriff.

Bassett disappeared from sight here September 3, 1928, after negotiating with Mayer for the purchase of his car. Mayer and his mother were arrested in Oakland Cal., September 13, 1928, and found in possession of Bassett's car and wrist watch. They were returned here and convicted of grand larceny for the theft of the car, although Mayer insisted he had bought it. Both received prison terms.

HABITUAL CRIMINAL

Then Mayer, who had a long prison record, was charged with being an habitual criminal and convicted. He is now in the King County Jail awaiting an appeal from this conviction.

Failure to locate Bassett's body prevented filing of murder charges when Mayer was first arrested. While Colvin has declared he was put on the trail of the supposed grave of Bassett by the use of the lie detector, workmen who explored several graves today in the vicinity of Bothell, Wash., where Mayer and his mother stayed for a time, were unsuccessful in locating a body. Colvin declared, however, that the oral confession which he says was made by Mayer is sufficient to proceed with the murder charges. He said there were three witnesses to the purported confession.

FATHER SAYS TALE CONFIRMS FEARS

ANNAPOLIS (Md.) Nov. 22. (AP) Reports from Seattle that D. E. Mayer had confessed killing James E. Bassett confirmed his father's worst fears as to the fate of his son, the father, State Librarian Frank P. Bassett, said today, although at the same time he expressed gratification at receiving some definite information to end the doubt which had remained for more than a year.

Mr. Bassett, who resigned as secretary of the Chamber of Commerce here after his son's disappearance in September, 1928, and spent six months on the Pacific Coast trying to help police find some trace of the young man, said he did not know whether he would go to Seattle again in view of the new developments.

THOUSANDS HONOR GOOD AT FUNERAL

Nineteen-Gun Salute and Volleys of Musketry at Grave Mark Services

CEDAR RAPIDS (Iowa) Nov. 22. (AP)—James W. Good, Secretary of War, was buried here shortly after noon today on a hilltop in a cemetery a few miles from his birthplace on an Iowa farm.

A prayer, three volleys of musketry, a Cabinet officer's nineteen-gun salute, and the playing of taps were the final honors accorded the War Secretary. Three thousand persons saw the rites at the cemetery after hundreds had been turned away from services at the First Presbyterian Church.

The Fourteenth Cavalry Band, two squadrons of unmounted cavalry, the Coe College R.O.T.C. unit, the Iowa National Guard, and the Pershing Rifles from the University of Iowa led the funeral cortege.

Under a bright November sun the flag-draped coffin was borne on a black-draped caisson, escorted by a guard of honor with fixed bayonets. Behind were the automobiles carrying the honorary pallbearers, Mrs. Good and her two sons and other relatives, and the official delegation from Congress and the Army.

Thousands lined the streets along which the procession slowly proceeded to the muffled strains of Chopin's "Funeral March." As the cortege passed the Immaculate Conception Church, the bell was tolled. Guns at the cemetery were fired at minute intervals while the coffin was being carried from the church to the grave.

HOOVER TO PUT OFF CHOOSING SUCCESSOR

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. (AP)—President Hoover does not expect to name a Secretary of War to succeed James W. Good until the thirty-day period of mourning is over. And it may be a considerable time after that before the position is filled.

It was said at the White House today the War Department is in good hands under the direction of acting Secretary Hurley, who has been mentioned as a possible successor to Good.

CHEST WORKERS BUSY

SAN FERNANDO, Nov. 22.—Volunteer workers have raised 40 per cent of this section's quota of $5000 in the Community Chest campaign. In two weeks time slightly more than $2000 has been subscribed here. Renewed efforts are to be made this week and next to fill the quota set by Community Chest headquarters for this district.

A happy outing at the beach in 1905

"Hitch up Dobbin, Henry, we're going to the beach!" Such was the cry that resounded in many a Los Angeles home of a Sunday way back in 1905. A trip to the beach in those days was a long long journey... one to be planned and thought about for weeks ahead. And the lunch... Mother and the girls used to stay up until nearly midnight the night before... stuffing eggs, frying chicken, sugaring walnuts, making sandwiches! The proportion and variety of those memorable lunches has never been surpassed... even in this modern day of quantity production!

The picture above shows a gay group at Long Beach in 1905. Back of the young people, if you can see past the Paris finery of the day, is the Long Beach pier which was comparatively new at the time. What a contrast the above group would make to a 1930 group on a beach outing!

Would your furniture recall that day?

YOUNG ASKS CITIZENS TO GIVE THANKS

Governor's Proclamation Urges Day of Prayer for Continuance of Blessings

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 22.—Gov. Young today issued the annual Thanksgiving Day proclamation in which he urges prayer for the continuance of the "blessings which have so richly attended us," during the past year.

The proclamation follows:

"In accordance with the long established custom of our country, the President of the United States has set apart and designated the last Thursday of this month as a day of thanksgiving to God for the blessings which have so richly attended us and of prayer for the continuance of those blessings.

"This beautiful custom is one which every citizen would desire to perpetuate. It seems eminently fitting that we should devote one day of each year, in our homes and in our respective houses of worship to a rendering of thanks, not only for the continuance of our material welfare, but also for the privilege which is ours of living in a land of peace, freedom, and equality of opportunity.

"Now therefore, I, C. C. Young, Governor of the State of California, in pursuance of the proclamation of the President and in accordance with the authority vested in me by law, hereby declare Thursday, the twenty-eighth day of November, 1929, as Thanksgiving Day."

Juror's Illness May Terminate McManus Trial

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. (AP)—Possibility of a mistrial being declared when George McManus ... called to the bar of general sessions Monday morning to hear further testimony linking him with the murder of Arnold Rothstein, the gambler, was seen today when a juror reported he is ill.

After an early adjournment had been taken in the fifth day of the trial today a juror, whose name was not revealed, went to the chambers of Judge Nott and asked to be excused on the ground that he was sick. Judge Nott, with consent of State and defense counsel, designated a physician to examine the juror and report Monday as to his physical condition.

If the physician reports the juror physically unable to continue Monday a mistrial may be declared, although the possibility that the attorneys might consent to picking a new juror and reading to him the testimony already given, was advanced.

KELLOGG URGES NEW ARMS CUT

Ex-Secretary Speaker at Pilgrims' Society Dinner

Competition in Building Seen as War Inducement

No One or Two Nations Can Dominate, He Says

LONDON, Nov. 22. (AP)—Frank B. Kellogg, former American Secretary of State, emerged from private life to receive the homage of the Pilgrims' Society tonight and to urge reduction in the land and sea forces of the world sufficient to prevent their use for anything but national protection.

"In my judgment one of the most important problems now confronting the nations," he told the distinguished members of the society who have as a purpose increasing British-American friendship, "is the question of reduction and limitation of armaments. I say reduction and limitation because, however ideal complete disarmament might be, we must look at these reforms from a practical standpoint. The world is not yet ready for disarmament.

INCREASES OPPOSED

"Competitive building inevitably is a great inducement to war. No treaty which provides for or contemplates an increase of armament will meet the situation."

"No one or two nations are going to be able to dominate the world," Mr. Kellogg went on. "The control of the seas now is an impossible dream. The security of the world can only be obtained by mutual consideration, confidence and the advancement of specific settlement of disputes."

PROBLEMS REVIEWED

Reviewing the post-war problems and efforts toward world peace, he outlined the work which is yet to be done toward maintaining peace. He cited the advancement of ideals by education of the peoples of the world; the advancement and extension of conciliation and arbitration and of disarmament or limitation of armament.

Recalling the steps which culminated in the signature of the general pact for renunciation of war, in which he himself had collaborated with Foreign Minister Briand of France, Mr. Kellogg asserted there is an increasing world demand that the principal military and naval powers take further action toward the accomplishment of disarmament as an effort to maintain peace.

"Therefore, I am hopeful that progress is going to be made in reduction of naval armaments and that the world will be satisfied that the great powers demand and intend to maintain peace."

RETIRED SEA HERO GOES TO REWARD

Admiral Lyon, Father of Australia Flyer, Called by Death at Capital

PARIS HILL (Me.) Nov. 22. (AP) Rear-Admiral Henry Ware Lyon, U.S.N., retired, 84 years of age, died today in Washington, according to word received here by his son, Capt. Harry Lyon.

Admiral Lyon, a veteran of the Civil and Spanish wars and a hero of the Samoan typhoon in 1889, was retired in 1907 at the age of 62.

Information reaching Capt. Lyon, who was navigator of the airplane Southern Cross in its flight from Oakland, Cal., to Australia, said his father suffered a heart attack.

Admiral Lyon was born on Boston's famous Bunker Hill. He entered the Naval Academy from Massachusetts in 1862. During the Spanish-American War he commanded the dispatch boat Dolphin. For fifteen months before his retirement he was commandant of the navy yard at Mare Island, California. He was midshipman on the Sacramento when that ship was wrecked on the coast of India in 1887.

Two Wives Laid to ex-Angeleno

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 22. (AP)—A temporary warrant charging bigamy was issued today against Thomas C. Jones, former president of an electric sign firm here, who was brought back to St. Louis from Kansas City to await grand jury action. He also is accused of issuing worthless checks to his employees.

Jones is asserted to have married Mrs. Mary Brenholts, Columbus, O., divorcee, at Knoxville, Tenn., last February, while he was still married to Mrs. Irene Stavart Jones, whom he wed in Los Angeles in 1922.

ANY CHILD LEGITIMATE IF BORN IN WEDLOCK

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 22. (AP)—In an opinion rendered for the Department of Social Welfare today, Atty.-Gen. Webb ruled that a child may be judged legitimate in California even though a husband obtains an annulment to a marriage on the basis of fraud in that he is not the father of the child. The law, Webb contends, may recognize the fraud, but presumes that any child born in wedlock is legitimate.

PRESS-ROOM TELEPHONE BILL NOBODY'S BUSINESS

CHICAGO, Nov. 22. (AP)—The telephone known as Franklin 3083 has been disconnected until such a time as payment of $2274 is made for last month's long-distance calls.

The telephone was in the press room of the county building. The unanimous opinion was expressed that if the phone company waits for the reporters to pay the bill it will be years and years and years. Even to a reporter $2274 is a lot of money. As far as the county's paying the bill, it is pointed out that there already is a $5,000,000 deficit.

Somehow, Franklin 3083 got the name of being a free telephone. Anyone wishing to call distant relatives, friends and the like simply called them. There was no other ceremony.

When James Russell, acting superintendent of public service, received the bill for $2274 yesterday, he called reporters on the carpet. They satisfied him they are not the ones he wants.

One of them told of arriving at the press room early one morning to find a group of hoboes squatted around a can of alcohol, while one of their companions was shouting into the telephone as follows:

"Operator, get me the Hotel Adlon in Berlin, Germany. I want to talk to the girl I met during the war." Another reporter related he had overheard a scrubwoman calling her old home in Czechoslovakia.

One call, the company records showed, was to Jimmy Collup, a convict at Sing Sing prison. Another was to the Tokio Maru docked at San Francisco. The call was for the purpose of bidding some one bon voyage.

There was a call, too, to a Quebec liquor house asking the price of Napoleon brandy, 1804.

Whisky Again Manufactured

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) Nov. 22. (AP)—The first whisky legally manufactured in the United States since September, 1917, was run into charred barrels here today.

While government officials looked on, fifty gallons of limpid, colorless fluid (which, if home made would be called white mule) dropped into a barrel which will, in the next four years, give it color, density and mellowness, and make it suitable for sale for medicinal purposes.

It is planned to make 13,000 barrels before stopping operations.

MEXICAN TOMATOES DUE

NOGALES (Ariz.) Nov. 22. (AP)—The first carload of winter tomatoes grown on the West Coast of Mexico will reach the border Monday, officially opening the season, it was announced here today.

CONGRESSMEN IN BASE FIGHT

Northerners Meet Today to Back Sunnyvale

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—Northern California Representatives in Congress are to meet tomorrow in the office of Representative Free of San Jose to plan a campaign for the Sunnyvale, Santa Clara county site, for the proposed California dirigible base in opposition to the Camp Kearny site near San Diego.

Besides Free those expected to attend are Representatives Kahn and Welch of San Francisco, Barbour of Oakland, Lea of Santa Rosa, and Englebright of Nevada City.

The contest for the dirigible base is becoming more spirited daily. Although they have held no meeting to plan joint action, all the Southern California members of Congress have been active and representatives of the Los Angeles and San Diego chambers of commerce are here working with them for the San Diego site.

There is a report today that the vote in the General Board of the Navy was four to one in favor of the Sunnyvale site, instead of three to two as previously rumored. But this, like most all other reports concerning the base, could not be verified.

PENITENTIARY HOME TO HIM

Escaped Ohio Prisoner Gives Self up After Six Years Outside Walls

COLUMBUS (O.) Nov. 22. Urban Knapp's conscience would not permit him freedom. He is back in the State penitentiary, from which, as a trusty, he escaped six years ago and then held good jobs outside.

He gave himself up to Gov. Cooper yesterday and walked alone to the prison.

BROOKS AGAIN HEADS MOUNTAIN OIL GROUP

CASPER (Wyo.) Nov. 22. (AP)—Former Gov. Brooks of Casper was re-elected president of the Rocky Mountain Oil and Gas Association by the directors yesterday, after adjournment of the annual convention. The association adopted all resolutions submitted earlier in the day. Chief among these was one calling for the cancellation of President Hoover's oil-conservation order so far as it affects the western public-land States.

EXPLORERS LIFT VEIL OF SILENCE

MacAlpine Flyer Reports Missing Party Safe

WINNIPEG, Nov. 22. (AP)—Flying through a heavy fog and mist, a single ski-equipped airplane last night glided to a safe landing on the ice of Great Slave Lake beside Fort Resolution, and flashed a long-awaited message to civilization: "The MacAlpine party is safe at Fort Reliance on McLeod Bay. They will fly their four planes down to Resolution as soon as the weather favors the effort." It was the first report of the party since they left Bathurst Inlet ten days before.

Leaving Col. C. D. H. MacAlpine and his seven companions, previously missing two months in the North, at Fort Reliance, Andy Cruickshank, one of the Northland's most noted pilots, made the 200-mile hop to Resolution yesterday. He was accompanied by his mechanic, A. Walker, and a Royal Canadian Mounted Police officer.

Held up at Fort Reliance for ten days because of uncertain flying conditions in the Great Slave Lake area, the homeward-bound party is waiting for better weather at the Little Arctic outpost, Cruickshank said.

A CHUCKLE FOR EVERYBODY

THE BEASTS OF TARZAN

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

When the battle was over only two of the pearl schooner's mutineers remained alive. They had found sanctuary in the forecastle. Tarzan brought them forth and without promises of immunity from punishment forced them to help work the vessel. A stiff breeze had risen with the sun, and with canvas spread the pearl schooner set in toward Jungle Island.

Here they picked up the fellow who had aided Tarzan and here the ape-man bade farewell to Sheeta and the Apes of Akut. As long as their eyes could span the distance, Jans and Tarzan, standing upon the deck, saw the lonely figure of the shaggy anthropoid motionless upn the surf-beaten sands of Jungle Island. As the vivid tropical twilight faded, Tarzan of the Apes murmured wistfully: "Farewell, my faithful friends. I shall remember you always."

After several days the schooner fell in with H. M. Sloop of War Shorewater. Through its wireless Lord Greystoke learned that which filled his and his wife's heart with joy and thanksgiving—his little son was safe at his own house. It developed that Rokoff had hidden the child in a low den where nameless infants were harbored, but a woman informant had enabled Lord Greystoke's solicitors to ransom him.

Lord and Lady Greystoke presently arrived in England for a joyful reunion with their child, but Tarzan of the Apes was not permitted long to enjoy his fancied safety and the comfort of his wealth and position. What made him forsake them—what befell him in his native Africa and how he overcame new perils is, as Kipling says, another story. That story is told in "THE SON OF TARZAN."

PASADENA GIVES GENTLE HINT

Asserted Monopolization of Park Picnic Grounds by Non-Residents Results in Framing of Ordinance Designed to Give Home Folks Chance

PASADENA, Nov. 22.—Asserted monopolization of this city's public parks by outsiders has resulted in the drawing up of a new recreation ordinance providing that only local residents may use the local picnicking facilities, it was learned today.

During the summer months many protests have been received at the City Hall from local taxpayers, asserting that the picnic tables at Brookside Park and elsewhere are usually so weighted down with lunches brought from Long Beach, Glendale and Monrovia that Pasadenans are forced to place their sandwiches on the ground.

Special attention is also given in the proposed ordinance regarding the system under which the Rose Bowl may be used for entertainments and athletic events. The city's rights are safeguarded under the contract against damage suits. Those who apply to use the Bowl must file an application giving the details of the events to be staged. Fees to be charged for night football games will be based on a percentage of the gross receipts. No rental will be charged for holding civic events at the Bowl to which the public is admitted without charge.

Another section of the ordinance provides a system of fees to be charged for the use of the parks by motion-picture concerns. The actual amounts to be charged are not revealed in the preliminary draft of the ordinance.

BOYS' SCHOOL GIVEN SITE

Anonymous Donor Presents Twenty-Acre Plot on Which to Construct Buildings Near Claremont

CLAREMONT, Nov. 22.—Through the generosity of an anonymous donor, the Norton School for Boys of this city has come into possession of a tract of twenty acres as a new school site, located two and a half miles north of Claremont, commanding an inspiring panorama of the mountains. The announcement of the gift and building program was made today by Dr. Frank M. Sleeper, headmaster of the school.

The land was purchased by the donor from Pomona College. Present plans call for the continuation of the school at its present location on West Seventh street in this city until such time as funds are available for the erection of buildings on the new site.

The school has engaged as architect, Paul W. Norton of the firm of Maginnis & Walsh of Boston, who will arrive in Claremont next month. He is a professor at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

The buildings, to be of modified Spanish type, will have accommodations for sixty boarding pupils. Grading for an athletic field, to be available next fall, and the planting of trees and shrubs begins at once. Plans call for three dormitories, an administration and recitation building, faculty residences, infirmary, field house, swimming pool, tennis courts, workshop and stables.

The Norton school opened in Claremont a year ago with an enrollment of four boys, and now, in its second year, has twenty-two students.

GREEKS OUTRANK "BARBS"

Scholarship of Sorority and Fraternity Groups at Redlands Leads University

REDLANDS, Nov. 22.—Scholarship ranking of sorority women and fraternity men at the University of Redlands is higher than the scholarship ranking of nonsorority women and nonfraternity men, according to a recent compilation of grades by the president's office. A survey of the total hours carried and a subsequent investigation of the total number of credit points earned by each of the various courses places the Greek-letter members ahead of other students.

Figures also show that nearly one-half of the women students are members of some social sorority and that over two-thirds of the men belong to a social fraternity. Figures are for the second semester of 1928-1929, giving nonsorority women a credit point average of 1.54 and sorority women an average of 1.67. Average of the men falls slightly lower than that of the co-eds, the nonfraternity men having a credit point average of 1.51 and the fraternity men one of 1.55.

Ranking in order of sororities follows: Alpha Xi Omicron, 1.94; Kappa Pi Zeta, 1.83; Alpha Sigma Pi, 1.76; Beta Lambda Mu, 1.69; Delta Kappa Psi, 1.43, and Alpha Theta Phi, 1.40.

Fraternity ranking discloses Alpha Gamma Nu in the lead with 1.66; Chi Rho Psi, 1.63; Kappa Sigma Sigma, 1.59; Pi Chi, 1.46, and Sigma Phi, 1.19.

Red Cross Drive at Glendale to Continue There

GLENDALE, Nov. 22.—The annual roll call of the Glendale Chapter of the American Red Cross, now under way, will continue until Thanksgiving Day, Mrs. John Robert White, Jr., chapter chairman, announced today in preparing for renewed efforts to reach the quota of $600 set for the Glendale district. The chapter is maintaining its roll-call headquarters at 1311½ South Brand Boulevard, with Mrs. R. A. Blackburn in charge, and representatives of the Red Cross have been stationed in the local banks and other locations to secure enrollments. The work has also been carried on among the service clubs and other organizations, but the customary house-to-house canvass has been omitted this year. The chapter has arranged a number of striking window displays of work done by the Red Cross workers, the materials being distributed to the needy through the Pacific division with headquarters at San Francisco, to foreign stations and insular possessions of the United States.

"The charter obligates the members of the Red Cross to perform certain humanitarian duties, and these can only be done when the organization is adequately financed," Mrs. White stated today in issuing an appeal for continued support.

Ontario Now Owns Airport

ONTARIO, Nov. 22.—This city today owns an airport. For several months an effort has been made by the city, through the American Legion and Chamber of Commerce joint aviation committee, to obtain a tract for a municipally owned airport. Today title to thirty acres of land on Riverside Road, which has been used for flying purposes for the past three years, was in the hands of the city officials. Austin Burt, City Manager, with E. H. Jolliffe, City Attorney, late yesterday completed the deal for purchase of the property from its Los Angeles owners. The land is said to be excellent water-bearing property, which is one reason the city sought to acquire it. The airport committee has a substantial sum on hand to put the field in excellent condition for large planes.

Vandalism in Blaze Hinted

GLENDALE, Nov. 22.—What is believed to have been the act of a vandal was discovered last night when firemen were summoned to extinguish a blaze at the foot of one of the giant eucalyptus trees on West Lomita avenue. These trees are said to be among the oldest eucalyptus trees in California and have been the center of a bitter civic battle between the forces that would remove them to make way for widening the street and those who insist that they remain where they have stood for so many years.

After the firemen had extinguished the fire, Capt. Monlot raked over the pile of smoldering rubbish and discovered a gallon can, such as is carried on the running boards of automobiles, half filled with gasoline. Fire department inspectors are investigating.

REWARD FOR ARREST OF POISONER OF PETS

REDONDO BEACH, Nov. 22.—That dreaded individual, the cat-and-dog poisoner, has made his appearance in the northern part of this city, a number of householders having reported the loss of fine pets during the past few days. One irate owner, loser of a prized Maltese kitten, has advertised a reward of $50 for the arrest and conviction of the guilty party. The community in general is up in arms over the poisonings.

WINE TONIC BAN HITS DRUGGIST

Heavy Fine and Sentence for Violation at Pomona

Pharmacy Manager Pleads Guilty on Three Counts

Court Grants Suspension of Part of Punishment

POMONA, Nov. 22.—Samuel Nason, manager of the R. & B. Drug Store of this city, today was sentenced to pay a fine of $250 or serve 180 days in the County Jail, and a jail sentence of 180 days and a fine of $300 was suspended when he pleaded guilty to three counts charging him with violation of the wine tonic ordinance recently passed by the City Council as an emergency measure.

Arrested on the 6th inst. by Police Chief W. S. Kirby, Nason was charged with selling more than one bottle to customers, failing to limit sales to one bottle per person every ten days and with using fictitious names on the register kept for police inspection.

Through his attorney, John W. Loucks, he pleaded guilty to all three counts.

DRINKING BLAMED IN COLLISION

Pasadenan Said to Have Ignored Stop, Wrecked Girl's Car and Pole

PASADENA, Nov. 22.—Charged with driving an automobile while under the influence of liquor, Ralph L. Guest, 28 years of age, building contractor, of 1347 Yorkshire Road, was arraigned before Police Judge Elliott Gibbs and released on $300 bail this afternoon. Guest's arrest followed an automobile collision at the intersection of North Los Robles avenue and East Washington street last night.

A witness of the crash, Frank Powell of 1935 North Vermont avenue, Los Angeles, told police that Guest's roadster, traveling forty miles an hour west on Washington street, sped past the boulevard stop and partly demolished a small coupe driven by Miss Regmor Andre, 25-year-old concert pianist. An ornamental light standard was sheared off by the careening roadster and Guest was thrown out of his car.

He was taken to the Emergency Hospital in an ambulance and given first-aid treatment by Dr. William Wagner for minor injuries to his head. Miss Andre escaped with bruises about her face and arms. She asserted she was driving north on Los Robles avenue twelve miles an hour when struck by an automobile going at a high rate of speed. Detective Sergeants Harry Cheek and Charles Ewing investigated the case and arrested Guest.

Bids Asked on Library Bonds

MONTEBELLO, Nov. 22.—It is announced today that the City Manager's office is advertising for bids for $30,000 worth of library bonds with which to erect a municipal library building on the present undeveloped section of the City Park, fronting on Whittier Boulevard and Taylor avenue, following the authorization of City Council for the sale of the bonds. A short time ago the City Manager was authorized to employ Jeffery & Schaefer of Los Angeles as architects for the building.

It is the plan of the Council to make the municipal library one of the beauty spots of the park. The building will be situated so that a main entrance will be reached through the park as well as from the street. The architecture and the landscaping will be in harmony with the park.

OCTOGENARIAN WILL WED HOUSEKEEPER

LONG BEACH, Nov. 22.—John A. Moore, 81 years of age, today applied for a license to wed Lucy J. Carpenter, 67. Moore's age is the greatest of any applicant for a marriage license since the bureau was opened here. Mrs. Carpenter has been employed as housekeepr and nurse for Moore for some time. Both had been married before.

COUNTRY CLUB GOES ON BLOCK

Parkridge Establishment at Corona to be Auctioned

Sheriff's Sale Ordered to Satisfy Lien Judgment

Project's Checkered History Included Negro Tenancy

RIVERSIDE, Nov. 22.—Parkridge Country Club, near Corona, scene of many a brilliant social function and golf matches during its heyday three and four years ago, will be sold to the highest bidder at a Sheriff's sale within the next two months, to satisfy a judgment of more than $58,000 granted today in Superior Court to a lumber company of Los Angeles.

Superior Judge Morton gave the lumber company judgment against the club and its founders on two mechanics' liens of $29,662 and $18,973.25. Defendants failed to contest the actions and the judgment was granted on default.

The Sheriff will be required to sell the property, including the spacious stucco clubhouse, golf course and fixtures, within sixty days. The date of the sale was not set.

Liens placed against the club holdings by the lumber company were for materials furnished for its construction in 1924. With other obligations incurred by Dan Gilkey, founder and manager, in erecting the clubhouse and laying out the popular golf course, the lumber company liens contributed to the crash of the organization three years ago when the club was thrown into a receivership.

One chapter of the club's varied career had to do with the prosecution here of Gilkey on a charge of obtaining money under false representations through selling what were known as "Golden Life" membership in a desperate effort to procure sufficient funds which he believed could tide the club over the difficulties. He was acquitted.

Later, a negro syndicate, suggesting the establishment of the club on a "black-and-white" basis, took over the holdings and later relinquished them because of inability to pay off the indebtedness. At that point the lumber company and other creditors took virtual charge of the property to protect their interests.

San Diego Has Coolest Morning of Fall Season

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 22.—With the thermometer standing at 45.4 deg. at 6 a.m., San Diego today experienced the coolest morning of the season and the lowest temperature since last April, according to Dean Blake, local Weather Bureau meteorologist. The temperature was the lowest recorded here since April 8, when a minimum of 43 deg. occurred, Blake said.

The temperature today did not remain low for long, according to Blake, who said that a mark of 70 deg. had been reached by 11:30 a.m. Early morning frosts were reported at county stations back from the Coast, Blake said.

SALESMEN CONCLUDE THREE-DAY SESSION

HUNTINGTON PARK, Nov. 22.—Salesmen of the Pacific Pump Works Company to the number of forty, representing almost every State in the Union, closed their three days' session late this afternoon, with a barbecue at the Bastanchury ranch, near Fullerton. During the day they were taken for a drive through the orange groves of the Southland. Each salesman was very optimistic as to the business for the coming year, believing that it will be even better than that of the present year. This is the fifth annual gathering of the company's salesmen which has been held in this city.

TOOL COMPANY MEN ON ANNUAL HOLIDAY

VERNON, Nov. 22.—When the Baash-Ross Tool Company closes its plant this afternoon after the day's work, the employees are to enjoy a two days' week-end holiday instead of the usual Sunday. Early tomorrow morning they will leave for Orange County Park, where they will hold their big annual outdoor gathering. It is expected that 1500 persons will be in attendance at this picnic, a program of all kinds of contests, and a dance being arranged by the heads of the departments for the day's amusement.

HOLLYWOOD TO GO DESERT

Film Capital Notables Planning Attendance at Hotel Del Tahquitz Opening on Thanksgiving Day

PALM SPRINGS, Nov. 22.—Hollywood notables representing leading film capital organizations, as well as individual stars, are planning to form delegations in tribute to Fritzi Ridgeway, film celebrity, by journeying here to attend the formal opening of Del Tahquitz Hotel, scheduled for Thanksgiving Day, according to advices just received from the film capital. The hotel, the first European plan hostelry in Palm Springs, was erected for Miss Ridgeway.

Included among the organizations which are expected to be represented by delegations are the Wampas, the Hi-Hatters, the Masquers, the Troupers and other film and theatrical associations. Universal studios, where Miss Ridgeway made her start up the ladder of film fame, will be well represented.

Leading musical organizations of Hollywood and Los Angeles, also will be represented by delegations in compliment to Constantin Bakaleinikoff, Miss Ridgeway's husband, who collaborated with her in designing and constructing the hotel. Bakaleinikoff was a director in leading theaters for many years before he was called to direct musical features for talking pictures.

Gala plans have been made for the formal opening festivities by Miss Ridgeway in conjunction with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Hamilton, widely known in hotel circles, who have leased Del Tahquitz for a period of fifteen years. The hotel and its dining-room have been open to guests for several days.

Designed after a Hopi Indian pueblo, Del Tahquitz is unique in architecture and appointments. The furniture is early Californian in conception and the mural decorations and much of the equipment are created from the legendary lore of various desert Indian tribes.

CITY BEAUTIFUL PLANNED

Torrance Garden Club Institutes Plan to Plant City Parkways and Vacant Lots With Shrubbery

TORRANCE, Nov. 22.—In what is expected to be the most comprehensive campaign of beautification ever carried on here the Torrance Garden Club and allied clubs have completed plans which will include the planting of selected flowers and shrubs in all parkways approaching the city and on vacant lots during the next few months. The campaign, of which Carleton Bell, president of the club, is general chairman, will be carried out in units, with portions of the city assigned to separate committees and organizations for care.

The first work of the club is to be directed to the parkways bordering Western avenue from the curve on which it enters the city to Border avenue. V. L. Maxfield of the club and Mrs. N. F. Jamieson have been placed in charge of the committee to carry out the Western-avenue plan.

Following the adoption of the California poppy by the club as the city's most distinctive flower, all vacant lots are to be sown to poppies, a fund already having been started for the project, to be followed later by the planting of attractive shrubbery in parkways.

The shrubbery, when selected by the club, is to be grown under the direction of the agriculture classes at the high school, according to present plans. Herbert S. Wood, Charles Le Boeuf and Jesse Tonkin make up the flower and shrubbery committee.

The plan of the club has been adopted as one of its major community projects for the year, and will be carried out in connection with the annual better gardens contest, which is to open in January, continuing over a period of several months.

SAGE HENS FLOCK TO HOME NEST

Thousands of Alumni to Return to Alma Mater for Annual Pilgrimage Today

CLAREMONT, Nov. 22.—Tomorrow will be homecoming day for Pomona College alumni on the local campus. More than 2000 alumni from points in Southern California, and the Southwest, are expected here to attend the championship football game between the Pomona College varsity and Occidental College varsity. A preliminary game between the freshman teams of each institution also will be a championship game.

In the evening an informal dinner will be served for alumni in Frary Refectory in the new Eli P. Clark men's dormitory, following which a large block of seats have been reserved for alumni to the Masquer's Society production "Sun-Up" to be presented in Holmes Hall at 8 p.m.

Scores of alumni returned to the campus last night in time to attend the traditional rally, always held on Alumni Field before an Occidental football game. More than 4000 persons were present when the giant bonfire was lighted and the college letter "P" on the mountainside north of Claremont was lighted with red flares. It was visible throughout the Pomona and San Bernardino valleys.

Charges Against Teacher Result in His Discharge

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 22.—Trustees of Grossmont Union High School have sustained charges of "unprofessional conduct" against Emmet R. Gaderer, music teacher, after hearing testimony presented by four witnesses. Orders to remove Gaderer from the school's pay roll were issued by John S. Wise, chairman of the board.

Attorneys for Gaderer contended that the proceedings were illegal and gave notice of appeal on the grounds that no charges had been filed and the trustees were prejudiced.

City Hall Site Meets Approval

SAN FERNANDO, Nov. 22. — A site, 150x142 feet at the corner of First and MacNell streets, has been approved by City Council as the location for the proposed new City Hall. This site was recommended for the second time by the City Planning Commission after nine locations submitted by their owners had been studied by the commissioners. The price set on the property is $19,000.

The way was left open to purchase an additional 115 feet on MacNell street in case it is deemed advisable to acquire it. Total cost of the greater site, 150x257 feet, is set at $25,000. When first submitted, the owners asked $30,000 for the same property.

The City Attorney has been instructed to obtain options on the property and an election probably will be called soon.

Cost of the proposed building and site will be less than $100,000 and a two-thirds majority is needed to carry the bond issue election.

BOY SCOUT COUNCIL INSTALLS OFFICERS

REDONDO BEACH, Nov. 22.—J. C. Rouse of Palos Verdes was installed as president of the Boy Scout council of this district in public ceremonies in the Chamber of Commerce rooms here last night. Other officers and chairmen are: First vice-president, William Oliver; secretary, Harry Angell; district commissioner, Rev. H. J. Hill; chairman, Court of Honor, Elliott B. Thomas; finance, C. O. Pierpont; community service, Hal Gillis; camping, Henry Ford and A. B. Joyrallies, C. C. Harrington and J. A. G. MacDonald.

PETITIONS OUT FOR HUNTINGTON DRIVE

ARCADIA, Nov. 22.—Two petitions are being circulated among property owners along Huntington Drive in Arcadia, one calling for a setback line and the other for the widening of Huntington Drive to 100 feet at the time the highway is continued through the Baldwin estate.

According to a tentative check-up of the signatures, the petition for the set-back line bears a majority of the property owners' signatures.

RELIEF BODY WILL ELECT

SAN FERNANDO, Nov. 22.—New officers of the San Fernando Relief Association will be elected at a meeting of directors Monday noon. Offices to be filled are president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer. At present Percy P. Fuller is president and Mrs. F. W. Overton, secretary of the organization. The officers are chosen from among the ten directors.

ZONE PLAN BEING MADE AT POMONA

City Commission Working on Final Draft for New Master Ordinance

POMONA, Nov. 22.—After weeks of conferences with various groups representing the several sections of the city, the recently appointed Pomona City Planning Commission is now engaged in outlining changes which will be prepared for a final report to the City Council on the master zoning ordinance.

Taking up the work when previous other bodies had failed to meet with success in formulating a zoning plan, the present body has worked day and night to prepare a definite plan and zoning map. That they have succeeded seems certain, inasmuch as they have received splendid co-operation from all sections of the city.

The proposed Civic Center plan was abandoned when it was decided that the city was unable to purchase sufficient property surrounding the present group of civic structures to make such a plan worth while. Also that the city had no right to restrict the growth or sale of property in the vicinity.

The next meeting of the commission will be held on the 29th inst., but the final draft of the ordinance will not have been completed by that time, according to J. A. Allard, Jr., City Attorney.

Polite Bandits Rob Cafe Man

SUNSET BEACH Nov. 22.—Deputy sheriffs today sought two polite hold-up men who at 9:30 last night robbed Chris's Cafe here of a sum not yet determined. The highwaymen, wearing no masks, were exceptionally courteous, it was said. They politely asked the startled proprietor to "please give us your money," he reported to the officers. A description of the two men caused the authorities to believe that they are the same pair who held up K. Althouse at Santa Ana several nights ago. Althouse was robbed of $15 after he was stopped with a request for a match.

RESPONSIBILITY FOR FATAL CRASH PLACED

ONTARIO, Nov. 22.—Wilbur Adams of Pomona was held responsible today by a Coroner's jury for the death Wednesday night at San Antonio Community Hospital of S. H. Ratcliff, West J-street resident.

Ratcliff received injuries in a crash of cars driven by the two men that proved fatal. The Pomonan was driving north on Vine avenue, and Ratcliff was driving to his home on West J street.

The jury declared that asserted reckless driving on Adams's part caused the fatal crash. Adams was taking a carload of Boy Scouts to a meeting of Old Baldy Council at Chaffey Union High School. None of the occupants of Adams's machine received injury.

GRANT LEAVES SMALL ESTATE

Petition to Probate Will Discloses Situation

San Diego Hotel Man Had Provided for Six Sons

Widow Shows Residue Less Than $3000 Now

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 22. (AP)—When Ulysses S. Grant, Jr., died last September, he left an estate of less than $3000, it was revealed today when his widow, Mrs. America V. Grant, petitioned the Superior Court for permission to probate his will.

The testament left all of the estate to Mrs. Grant, and specifically left out all other heirs, with the explanation that during his lifetime Grant had amply provided for all of his six children. He recited in the will that each of them had received a gift of $10,000 and many other smaller presents from time to time.

All that is left in the estate, the petition of the widow recites, is a claim of $600 for one month's salary due Grant as president of the U. S. Grant Hotel Company, and a $3000 interest in a trust deed created by Julia D. Grant in 1887.

The six children named in the will are Miriam Grant Macey, Chaffee Grant, Julia Dent Grant King, Fannie Grant Jurdy (now deceased,) and Ulysses S. Grant, IV.

Woman Killed by Machine at Garden Grove

GARDEN GROVE, Nov. 22.—Mrs. Herman Vogt, 71 years of age, of Westminster, was almost instantly killed near here today when she was struck down by an automobile while crossing a highway. Her head was crushed by impact with the car.

The name of the motorist whose car was involved was not learned here. No date for an inquest was fixed today by Coroner C. D. Brown.

WOMAN CRITICALLY HURT WHEN CAR LEAVES ROAD

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 22. (AP)—Mrs. Elsie Costello, 34 years of age, of Hemet, received critical internal injuries when the automobile in which she was riding plunged down a ten-foot embankment on the Camp Kearny Road, near here, late Wednesday night. She was taken to a hospital.

James Barker, 37, of Long Beach, driver of the car, escaped with minor cuts and bruises, while Mrs. L. Howell, 34, of Hemet, another occupant of the car, received back injuries.

Poison Found in Body of Teacher Dead at Beach

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 22.—A quantity of poison was found in the stomach of Mrs. Victoria F. Mullens, 23-year-old school-teacher, who was found dead in her beach cottage in Oceanside early yesterday morning, Coroner Schuyler C. Kelly announced today.

Although Dr. J. J. Shea, who performed the autopsy, was not able to identify the lethal poison, he said it may have been present in a medicine, which the woman took in an excessive quantity.

Coroner Kelly left today to continue his inquiry into the circumstances surrounding the death. He declared that after a preliminary investigation he believed the girl took the poison herself and that there was no evidence of foul play.

Following the discovery of the poison in the stomach, Kelly ordered the body to the Benbough funeral establishment here, where an inquest will be held later.

An empty vial, which is believed to have contained the poison which caused the woman's death, was found on the dresser in the bedroom, where the body was found, Kelly said.

DRIVER CLEARED IN VERDICT AT INQUEST

MONROVIA, Nov. 22.—Unavoidable accident under existing conditions was the verdict of a Coroner's jury yesterday in an inquest held into the death of Mrs. Nellie Shaver Whitehead of 192 Lincoln Place, who died Tuesday, following an automobile collision near Long Beach on the 9th inst.

Dr. Frank E. McCann, local doctor, and driver of the machine in which Mrs. Whitehead was riding, was exonerated of any blame in connection with the accident. The automobile which collided with McCann's machine at the intersection of York and San Antonio avenues, was driven by Mrs. Julia Montgomery of Long Beach.

The jury recommended that the proper authorities place lights on the stop signals at the intersection where the accident occurred.

TREE PLANTING MAY GO ON

Injunction Sought Against City of Azusa Ruled Out by Judge Gates in Superior Court

AZUSA, Nov. 22.—Injunction against the tree planting project of the city of Azusa sought by John O'Neal, Charles W. Beck and Mrs. Minnie S. Hill, plaintiffs, has been denied by Judge Gates, in Superior Court, according to City Attorney P. J. Tscharner, who represented the City of Azusa, defendant in the case.

The denial of the injunction by Judge Gates had the effect of passing upon the legality of the proceedings instituted by the City Council and the same were upheld.

Members of the Council, after passing upon the plans and specifications for the tree-planting project last September, abandoned the plan several weeks later after hearing protests of property owners.

Members of the Council, including Mayor Meier and Councilmen Mushe, Mace and Johnson, were visibly pleased with the court's decision, which, according to the City Attorney, clearly demonstrated that they were within their full rights when they began proceedings on the tree-planting project.

COMMUNIST WOMEN RETURN

Friends in Yucaipa Red Camp in Court for Hearing on Another Charge; Case Continued

Two women arrested at the children's Communist camp in Yucaipa during the summer were before Judge C. G. Hampton yesterday to answer to charges of conducting a meeting without a permit. Judge Potter heard the case and announced that he had continued the case until Monday, when Jesse Bradley, defense attorney, objected strenuously for the defendants. Yetta Stein, one not convicted and sentenced to San Quentin prison when the women stood trial recently in Superior Court for opposition to organized government.

Dist.-Atty. George Johnson asked for a continuance until he could get witnesses for the prosecution.

Tigers Slight Favorites to Annex Contest

Pomona May Upset Dope With Speed and Passes

Frosh Teams in Title Clash as Preliminary

BY BEAVEN DYER

Rivals since 1896, Pomona and Occidental clash on the gridiron at Alumni Field, Claremont, this afternoon. As usual, the championship of the Southern California Conference is at stake, today's winner being crowned title-holder for the year 1929. Prior to the varsity game at 2:30 o'clock, there will be another title battle between frosh teams of the two institutions. This affair starts at 12:30.

Occidental goes into the game a slight favorite, but after what has happened to other favored teams this year, the Tigers would just as soon the shoe were on the other hoof. Edgar Kienholz's team has a slightly better defensive and offensive record against conference competition, has an edge in weight and packs a bit more power.

MORE SPEED

Pomona undoubtedly possesses more speed and in Capt. Paul Hartman has a passer who rates as good as any in the Southland. The Sagehens also have the advantage of SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—The die is cast. The battle lines are drawn. California and Stanford meet for the thirty-fifth time tomorrow, and 90,000 football fans will take the trek to Palo Alto to see a Coast Conference championship decided.

The lure of the "big game" is more of a magnet than ever this year, and if there were 90,000 more tickets there would be that many more people at the game.

It is the first time in five long years that California has entered a fray against Stanford as favorite.

It is also the first time that a team coached by Little Nibs Price has appeared dubout to enter the promised land with a victory over a team coached by Glenn "Pop" Warner.

MUCH PRAYING

And with the painful memory of no victories over Stanford since 1923 followers of the Golden Bears of California are pouring down the peninsula tomorrow with precious pasteboards tightly clasped in their hands, praying—ardently praying—that finally this is the year.

California has had an undefeated season. It has beaten four PORTLAND (Or.) Nov. 22.—With the conference season over so far as the four Oregon and Washington members are concerned, speculation here is busy with the three intersectional games to be played by northern teams tomorrow. Early in the season Oregon hoped to beat Hawaii in their Portland encounter without great trouble. Oregon State also seemed to have a good prospect against Detroit, while Washington was figured to lose to Chicago. This situation has changed.

WOODS REQUEST TABLED PROTEM

Commissioner's Resignation Matter to Rest Awhile

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22 (Exclusive)—Although James Woods is perfectly willing to tender his resignation as a member of the State Athletic Commission, and as a matter of fact, volunteered as much, it has been at the request of Gov. Young that the subject has been for the time, tabled.

The presence of both Gov. Young and Commissioner Woods here today brought rumors there might be a further conference culminating in the resignation being accepted. Woods said:

"After the first of the year my official residence will be in San Francisco. Ernest Drury will be manager of the two hotels in which both of us will have an interest.

"When this plan was decided upon, I wrote Gov. Young a letter pointing out that in moving my residence it would leave the southern part of the State without representation and that under our system of handling boxing affairs

TROJANS TAKE ON IDAHO

Leo Calland's Cossacks from Moscow Due to Take Tumble from Thundering Herd Today

BY BOB RAY

Leo Calland, erstwhile Trojan captain and freshman coach who is now doling out football knowledge at the University of Idaho, brings a squad of Cossacks from Moscow, Idaho, to the Coliseum, this afternoon where they will see what they can do with Howard Harding Jones's Thundering Herd of Southern California. The general opinion seems to be that Mr. Calland's Cossacks will be riding for a fall if they do any riding at all, but it's liable to be exciting so there will probably be quite a gathering at Zack Farmer's big bowl.

Aside from the fact that Calland, a former Trojan, who has adopted the Jones style of football, is coaching the invaders, there wouldn't be much cause, if any, to get worked up over the visit of the Idaho outfit. As it is, though, Leo has a lot of friends in Los Angeles who are interested in seeing just what his first Coast Conference team looks like and will be out to take a look for themselves.

The other interesting angle is that Coach Jones will have a chance to show the gridiron enthusiasts what kind of a defense he thinks can best stop his style of attack, for Idaho's offense is patterned on the Trojan coach's system.

Idaho comes here with a victory over Montana as its lone conference

ROMANS ANNEX LEAGUE TITLE

L. A. High Trips Hollywood, 13-0, in Final Game

BY IRVING ECKHOFF

The Rambling Romans from L. A. High won the Major City League football championship yesterday afternoon, but only after a tough battle with Coach Vic Kelley's Hollywood Redshirts. The final score was 13-0 in favor of the Romans. The game was played on Housh Field at L. A. High.

The Romans' speed won the title for them, both of their touchdowns being scored on long runs, Almada galloping thirty-five yards for the first one, while Cheshire ran sixty yards for the other. Hollywood had the Pioneer passing attack stopped but couldn't figure out how to prevent Chuck Cheshire from galloping about nine yards every time he started around end.

Hollywood made most of its yardage via the aerial route, Johnny Hillman being on the hurling end of all the passes. Most of them were gathered in by Capt. Paul Grade, while Alexander, a sub flank man, also snagged a few.

The first period was scoreless,

ST. MARY'S SMOTHERS NEVADA WOLVES, 54-0

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22. (AP)—St. Mary's College overwhelmed Nevada, 54-0 today, at Kezar Stadium, to remain the only undefeated and unscored on major football team in the country. Fighting gamely throughout four quarters, Nevada, however, threw two bad scares into Gael supporters' hopes of an uncrossed goal line.

Barrett, St. Mary's fullback, took the opening kickoff and fumbled when tackled on his own 20-yard line. Nevada recovered. With Whitehead, quarterback star, slipping through the line, Nevada worked the ball to the 8-yard line. The Saints held, however, and a fourth-down pass went wide. The Gaels kicked out of danger.

In the fourth period a long pass, Ambrose to Blodell was complete, and Blodell was away to what seemed a certain touchdown. Boyle, St. Mary's half, the only man between Blodell and the goal line, made a flying tackle and stopped the Nevadan on the 23-yard line.

For the remainder of the game however, St. Mary's scored almost at will. Coach Ed Madigan opened the game with his first team on the bench, but the second squad quickly rushed over three touchdowns in the first quarter. Tescani, halfback, scored twice.

With the opening of the second half, the Gael varsity squad was Completely New Tire With Six Great Points of Superiority:

1. Stronger — by many per cent.
2. Safer — at 60-70-80 "per."
3. Steers easier — like turning a corner on a ball bearing.
4. More comfortable —floats you over the road.
5. Grippier — thanks to big road contact and new design; best non-skid.
6. More economical— more rubber on the road and slower, more even wear.

Deeper, safer, longer wearing tread makes the new Pennsylvania far ahead of all competition.

EXPECT IRISH TO COP CLASH

California-Stanford Battle Watched Closely

Harvard May be Tough Nut for Elis to Crack

Huskies Given Even Chance to Upset Chicago

BY BRIAN BELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. (AP)—Football fans will not be permitted to remain hungry tomorrow, in spite of the inactivity of a number of crack teams who await a Thanksgiving feast. Lack of quantity in the Saturday menu is compensated by its quality.

Three games, reading from east to west across the map, stand out in bold relief, but more than a score others are fraught with interest and importance to their immediate partisans. Front and center of the program are Yale and Harvard at Cambridge, Notre Dame-Northwestern at Evanston and California and Stanford at Palo Alto.

Harvard and Yale head the list because they are Harvard and Yale, ancient foes with many old scores to settle. When the Crimson meets the Blue caution flies out of the window, so anything may be expected as Johnny and Eli clash.

Only the score can say if Yale, with or with out Booth, can gain through a more experienced Harvard line or stop an admittedly clever passing attack. Yale has the better record, for the Blue lost only to Georgia and suffered a tie with Maryland, while Harvard was stopped in its tracks by Dartmouth, later a Yale victim, and Michigan. Harvard, too, was tied by Army.

IRISH FAVORED

Notre Dame, with its great coach, Knute Rockne, left behind on a sick bed; may be expected to win from Northwestern because it always has, but seldom have the Ramblers been able to vanquish the Wildcats without a stern struggle. Rockne's team is nearing the end of a long, hard football row, studded with Saturdays of gruelling effort, and another is to come, for beyond Northwestern lies the Army in New York.

California is shooting at a championship when it plays Pop Warner's burly Stanford outfit. Victory will give Nibs Price and his undefeated cohorts a clear title to the laurel wreath or crown to be bestowed by the Pacific Coast Conference, and in it an invitation to defend the honor of the West against one of the East's best in a post-season game at Pasadena, when the roses bloom New Year's Day.

Other championship hopes and fears will know their best or the worst tomorrow. The Kansas Aggies will meet their great chance with only Nebraska blocking the path to a Big Six championship, a long but pleasing journey for Bo McMillin's outfit. Nebraska, however, may require a great deal of stopping.

The Texas Christian Horned Frog, beset by influenza germs, must defend a clean score sheet against a wounded and snarling Baylor Bear. If they can dispose of this adversary they have nothing to do for the rest of the season but rope the Mustangs of Southern Methodist University.

Some private quarrels of the day include Colorado College against the University of Colorado at Boulder, Oklahoma and the Oklahoma Aggies at Norman, Missouri vs Kansas at Lawrence, and Boston College and Boston University at Boston.

HUSKIES PLAY

The intersectional warfare is led by a band of behemoths from the University of Washington, invading Chicago to meet Alonzo Stagg's tricky Chicago Maroons. Another western threat is carried by the Oregon Aggies against the high-powered University of Detroit in the Michigan metropolis.

Other intersectional games involving less traveling include North Carolina State against Villanova and Drake against Temple at Philadelphia and the colorful Haskell Indians at Pittsburgh against Duquesne, coached by Elmer Layden, one-fourth of Rockne's famous horsemen. Oregon, where J. J. McEwan has just resigned as head coach, entertains the cosmopolitan Hawaii team at Portland.

The Harvard-Yale game is not the only big traditional game of the East. Lafayette and Lehigh have more scores to count that their brethren to the east and may have just as tense a struggle.

The undefeated Fordham team meets one of its most severe tests in a fast Bucknell aggregation and New York University, finally in its stride, takes on a fighting Rutgers team.

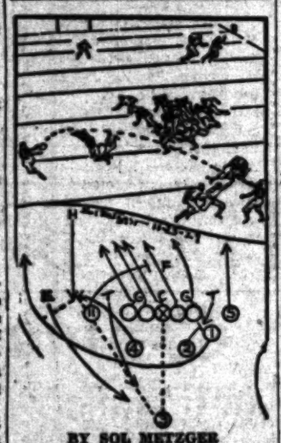
Although the Western Conference championship has been clinched by Purdue, the Big Ten is still playing its schedule. Illinois and Ohio State may decide who shall be runner-up in a game at Columbus. Iowa and Michigan will have a battle at Ann Arbor and consolation honors are involved when Minnesota meets Wisconsin. Purdue will ring down the curtain for the season against Indiana at Bloomington. The Boilermakers hope to preserve their clean slate. The two service teams are engaged with widely separated Methodist teams, Army playing Ohio Wesleyan, while Navy meets West Virginia Wesleyan.

Only one Southern Conference game appears on tomorrow's card, Florida making its first trip to Columbia in several years to play the University of South Carolina.

AMATEUR HOCKEY TILT ON PROGRAM TONIGHT

With "Big Bill" Vaughn protecting the net, the Sunfrese Bears will make a determined bid tonight at the Winter Garden, in the chase for first place, when they clash with their bitterest foes, the Union Oil Pirates, in the ninth game of the local amateur season.

'Pop' Adds to Forward Pass



BY SOL METZGER

Although certain magazine writers state that Knute Rockne made modern football what with his shifts and forward passes, it might be well also to consider the strategy of Pop Warner, Stanford coach, if you want to keep up with the times.

His newest wrinkle is a forward pass with a lateral on the end of it. One such play, a scoring play, too, that California must keep a sharp eye out for today in its clash with Stanford is here shown.

No. 3 back goes back, as if to punt, gets the ball and goes through all the motions of kicking it. Naturally that draws the charges of the defensive right end and tackle. As they are about to block the punt, No. 3 recovers and heaves a pass over their heads to back No. 4. You see No. 4 has quietly slipped a few yards past the line of scrimmage and is all set for the ball. When the defensive half on that side sees what's coming he rushes up like a flash and tackles No. 4 as he takes the ball. But No. 4 doesn't have it. He's already passed it backward to back No. 1, who has circled around as per diagram. What a slashing lot of interference accompanies No. 1 as he speeds for the goal.

REDONDO TEAM RUINS WILSON ELEVEN, 10-7

With but a half a minute to play and the score tied at 7 to 7, Schell, star Redondo halfback, kicked a beautiful 30-yard field goal to give his team a 10-to-7 victory over the Woodrow Wilson eleven yesterday in a game played on the winners' field.

For three quarters the two teams battled up and down the field without being able to score. However, in the last quarter Wilson went into the lead as a result of a short pass, Brand to Gibboney, for the first score of the game. Schell immediately evened the count by plunging through the line for a touchdown and then putting the game on ice with his spectacular placement kick. The line-ups:

COMPTON LIONS UPSET SANTA MONICA, 20-7

Staging the biggest upset in Bay League circles this year, Coach Earle (Deacon) Pine's Compton High Lions handed the undefeated Santa Monica squad a 20-to-7 trimming before a large crowd of prep fans on the winner's gridiron. It was home-coming day for Compton alumni and they had plenty of chance to cheer. Dell Canfield, diminutive Lion quarterback, was the star of the game, making long runs around the ends and returning punts in sensational style. He scored in the first quarter after a series of end runs and then scored again in the third quarter on a perfectly executed reverse. Scott, left halfback for the Lions, ran some nifty interference and converted twice. The line-ups:

MERCURIES SET FOR GAME WITH VIKINGS

Soccer teams of the L.A.A.C. and the Viking Club are ready today for their most important game of the season to be played at Loyola Field tomorrow afternoon. The two teams are tied with Hollywood for the league lead and a hot battle is expected when they hook up in the 1 o'clock game. Hollywood meets the Sons of St. George in the second game.

Never before have the leading clubs been so closely bunched as this season and exceptional interest is being shown by soccer fans over the outcome of tomorrow's games.

At Tournament Park, Pasadena, two more games will be played tomorrow. Richfield meets Pasadena A.C.C. at 1 o'clock and the Magyars and Scots play the second game.

BABY SAL STOPS DIAZ

VENTURA, Nov. 22. (AP)—Baby Sal Sorio of San Bernardino knocked out Frankie Diaz of Tucson, Ariz., in the eighth round of a ten-round bout here tonight. Diaz had been on the canvas twice in previous rounds.

POLOISTS TO TANGLE

TUCSON (Ariz.) Nov. 22. (AP)—The flying horsemen of New Mexico Military Institute will cross mallets with the Arizona University four here December 16 and 17.

CHRISTNER COMING SOON

Knockout Star to Meet Les Kennedy in Olympic Feature Early in December

K. O. Christner will arrive here the first of next week from Akron, O., to train for his bout with Les Kennedy, pride of Long Beach, at the Olympic on December 3. It is Christner's first appearance here.

The Akron heavyweight flashed into prominence a little over a year ago when he knocked out Knute Hansen, the Terrible Dane, at Cleveland in eight rounds. He later served as a trial horse for Jack Sharkey in one of Madison Square Garden's big bouts.

The Olympic has Eddie Mack and Ted Morgan slated for next Tuesday and the early betting has made Mack the choice. They are boxing over the junior lightweight limit. If it were for the title Morgan—a great money boxer—would probably be on the other end of the odds.

Mack outfigures Morgan at every turn in the road. He held Morgan to a draw and later took a close decision from him in fights held in Denver early this year.

In three starts here, Mack has knocked out two boys who went the distance with Morgan and defeated another who gave the champion quite a pasting in a nontitle bout. Mack's knockouts were scored over Baby Sal Sorio and Doc Snell, and he defeated Goldie Hess.

Both Morgan and Mack will complete training tomorrow for their match. They are in top form with Morgan being a little heavier than usual. He has done most of his training by working in his avocado orchard near Fullerton.

The junior lightweight champion is ambitious to get into the bigger lightweight money and a title bout with Sammy Mandell is in the making for Chicago, it is claimed.

The semi-wind-up under Morgan and Mack is Sid Torres and Frankie Murray. The latter was formerly a top-liner in the East. Rita Punay and Willie Siegal box the special. Punay is a Filipino with a stout right hand.

HARVARD HUMBLES CATHEDRAL ELEVEN

Coaches Jack Manildi and "Pest" Walker saw their Harvard School gridiron men walk off with a victory yesterday afternoon on their home grounds when they defeated Cathedral High by a score of 13 to 0. Morgan, Harvard's fullback, made a touchdown in the first few minutes of the game and then packed the ball through the center of the line for the extra point. Brown, in the third quarter, made a beautiful pass to Parsons, who threw a lateral to McInnis, who, in turn ran for a touchdown for the home team. Capt. Don Roberts of the cadets played a wonderful game of football from start to finish.

GALLOPING GHOSTS RIDE TO VICTORY

Villanova's Galloping Ghosts ground the St. Agnes eleven into the dust and rode over their prostrate bodies to a 33-to-0 victory in a game played at Ojai yesterday.

The Four Horsemen of Villanova, Martin, Cassidy, Borchard, and Gullen, each pounded the opponent's line for touchdowns.

SHELDON CLARK TO HEAD FIGHT STADIUM

CHICAGO, Nov. 22. (AP)—Sheldon Clark, vice-president of the Sinclair Refining Company, and nationally known sportsman today accepted the presidency of the Chicago Stadium Corporation, succeeding Paddy Harmon, who was forced to resign.

NORTH DAKOTA BEATEN

BOZEMAN (Mont.) Nov. 22. (AP) Montana State College took the measure of North Dakota State, 6 to 0, here today. Sadler, 140-pound Bobcat quarterback, toted a Bison punt 90 yards to the lone touchdown in the first period. A snowstorm made fumbles numerous and handicapped offensive play.

Joe Schlocker is Finished Up by Fitzgerald

Freddie Fitzgerald, the Fighting Harp, made short work of Joe Schlocker, former amateur slugger, last night in the ten-round main event at the Hollywood American Legion, taking a technical knockout victory in the fourth round. Fitzgerald was giving Schlocker a bad beating and Joe's seconds tossed in a towel to save him from further punishment.

Schlocker was badly outclassed all the way. He went down for an eight count in the first round, but was on his feet at the bell. Schlocker staged a comeback in the second round, but took another trip to the canvas in the third session for an eight count. Early in the fourth round the towel came in.

Maurice Holtzer, flashy French fighter, took a six-round decision over Rita Punay, Filipino, in the semi-wind-up. Holtzer showed the fans some fancy infighting.

America Pontana outpointed Jimmy Fox in the special event. Fox was on the floor in the second round. Eddie Burnell beat Joe Rienhart in four rounds. Stutz Houck lost the opener to Guy Saterno.

DeVos Victor in Ebbets Tilt

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. (AP)—Rene De Vos, Belgian veteran, easily defeatde Harry Ebbets, blond youngster, in the feature ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden tonight. The match was scheduled to produce the next challenger for Mickey Walker's middleweight title. De Vos weighed 160 3-4; Ebbets 160.

For the full three minutes of the first round, Rene, had a very troublesome time with the heavy-clouting New York youngster. The tenth round was another desperate session, but in between Rene was the master, demonstrating the fine points of the game to his willing pupil while 10,000 of the faithful looked on and sometimes yawned. At the end of the decision in favor of De Vos was unanimous.

JIMMY MALONEY WHIPS CHRISTNER

BOSTON, Nov. 22. (AP)—Jimmy Maloney, Boston heavyweight, defeated K. O. Christner of Akron, O., with a furious closing drive here tonight in the Boston Garden's feature contest. Maloney was behind at the half-way mark, but his solid body punches had the Ohio rubber worker in distress at the close. Maloney scaled 196 pounds and Christner was a pound heavier.

EARL MASTRO STOPS MINELLA IN SECOND

DETROIT, Nov. 22. (AP) — Earl Mastro, speedy Chicago lightweight, scored a technical knockout over Johnny Minella of Detroit, in the second round of a scheduled ten-round bout here tonight.

HUNTINGTON BEACH DEFEATS ANAHEIM

ANAHEIM, Nov. 23. — Harry Sheue's Huntington Beach Spudders defeated Ben Carpenter's Anaheim Colonists, 13 to 0, here today in the final game of the Orange League season. Oliver passed thirty yards to Black, who caught the ball behind Anaheim's goal line for a touchdown in the second quarter. Another thirty-yard pass by the same combination put the ball on the 1-yard line from where Conrad plunged over right tackle in the third period. Line-ups:

BATTLE ROYAL ON NEWSIES' RING BILL

One of the features of the newsboys' boxing show to be held Monday night at the Main-street gymnasium will be a battle royal between five of the toughest paper hustlers in Los Angeles. The starters will be picked by the city street circulators.

Mushy Callahan and Fidel La Barba are due back today from mountain training camps. Both of them were former newsboys who won world's ring titles. Callahan has been at Soper's ranch and Fidel has been at Wheeler Hot Springs. Callahan will box Leonard Bennett, promising young welter, while La Barba is paired with Augie Curtis, national amateur runner-up at Boston. Bert Colima and Mike Hector are also on the bill.

WELTERWEIGHTS MEET AT MAIN-STREET CLUB

Leo Hernaudez and Sailor Ora Smith, welterweights, top tonight's fight program at the Main Street Athletic Club.

Hernandez, with sixteen knockout victories in twenty starts, is favored over the Navy champion. Smith has beaten Harry Goodland, Red Wells, Billy Ryan, Bill Repose, Joe Martinelli, Eddie Hartwig and others.

Johnny Chrismas and Ad Cadena, 130-pounders, are scheduled in the semi-wind-up, while Denny Jones meets Joe Pimenthal at the same weight in the special event. Art Molina and Young Tiger Flowers, featherweights, clash in one of the three other bouts on the card.

Mazzetti on Daro Mat Bill

Promoter Lou Daro completed the mat card for his wrestling show at the Olympic Wednesday night. Giuseppe Mazzetti of Italy, recognized as the heavyweight mat king of that country, will clash with Dick Daviscourt in the special event of this card, Promoter Daro announced. Mazzetti is said to have recently arrived in this country following an extended mat tour of Europe in which he met and beat all comers. He is said to be bigger and heavier than Daviscourt, and as rough. Al Baffert will clash with Ad Hermann of St. Louis in the other match.

Joe Steeber and Marin Plestina meet in the finish feature event of this card. Promoter Daro yesterday wired Champion Gus Sonnenberg an offer to meet the winner of this bout here early next month, and he expects an answer from the title-holder either today or tomorrow.

Four Jaysee Games Today

With Fullerton and Chaffey holding the spotlight, four games are scheduled today in the Junior College League. Riverside travels to San Bernardino, Long Beach comes to Compton and Glendale plays host to Santa Ana in the other games. Both Fullerton and Chaffey have powerful squads and the outcome of the battle is hard to figure.

Coach Eddie Suggett's Compton Tartars are favorites over their neighbors and ancient enemies, the Long Beach Vikings. Tom Vancey, star Compton quarter, may be unable to start today, and if this is the case, the Vikings may stage an upset. The Riverside-San Berdoo clash will settle the cellar championship. Coach Bill Cook's Santa Ana Dons will not have much trouble with Glendale and should win by a comfortable margin.

The Southern California Junior College Conference standings are as follows:

	W.	L.	P.C.
Pasadena	1	0	1.000
Fullerton	1	0	1.000
Santa Ana	1	0	1.000
Compton	1	0	1.000
Chaffey	1	1	.500
Long Beach	1	1	.500
Glendale	0	1	.000
Riverside	0	1	.000
San Bernardino	0	1	.000

SAN PEDRO WINS OVER GONDOLIERS

Coach Manuel Laranetta's San Pedro High Pirates had little difficulty with Coach Noggle's Venice High gridders yesterday afternoon, and defeated the Gondoliers on their home grounds, by a score of 21 to 7. Patalons, a substitute back, scored two of the touchdowns for the Pirates, and Karmelich, left half, tallied the other marker. Tanner, quarterback, converted all three of the San Pedro touchdowns. Ward Afner, dusky Gondolier grid star, was injured in the first quarter of the game, receiving a bad shoulder wrench. The little fullback remained in the game, however, and in the second quarter scored the lone Venice touchdown by galloping eighty yards to the San Pedro goal line. Aftel, quarterback, converted the extra point.

The line-ups:

SAN FERNANDO PLAYS OWENSMOUTH TO TIE

Owensmouth and San Fernando high schools played to a 6-to-6 tie yesterday afternoon at San Fernando. The game was the final one in the San Fernando Valley League, having been postponed from several weeks ago. The rest of the league finished the season a week ago yesterday.

San Fernando scored first, in the second quarter. Tone, right half, took the ball down the field on end runs and line bucks, and then Coleman was jerked from his position at left tackle to buck the ball over the goal line. The attempt to convert failed. Owensmouth tallied in the third quarter. Knapp, left tackle for Owensmouth, was pressed into backfield duty, and bucked the ball over. The attempt to convert was a failure.

The line-ups:

San Fernando.		Owensmouth.

OAKLAND HOCKEY TEAM DUE TODAY

Bill Hassett's Oakland hockey squad will arrive in Los Angeles this morning, and will immediately journey out to the Winter Garden for a two-hour workout. The Oaks are the 1928 California hockey champions and are the most sensational group of young players in the country. Hassett has six youngsters who are certain to bring fancy prices at the end of the season. They are Bond, Cook, Saundercook, Pernell, Harper and Horne. The Oaks and Hollywood clash here Monday night in the third local professional ice hockey game of the season.

Cooper Shows Golf Swings

BY SOL METZGER

As you take a golf club back so you bring it through. But this sound slogan of golf is frequently confusing. Let us see exactly what it means. One must have the meat of this idea clear in mind.

Look at the sketches of Harry Cooper at the same position during his up and down swings. Going back the right leg is braced and that hip locked. Note, too, that the hands are here being cocked as he lifts the club up to finish the back swing.

Coming down the left leg is braced and the left hip locked. The hands are still cocked. You don't uncock the wrists as you start the downswing. They get into the blow and deliver the final punch because of the hit through of the straight right arm.

In short, in going back the pivot is made upon and around the right leg and hip. Coming down it is made around the left leg and hip. That's the idea to have in mind in making the swing.

A golfer is no better than his tee shot. Sol Metzger has prepared a free illustrated leaflet on the art of driving. Send for it in care of The Times and inclose a stamped, addressed envelope.

by sections this might cause some trouble.

"Gov. Young assured me he was very much pleased with the letter. At our conference in Sacramento, where I was received most gracefully, I again discussed the situation with the Governor I reviewed our scheme of handling boxing by sections although I did tell him that in Illinois and New York the commission handles its work from one central headquarters. After due deliberation, Gov. Young suggested we let the matter rest for the time being. That is the way the matter stands. Gov. Young knows he can have my resignation at any time he desires, as I myself suggested might be best."

DR. MARTIN MEMBER OF AMERICAN LEGION

Contrary to general reports Dr. Harry Martin, prominently mentioned as a candidate to succeed James Woods on the Boxing Commission when the latter resigns, is an American Legion man.

According to officials of American Legion Post No. 8, this city, Dr. Martin is a member of their post—and he has a war record.

Officials of Post No. 8, were very positive about the matter yesterday, and asked that the error be corrected.

PACKARD FEATURES AS TIGERS COLLECT

Packard, playing fullback for South Pasadena High, got overheated yesterday afternoon, and worked it out by scoring four touchdowns against Hoover High School of Glendale in a game played on the Glendale field. PASADENA PUTS BOUT SHOW AHEAD ONE DAY

Pasadena Arena, which is to hold its show on Wednesday night next week, because of its usual night being on Thanksgiving Day, has booked a great action card. The eight-round top spot will be filled by Alfredo Imperial, crowd-pleasing flyweight, and Canto Robleto, a Pasadena pride, who is getting his first big shot.

Young Sport and Leonard Rahming, another pair of speedy flyweights, will fight one of the six-rounders on the card and the other will present Stutts Haouk and Pat Yanco, a pair of slugging middleweights. Four-round bouts will be: Dewey Massey vs. Andy Dumiller, 180 pounds; Bobby Payne vs. Tommy Arcadio, 130 pounds.

PILOTS SET FOR GRIND AT LEGION

Race of 100 Laps on Tap Tomorrow Afternoon at Local Speedway

With a total of forty-two cars and drivers enrolled with A. C. Pillsbury of the A.A.A. and the class of mounts entered the best of the season, tomorrow afternoon's automobile racing program at the American Legion Speedway is expected to eclipse any presentation of its kind this year. This prediction was made yesterday by Dr. Fred Loring of the Legion racing board who advanced the opinion that every existing record for the five-eighths of a mile oval will fall during the afternoon.

Favorites in the 100-lap grind, which headlines the day's castor-oil burning festivities, are Fred Frame, Babe Stapp, Francis Quinn, Shorty Cantlon and Johnny Krieger.

Frame, a driver whose name is well known at Indianapolis, Altoona, and other major speedways where he drove this year, will sit behind the wheel of a Miller Special tomorrow. The Los Angeles pilot returned to the dirt ovals a week ago at Phoenix, Ariz., and despite his long absence from this form of competition, he placed second in the forty-mile grind. Babe Stapp, who is staging a sensational comeback as skipper of a car from Watsonville, Cal., shattered the record at Phoenix which long had been held by Ralph De Palma.

"Shorty" Cantlon, who has only appeared here once this season, is recognized as a king-pin of daredevils on eastern dirt tracks. He will make his appearance in one of Bill White's cars tomorrow.

Francis Quinn, ever a favorite, has won second place in the last two long-distance grinds here but he has high ambitions of coming home ahead of the field tomorrow. Quinn is tooling a 151-cubic-inch Miller motored machine.

FOOTHILL LEADERS IN SCORELESS TIE

FULLERTON, Nov. 22.—Leadership of the Foothill League was still undetermined today as a result of a 0-to-0 tie between Muir Tech High School of Pasadena and Fullerton High School in a stubborn defensive battle on the local turf this afternoon. A brilliant passing attack uncorked by Pryor, substitute Fullerton quarterback, in the last few seconds of play nearly broke the tie when Carpenter, lucky Fullerton end, received a pass on his own goal line only to bobble it as he stepped over and have the referee call it incomplete. The pass was thirty yards from Vaughn to Carpenter. The Tech line outplayed Fullerton at times but the backs could not make yards when needed most. Both teams put up a strong defense in the shadow of their own goal lines and both threatened on a number of occasions. Fullerton got the breaks in a punting duel during the second half, but was unable to take advantage of their opportunity. The result of the game leaves both teams unbeaten in their league and half a game ahead of Whittier, which has lost one game. Fullerton plays at Whittier on Thanksgiving Day. The Line-ups:

Fullerton		Muir Tech
Carpenter	L.E.R.	Peters
Hatfield	L.T.R.	Ellis

FAVORITES TRIUMPH IN BEAR BOUT SHOW

BERKELEY, Nov. 22. (Exclusive) Favorites came through for the most part to capture the annual University of California interfraternity boxing championship titles last evening in bouts which featured the annual smoker rally preceding the California-Stanford big game. Some 4000 undergraduate students and alumni looked on at the contests.

The 129-pound championship went to Jack Greenberg, Sigma Alpha Mu Fraternity, when he decisively whipped Mel Nyman, Kappa Nu, better known as a high jumper with the track varsity. Richard Bradshaw, Sigma Alpha Philon, won the 139-pound title. Kenneth Schrall, Sigma Phi, was a decisive winner in the 149-pound division. The light-heavyweight title went to Walter Stone of the Bachelordon house.

FIRE LADDIES READY FOR SANTA BARBARA

Headed by Stevens, their star triple-threat fullback, the Santa Barbara Athletic Club football team was scheduled to arrive in town this morning for their game tomorrow against the Los Angeles Fire Department eleven at Wrigley Field. The clubmen have a classy squad, having dropped but one game this season, and that by a 3-to-0 score. Despite the fact that Jimmy Dyer will be unable to play tomorrow, Coach Bill Bleweit of the firemen will send a strong team against the clubmen. "Dynamite" McCarter will start in Dyer's halfback position, with Milt Nolan at the other halfback post. Murvin at full and Grimes at qaurter will complete the backfield.

ANGLERS REPORT GOOD FISHING AT REDONDO

REDONDO BEACH, Nov. 22.—Anglers returning from the Monstad barges at Redondo Beach report excellent fishing at this time, with large quantities of mackerel, bonito, dabs, sole and other bottom fish being taken. Capt. W. L. Monstad advises that due to many requests the barges will continue Saturday night service throughout the seasons, especially at this time, when deep sea fishing promises so much for those who like plenty of action while fishing.

Glenn Turner, graduate manager of Pomona College, announced last night that 1500 seats will be on sale today prior to the Occidental-Pomona game at Claremont. Fans driving from Los Angeles to the game will be able to procure ducats at the gate, according to Turner.

BRUINS TO TRY EXTRA WORKOUT

Spaulding Calls Gridders for Practice Today

As a part of the campaign of preparation toward handing the University of Montana Grizzlies a defeat Thanksgiving Day in the Coliseum, Coach William Henry Spaulding and his Westwood Bruins will hold an extra practice session this morning at U.C.L.A. The Bruins are counting on annexing their first Pacific Coast Conference victory since their advent into the conference last year at the expense of Montana.

Practice was hot and strenuous at Westwood yesterday with the second-string players running off Montana pet plays against the opposition of the Bruin regulars. After fair success in stopping the Grizzly offensive power, as enacted by the U.C.L.A. "goof," the varsity was given the ball, and ran rough-shod through the substitutes. Cliff Simpson and Buddy Forster were the principal ball carriers.

"Howie" Roberts, sophomore star, is educating his toe this week to bigger and better things in the line of punting. Roberts has been averaging 40 to 50 yards per boot, and should hold up the Bruins' end against Montana in the kicking department of the game.

The practice will continue heavy again today, but will slacken up next week, with "Bunker Bill" Spaulding probably giving his men a day of rest on Wednesday prior to the Turkey Day tilt. Trainer Billy Burke has pronounced all of his athletic charges in the pink of condition, but Spaulding doesn't want the players to go stale.

MONTANA ELEVEN TO LEAVE MONDAY

MISSOULA (Mont.) Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—A portion of the practice field being scraped clear of snow and the tackling pits dug out, the University of Montana went through another lengthy practice session this afternoon.

Two frosh teams scrimmaged against two varsity teams, using U.C.L.A. plays, and made a number of long gains. The teams alternated on the offensive.

Preceding scrimmage Maj. Milburn, Grizzly coach, sent his backs through a long drill in place kicks. The Grizzlies have lost one and tied one important contest by failing to convert goals.

Following the scrimmage the varsity squads took a long signal drill, after which the linemen were given plenty of practice in charging while backs and ends worked on punts.

The Grizzly squad will have another practice tomorrow, its last before it leaves for Los Angeles Monday.

with L. A. having a slight edge. Early in the second quarter Bresee, the Roman coach, sent Melo Almada into the game. Almada promptly responded by shagging thirty-five yards around left end for the first touchdown. Cheshire failed to convert.

After Hollywood had held the Romans twice from scoring in the third period, Cheshire dropped back to pass on his own 45-yard line. Not seeing an L.A. High man in the open, he changed his mind and tucked the pigskin under his arm and dashed down the sidelines 60 yards for a touchdown. This time the flashy Roman half converted.

In the fourth quarter Vic Kelley started inserting second-string men, who surprised everybody, including themselves, by not only holding L.A. scoreless, but by actually taking the play away from them. Most of the yardage gained came from Hillman's passes, and occasional outbursts of line plunging by Pacht, one of the many subs.

Horace Bresee, in the two years that he has coached at L.A. High, has made quite a record. Last year he won the City League lightweight championship and now this season, his first with the varsity, he has turned in another title.

The line-ups:

L. A. High (13.)		Hollywood (6.)
Kahn	L.E.R.	Rogers
Emerson	L.T.R.	Zaprisky
Baxter	L.G.R.	Karrity
Hathaway	C.	Merrill

Cheshire	R.H.L.	Phillips
Hoffner	F.	Gamboa

SCORE BY QUARTERS

L. A. High	0	6	7	0	—13
Hollywood	0	0	0	6	—6

CAMERON IS HERO OF MOOR VICTORY

Cameron, playing halfback for the lightweight football team of Alhambra High School, performed the hero act yesterday afternoon by scoring a touchdown in the last minute and a half of play. The touchdown was scored against the Glendale High lightweights in a game played on the Glendale field. Hallett converted the extra point, to leave the final score of the game, 7 to 0, in favor of the Saint midgets.

playing on their own field and the confidence that comes from the knowledge that their coach, Eugene Nixon, has never gone two years in a row without winning the title. Last year Occidental copped, so if Nixon is to keep his record inviolate the Sagehens will have to do their stuff this afternoon.

The Tigers beat Pomona, 7 to 0, at the Rose Bowl last year, winning the championship on a percentage basis, Oxy playing one more game than Pomona, and thus finishing with a higher standing, despite a defeat at the hands of Caltech.

With Glenn Rozelle and Bud Collier doing most of the line smashing, the Tigers have crashed their way to most of their touchdowns. Passes have been used only at rare intervals. Now and then this fleet-footed fullback, Dick Glover, has raced into the open to gallop to a score, but for the most part, it has been straight power football which has carried the Tigers to victory.

ALERT TEAM

Pomona, while employing power at times, has achieved her success through use of the forward pass and exceptionally alert defensive work, particularly against an aerial attack. The Sagehens have returned intercepted passes to touchdowns, have carried punts over the goal line and have been wide awake enough to take advantage of practically every break offered by their opponents.

It is unlikely that Occidental will resort to passes today as long as her running attack gains ground. But if the Pomona line has the stuff to stop Collier, Rozelle, Glover and this behemoth, Myers, the game will undoubtedly open up and Pomona's chances of victory brighten once the Tigers have to take to the air.

Occidental's line averages 173 pounds to the man, Pomona's 168. The Tiger backs average 169, Pomona's 155. Oxy has a team average of 171, Pomona of 163.

Capt. Hartman of the Sagehens is a southpaw. This makes his passing doubly dangerous. In Clarence Bishop and Frank Dyer the Pomona team has two ends who ought to hold their own with Capt. Al De Hoag and Wendell Smith of Oxy. All four are consistently good.

Bishop and Hartman are playing their last year together. They attended the same high school and have been team-mates seven years running, which means they should know something about each other when it comes to passes.

Beebe and Snedden, Oxy's tackles are slightly better than Hansen and Tucker for Pomona. The guard positions appear to be virtually a standoff, although Ribbitts and Angst of Occidental have had considerably more experience than Murdy and Colley of Pomona. The Sagehen guards were backfield performers, winning their letters in these positions, but went into the line this year when "Beefy" Heath found that his forward wall needed bolstering.

Judy of Pomona and Chappell of Oxy are the outstanding centers in the circuit and there is little to choose between them.

Pomona has one sophomore on the line, Hansen at left tackle. Oxy has two, Snedden and Angst.

Hartman, Bob Baynham and Al Putnam played as regulars for Pomona last year. The fourth member of the Sagehen backfield this season is Blair Nixon, son of the Pomona mentor. He is a sophomore. Blair has come along so rapidly that he's been calling signals of late and will do so again today. This takes a load off Hartman's shoulders and when thus relieved "Poke" does more effective ball carrying than ever.

The newcomers in Oxy's backfield are Glover and Stoney Johnston, the former at full and the latter at quarter. Johnston was only a sub at the start of the year but showed such mental qualities that he soon displaced Big Bill Myers as skipper of the team and has appeared in this role ever since. Glover, one of the fastest men in the conference, scored three touchdowns against Whittier and will be off to the races today unless Pomona keeps a sharp lookout for his flying feet.

FINE PUNTERS

Hartman and Rozelle are splendid punters and there will undoubtedly be a lot of high-class kicking today.

If the Pomona line holds up I would not be surprised to see the Sagehens win. The game may end in a tie. In 1921 the teams wound up 7 to 7 in the only tie on record between the rivals.

This is to be the thirty-first struggle between Oxy and Pomona. Since 1896 Pomona has won eighteen games, Occidental eleven.

BULLDOG HARRIERS WIN

The Garfield High reserves cross-country team yesterday afternoon outran the George Washington High harriers to win the meet held at Garfield by a score of 25-to-32. Hotchkiss, George Washington man, finished first in the run over a mile and a half course in the time of 8m. 6s. Penecle of Garfield came in second, and Delgado, also of Garfield, came in third.

SAYS FOOTBALL IS DYING

Coach of Case Eleven in Ohio Declares Boys Care More for Social Life Than Grid Game

CLEVELAND, Nov. 22. (AP)—College football, hit recently by an exhaustive bulletin of the Carnegie Foundation, which accused it of a "spirit of professionalism," tonight faced another criticism in a statement by one of the greatest players of recent years, Coach Bob Fletcher of the Case School of Applied Science, that "only a few college players nowadays play the game because they like it."

Announcing his resignation as the Case coach today, Fletcher declared that "intercollegiate football is dying."

Football games will continue to draw big crowds for a few years, but the game will not hold the public as in the past, Fletcher said.

The former star quarterback of the University of Illinois declared there was a "changed attitude" among college players of the last few years. "The youngsters of today care more for the social life at college."

With few exceptions, Notre Dame outstanding, Fletcher said college teams lacked discipline. He cited the weak showing of Michigan early this season as an example and said the recent improvement of the Wolverines was accomplished only by discharging eight members of the team in order to have harmony on the squad.

Fletcher has been coach at Case since 1924. With several good seasons to his record, he faced even better prospects next year, with almost an entire team of veterans. He said, however, his retirement from football would be permanent and that he will associate himself with an Ohio oil company.

ZUPPKE RALLIES TO SUPPORT OF GAME

COLUMBUS (O.) Nov. 22. (AP)—Coach Robert C. (Fighting Bob) Zuppke of the University of Illinois football team took time out tonight in his preparations for the Illini's finale of the season against Ohio State tomorrow to comment on the statement of Coach Robert Fletcher of Case School of Applied Science that "football is dying out as an intercollegiate sport."

"Every now and then," Zuppke said, "we hear that football is dying. That's what Coach Stagg of Chicago was told fifteen years ago when he wanted to build a big new stadium on the midway. He was told by the university to build a little one because football would be extinct in five years.

"That was fifteen years ago and now look at football—more men reporting for squads at every college than ever before, more interest in the sport by the public, and it is continually increasing.

"It seems that the cry 'football is dying,' comes from colleges where the teams are losing. Nobody wants to pay to see a poor team so they stay away and coaches say the game is dying. They frequently say in the East that interest in the game is lagging but it is only because the western teams are getting the better of them."

Zuppke was coach at Illinois when Bob Fletcher was quarterback of the Illinois team. He said "some reporter probably caught Fletcher in a gloomy moment."

TROJANS FACE IDAHO TODAY

triumph, the Cossacks having bowed to Oregon State, Washington State and Oregon in their other games. The Cossacks last week lost a 20-14 grudge game to Gonzaga, which happened to be coached by "Matty" Matthews, a former Idaho coach, who shot the works to get revenge on the institution that ousted him.

Wild Bill Kershisnik, who was a big shot for Idaho last year, is playing the outside half position this season and therefore doesn't get much chance to shine on offense. Kershisnik's task is blocking and running interference and he's quite proficient, they say. Waldemar Pederson is Calland's quarterback and, consequently, does most of the ball-packing. Pederson is the fastest man on the club. Fred Wilkie at fullback also comes in for his share of ball toting, while Orville Hult, at half, rounds out the first-string backfield. Hult, by the way, is the backfield captain, Idaho having two leaders. Gordon Diehl, a 200-pound tackle, is the line captain.

Idaho figures to be worn down in the latter stages of the game by the Trojans' flock of reserves, but Calland will be satisfied if his Cossacks can make a good showing in the first half.

With Jimmy Musick on the injured list, Galus Shaver, recently moved to the fullback post to protect the Trojans in the kicking department when Duffield is not in the game, will get a chance to show his stuff at the new position today. Don Moses will perform at full when Duffield is in the game.

Russ Saunders, who made that 95-yard runback for a touchdown on the kick-off against Notre Dame last Saturday, is expected to start at quarter and then give way to Duffield. Apsit and Pinckert will be the other starters in the Trojan backfield, while Tappaan, Arbelbide, Anthony, Baker, Williamson, Hall and Galloway will compose the starting line.

The kick-off is scheduled for 2 o'clock. The line-ups:

MRS. GREEN IN GOLF VICTORY

Mrs. Woerner were hitting their woods particularly well, the short game of both players kept the gallery continually applauding.

Mrs. Green hit her stride yesterday and medaled with 42-41—83, 3 under women's par, against 44-41—85 for Mrs. Woerner.

MRS. GREEN LEADS

The California women's champion got off to a good start with a 6 on the 530-yard first hole against Mrs. Woerner's 7. The Los Angeles star won the second hole with a par, and lost the third to a par. Both bagged men's pars on four to halve the hole. Mrs. Green played the 360-yard fifth hole perfectly to take a 2-up edge. They halved the sixth hole with pars, and Mrs. Woerner holed a twenty-foot putt on seven to win that hole with a 4 against Mrs. Green's 5. They halved the next two holes, and Mrs. Green turned the halfway mark, 1 up.

The cards:

Part (Out)	654	555	545—44
Mrs. Green	663	445	545—42
Mrs. Woerner	754	465	443—44

Mrs. Woerner, with her short chips dropping dead on the pin, started a comeback with a vengeance on the tenth hole, which she won with a 3 to square the match. They halved eleven with 5's, and Mrs. Woerner went into the lead for the first time on the twelfth hole, when she played a wood second on the apron, and laid her third shot dead for a sure 4.

MATCH SQUARED

Mrs. Green squared the match on the thirteenth hole with a par, and they halved the next four holes in a row. The sixteenth was the crucial hole of the match. Mrs. Green drove a trap to the right, while Mrs. Woerner poked one straight down the middle. Their second shots were even when Mrs. Woerner topped her spoon shot, and Mrs. Green had a pretty out of the trap. Mrs. Woerner's third shot was on the edge of the green, while Mrs. Green sliced another wood into a trap. The California star's out was fifteen feet short with a tricky, uphill lie. Carefully lining the putt, Mrs. Green putted just above the cup, and the ball dropped for a 5 and a half.

With seventeen halved and the match resting on eighteen, both players hit two long woods, leaving them practically even on the edge of the green. Mrs. Woerner chipped short for a sure two putts and a 5, but Mrs. Green, with perfect judgment, chipped up to within three inches of the cup, and almost holed out for a 3. Mrs. Woerner went after her putt, but it was off line, and her next act was to congratulate the new champion.

The cards:

Par (out)	445	563	555—42—86
Mrs. Green	455	463	554—41—83
Mrs. Woerner	354	563	555—41—85

Mrs. W. R. Penniston reported yesterday that anything to the contrary, she was not defeated in the semifinals. She proved that by defeating Mrs. James Horan, 3 and 2, to win the finals of the first flight. Mrs. Penniston's reported defeat was in error.

Mrs. Ernest Price defeated Mrs. Mary Stivers, 1 up, nineteen holes, to win the second flight silverware.

KELLER CONTINUES TO TOP RIVIERA FIELD

Leon Keller of the Rancho Golf club, bids fair to repeat his 1928 victory in the Riviera invitational, now in progress. Leon completed his thirty-six holes yesterday with 71-75-146, and is leading his nearest competitor, F. C. Stevens, Jr., of Lakeside, by three strokes. Keller is 1 up on par, while Stevens is 4 down. Fay Coleman of California, is third with 151, 7 down to par.

conference foes — Washington State, U.S.C., Montana and the University of Washington — as well as traveling 3000 miles across the country to turn back Pennsylvania, 12 to 7.. It has beaten Santa Clara, the Olympic Club and tied with St. Mary's in nonconference games.

Stanford, on the other hand, has bowed to one conference team—the Trojans of Southern California—and lost to Santa Clara in a nonconference struggle, beating the Olympic Club in another. The Cards beat Oregon, Oregon State, U.C.L.A. and the University of Washington in conference games.

California, therefore, has the cleaner record, and the way the old grads have poured into the city there is every indication they are prepared to beat the tom-toms of victory in "big game" celebrations tomorrow night. There is no such thing as a hotel reservation, and choice game tickets are bringing $50 per pair in spite of a rain forecast by the weather man.

THOMPSON IN LINE-UP

Battle line-ups as announced by the coaches brought no changes except from Stanford, and these only occasioned mild surprise. One is the displacement of Tiny Artman at left tackle by Red Thompson and Heiser at right guard by Bill Bardin.

Artman, a big 225-pounder, has not played up to snuff this year, and Warner apparently figures that Thompson, although fifty pounds lighter, will be more valuable because of his drive.

Heiser has been incapacitated by a knee injury since early in the year and Bardin gets the spot that several have been scrapping for during the season.

With Artman out of the picture the Stanford line will be outweighed by the California forwards eleven pounds to the man, and, instead of the popular saying, the big Red Shirts, it will be the little Red Shirts against the big Bears.

Outside of Capt. Riegels and Joe Pitto, center and left guard, who weigh 175 and 178, respectively, none of the Bear linesmen weighs less than 190 pounds, and Schwars, guard, and Timmerman, tackle, scale at 200 pounds apiece.

Only in the backfield does Stanford have a weight edge, and this is so largely because of Herby Fleishhacker's 219 pounds of bone and muscle. Rothert hits 191, Smalling 187 and Prentrup 181.

GILL BIGGEST

Rusty Gill, with 190 pounds, is the biggest of the Bear backs, followed by Ed Griffiths at 187, Lom, 175, and Elsan, 165.

Fleishhacker's bulk brings the average of the Stanford backs up to 194½, as contrasted to California's 179.

But even the discrepancy here is not enough to offset California's edge in team average—185½ to 184.

Although California is the pregame favorite, Stanford is just as likely to walk off with the verdict tomorrow. Pop Warner's boys were beaten by Southern California, 7 to 0, but they took a lot out of the Trojans and had considerable to do with California's 15-to-7 win over the Trojans at Los Angeles a week later.

Up to the time of the Trojan defeat Stanford had been coming along better than any team Warner has had in recent years. It was more of a unit, had more cohesion, was more spirited. It showed improvement with each game.

And in view of the fact that it lost only two players of any great consequence from last year's team—Post and Robesky, the guards—it is hard to believe that California should be any kind of a favorite tomorrow.

And it will occasion absolutely no surprise in your correspondent's mind if Stanford wins.

GOOD RESERVES

Warner has good reserves, and he knows how to use them. He has Niell, a sophomore end, ready to move Preston, a two-year veteran, out of his spot at the left flank. And Thompson dispossesses Artman, another vet, at tackle.

And as regulars he has Muller, great forward-pass receiver, at one end; Tandy, a good veteran tackle; the old reliable Walt Heinecke at center, and just two new men in the line—Driscoll and Bardin at guards.

He has the same old power backfield that with the exception of Biff Hoffman wrecked Army at New York last year.

He has Simkins and Prentrup, who were the last half heroes of the "big game" last year—the boys who tied up the score after California left the field at half-time 13 points to the good to Stanford's 0.

And he has Rothert, the best forward-passer on the team—a man who puts the shot over fifty feet and can throw a ball as far as Jack Elder, the famous Notre Dame ace.

And he has Smalling, the Templeton hero, and Herby Fleishhacker, who can hit a line like a ton of brick and back it up in similar fashion.

And so on down the line. Your correspondent has misgivings but no sympathy for Stanford tomorrow. Its team is every whit as good as that of California in veteran material.

In newcomers, perhaps, California has the edge with that hard-hitting redhead, "Rusty" Gill, sophomore find, in the backfield, and Ed Griffiths, formerly of L. A. Poly, as a running mate, also a sophomore.

LAST GAME

These boys are great ball-packing companions for the old heads of the Bears' backfield—Lee Elsan and Benny Lom, both of whom are playing their last "big game" tomorrow. Lom was disappointing in the "big game" last year, but after his great work in the Southern California combat this year he is expected to shine brilliantly. He is a great kicker, passer and runner—an all-American candidate.

The only real newcomers on the Bears' line this year are Timmerman and Beckett at tackles, although they often replaced Fitz and Bancroft last year. Schwars is a veteran guard, and so is Pitto, although Harry Gill was the regular left guard last fall. He was sick at the start of the season and before he could get into the swing of things Pitto had won the job. Riegels at center is too well known, of course, to need comment. Norton at left end, is a veteran, and Thornton at the other flank has displaced Russ Avery, a one-year man.

Six of the Bears who start tomorrow will be playing their last "big game," and they have never seen a victory over Stanford during their college generation—Norton, Pitto, Riegels, Schwars, Lom and Elsan. Four other letter men on the bench will graduate in May—Lee Rice, halfback; Harry Gill, guard; Stanley Barr, halfback, and Axel Lindgren, guard.

This is just another reason why the Bears will fight their heads off to achieve victory over a team which started brilliantly this year, rose to great heights against Oregon and Oregon State, was beaten by Southern California and flivvered against Santa Clara, but is likely to function on all cylinders tomorrow.

The two teams seem too evenly matched for either to make yards consistently through the line. Forward passes and "breaks" probably will tell the story tomorrow.

California 'C' Burnt in Sod at Palo Alto

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 22. (AP)—Stanford's student population awoke today to discover its big stadium had been visited by night marauders whose only apparent motive was to leave a California card burnt into the turf of the football field. Gasoline was used to trace a huge "C," fifteen feet wide and thirty feet deep. Today is the day before the "big game." The two universities have a gentleman's agreement not to invade the other's property on such occasions so Stanford students do not suspect California's undergraduates—oh, my, no!

COOPER TO SEEK PLACE IN TOURNEY

Lighthorse Harry Wants to be Included in Golf Championship Here

Harry Cooper, registering from the Northwestern New York district of the Professional Golfers' Association, is making an effort to be included in the national professional championship to be played at the Hillcrest Country Club, December 2-7.

Cooper is well known to national golf. He holds his district P.G.A. championship and three years ago tied with Tommy Armour for first place in the national open championship, losing on the play-off. He first came into prominence as winner of the first Los Angeles $10,000 open tournament at the Los Angeles Country Club in 1925.

Last summer Cooper was in a taxi cab going out to a tournament. The cab was in collision with another car and Cooper had four bones in his foot broken. He was incapacitated for many weeks. During

Miller Outlines Status of Delaware Concern

Plans Laid for Exchange of Oregon Unit Stock

Higher Dividends and Larger Yields Forecast

Claude Neon Electrical Products Corporation, Ltd., of Delaware, is completing a highly satisfactory year, and business is at a high tide with about $4,800,000 in outstanding contracts and the monthly volume of business holding close to $250,000, John B. Miller, chairman of the board, announced yesterday following a meeting of the directors, at which plans were performed for the exchange of stock whereby the Delaware corporation becomes the owner of the Electrical Products Corporation of Oregon. Cash receipts for 1929 will approximate $3,000,000, he added.

"It is the intention of the board of directors to increase the cash dividend consistent with conservative management and as the amount of this dividend is increased the board of directors will probably decrease the stock dividend," Mr. Miller said in stating that arrangements were made at the meeting for the distribution of the stock and cash dividends due to the stockholders on January 1.

"Our common stockholders on January 1 will receive a cash dividend of 25 cents per share, and the stock dividend amounting to 5 per cent, of which 3 per cent is the one declared at our last meeting, and the 2 per cent plus a fraction comes to our common stockholders through their ownership of a portion of the Oregon corporation.

"Our common stockholders can be assured that there probably will never at any time be any decrease of yield but increase in the cash dividends as applied will result in a net increase in the yield of our stock.

"The corporation is in a strong financial position. We owe no bank loans or bonds or debentures. We have taken large write-offs and provided for contingencies in the form of substantial reserves. The company has on hand $185,000 in cash and an earned surplus close to $600,000."

Output of the company is expected to be materially increased by the new white and gold light now being manufactured, a recent development of the Claude Neon Laboratories, according to Mr. Miller.

Chicago Bank Rate Reduced

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—The Federal Reserve Board today approved a recommendation of the Chicago Federal Reserve Bank to reduce its rediscount rate from 5 to 4 1-2 per cent. The new rate applies to all classes of paper of all maturities effective the 23rd inst.

The reduction of the Chicago Federal Reserve rediscount rate makes the third Federal Reserve district that has recently brought its rate down to 4 1-2 per cent, New York taking the lead, followed by Boston. All other districts are on a 5 per cent basis.

FORMATION OF HUGE DRUG UNIT ANNOUNCED

MEMPHIS (Tenn.) Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—Robert R. Ellis, Memphis drug operator and capitalist, announced today the formation of a $100,000,000 national manufacturing wholesale and retail drug organization, independent in those fields, with co-operative and profit-sharing features. The new organization will operate under the names of the Mutual Drug Company and Pure Druggist, with headquarters in Cleveland, O. It will be directed by Mr. Ellis and Frederick Rossi, president of the Mutual Drug Company of Cleveland.

PACIFIC PORTLAND DECLARES DIVIDEND

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—Directors of the Pacific Portland Cement Company declared today dividend of $2 a share on the common stock payable December 18 to stockholders of record December 14. This is the first dividend paid on the common stock since the consolidation in April, 1927, of the Old Mission Cement Company and the Pacific Portland Cement Company.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. (AP)—An opening decline in the cotton market was followed by rallies on reports of very unfavorable weather for saving the remnant of the crop, but prices eased off again during the afternoon under renewed liquidation which seemed to be coupled with a little commission house or southern selling. The mid-afternoon market was 7 to 13 points net lower.

EXCHANGE ADDS NEW LISTINGS

Brake Associates Stock With Additional Issues Approved

Stock of Hydraulic Brake Associates, Ltd., a concern formed to hold a majority of the stock of Hydraulic Brake Company, has been approved for listing by the governors of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange and will be called for trading next Wednesday, F. E. Sanford, secretary and manager of the exchange, announced yesterday. Additional stock of Macmillan Petroleum Corporation and Commercial Discount Company was also approved.

Hydraulic Brake Associates has an authorized capital of 80,000 shares of which 36,551 are outstanding and owns more than 52 per cent of the capital stock of the Hydraulic Brake Company, holders of the Lockheed hydraulic-brake patents used as standard equipment by a large number of automobile manufacturers. The associates was formed by officers of the brake company and their associates to prevent control of the company passing into other hands. Stock of the associates was exchanged share-for-share for the brake company stock.

Additional listings of 2285 shares of $25 par value common stock of the Macmillan Petroleum Company and 21,429 shares of $25 par value common stock of the Commercial Discount Company were also accepted and admitted to trading immediately. The Macmillan additional covers a recent stock dividend and the discount issue is for conversion of notes.

Inasmuch as practically all shares of Pacific National Bank have been exchanged for Transamerica Corporation stock, Pacific National Bank will be removed from trading next Monday, the board ruled.

Brighter Tone Noted in Trade Survey of Week

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. (AP)—Dun's review tomorrow will say:

After the extended period of extreme speculative disorder, several constructive and supporting factors have combined to produce a better general feeling; the culmination of the collapse of stock prices, with subsequent substantial recovery under normal trading conditions; the great deflation of loans; the progressive easing of money rates here and abroad; the lessened depression in commodity markets, and the Washington conferences for the furtherance of commercial stability and expansion, have all served to give sentiment an improved tone. Other elements, including the demonstrated solidity of the banking position at a time of unprecedented pressure, have contributed to the increase in confidence, which it is hoped will spread with a wider recognition of the strong underlying forces in the present situation.

Not illogically, evidences of business retrogression have become more common, but the recession has been free from some of the highly disturbing phases which had accompanied certain earlier setbacks. Considering the severity of the late financial experience, it is reassuring that trade has resisted the shock so well, and for this reason many interests are disposed to take the hopeful view that the deleterious effects may not be long continued.

Weekly bank clearings: $15,141,589,000, an increase of 12.7 per cent over a year ago.

TIME EXTENDED FOR PAYMENT ON STOCK

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. (Exclusive) United States and International Securities Corporation has notified holders of first preferred stock allottment certificates that the payment of the third installment of 25 per cent of the allottment price due December 2, next, has been postponed to March 1, 1930. Stockholders will meet December 13 to vote on the proposed increase in authorized second preferred stock from 100,000 to 150,000 shares and in common from 3,000,000 to 4,250,000 shares.

SPERRY FLOUR RAISES DRIFTED SNOW PRICE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—Sperry Flour Company, announced today an increase of 20 cents a barrel in flour to $7.60 for drifted snow. The new rate is effective immediately.

MERGER YARNS ALIVE AGAIN

Hopes Revived Quickly as Traders Forget Losses in Break; New York Banks Mentioned

BY EARLE E. CROWE

Revival already of merger rumors corroborates the axiom that memories are short-lived in the stock market. People fortunate enough to survive the late crisis are showing a noticeable disposition to look ahead rather than behind, and wherever speculators gather the conversation turns to hopeful conjectures for the future. Unquestionably the Hoover conferences have been an important factor in this recovery of confidence.

Since there is nothing fundamentally wrong with business, as the public has been volubly assured, the same reasons motivating merger discussions a month ago should obtain now. Economies in manufacturing and distribution will be just as effective now as formerly, and in some lines where weakness has developed, probably more effective.

MARKET TONE IMPORTANT

If some of the stories freshly put into circulation are true, several of the merger plans have been revived. Consummation, however, will probably wait until the stock market has been thoroughly straightened out to permit the exchange of shares on an equitable basis more closely associated with values, or to facilitate the distribution of new securities. The trades predicated on the collection of speculative profits through inflated stock prices will hardly come to life again.

In New York City the banking consolidation stories have been given renewed attention. One supposition is that the so-called Morgan banks are working on a still larger combination, while another suggests that the plans for the expansion of the National City Bank have not been discarded.

Merger yarns are especially active in the oil trade, stimulated undoubtedly by the apparent restoration of an economic balance within the industry. If the peaks and valleys in profits are to be smoothed out, as the industry hopes, there is a greater incentive to combine into larger units in order to reap the benefit of lower costs possible in large-scale operation.

OIL STORIES ACTIVE

Standard Oil of California, already a giant in the industry, is supposed to have plans for enlarging its scope of operations. The recent entry of this company into the public utility business indicates that the Standard Oil management is not satisfied to rest on what it has accomplished in building up a great property. From a stock market standpoint it is doubtful if Standard has even begun to discount in price the tremendous value in its Kettleman Hills and West Texas holdings.

Sinclair Consolidated, Prairie Oil, Continental Oil, Standard of New Jersey, Texas and other companies are also reported to have expansion programs waiting for the propitious time to break. Even the traditional rumor favorite, the Union Oil Company, may prove up on some of the many stories in circulation. Rio Grande is a current favorite, first appearing in connection with Barnsdall and then Richfield.

There still is ground for believing that the Southern California Edison and Pacific Lighting trade will be resumed. New York reports have suggested that interested banking groups are hopeful for an early conclusion of negotiations.

Gain in Auburn Exports Scored

AUBURN (Ind.) Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—Export shipments of the Auburn Automobile Company for the first fifteen days of November show more than 100 per cent increase over the same period last year, shipments for the fifteen days being greater than during the entire November of 1928, R. S. Wiley, export manager, announced today.

This compares with a 65 per cent increase in export shipments for the first six months of 1929 over the same period last year and a 60 per cent increase in September, 1929, over September, 1928. The new Cord front-drive car has met with an unusual acceptance on the continent, Wiley said, and its sales are far in excess of expectations.

TRI-UTILITIES UNIT SIGNS LARGE ORDER

Southern Natural Gas Corporation, controlled by Tri-Utilities Corporation, yesterday signed a contract for the sale of natural gas in the Birmingham (Ala.) district. The contract calls for 2,500,000,000 cubic feet the first year starting January 1, next, and will increase to 4,000,000,000 cubic feet by the fourth year. A pipe line is now being continued from the Monroe and Richland fields across the south to Atlanta, Ga., which, when completed, will be the longest single high pressure gas line in the world, more than 900 miles.

BENDIX BUILDING TO BE OPENED SHORTLY

Formal opening of the new Bendix Building at Twelfth street and Maple avenue, which will house about twenty of the Bendix domestic and foreign enterprises, is expected to take place shortly, it was learned yesterday. Herbert E. Linden, executive head of the Bendix interests in the West is en route to Los Angeles to be followed soon by Vincent E. Bendix. Both men have just returned from Europe.

EXTRA DECLARED

TORONTO, Nov. 22. (Exclusive) Directors of the Dominion Bank declared today an extra dividend of 1 per cent in addition to the regular quarterly of 3 per cent payable to stock of record December 20. This makes 13 per cent paid this year.

ANALYSIS ISSUED

William Cavalier & Co., member of the New York and San Francisco stock exchanges, has issued for general distribution, a report on American Radiator and Standard Sanitary Corporation.

WHAT'S BEHIND YOUR STOCK

COLUMBIA GRAPHOPHONE

The Columbia Graphophone Company, Ltd., was formed under English laws in 1917 and through subsidiaries located in the United States, Germany, Holland, Australia, Japan and France, Phonographs are manufactured and distributed in practically all parts of the world. Radio products have been sold in the United States manufactured by the Kolster Radio Corporation and will shortly be added in England.

Net income for the twelve months ended June 30, 1929, amounted to £505,120 as compared with a net for the fifteen months preceding of £491,306. After preferred dividends, and converting into dollars at the rate of $4.86, this was equal to $1.10 per share on the ordinary stock, as compared with $1.15 for the fifteen months' period. Current assets at the end of June were about 3½ times current liabilities.

CAPITALIZATION

Funded debt	None
Preference stock 7% (par)	300,000
Ordinary stock (10/-) shares	2,563,500

Current, data: Louis Sterling chairman, recently stated that "from present indications, Columbia should show better than a 20 per cent increase in business for 1929 over a year ago."

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. (Exclusive) Warner Brothers Pictures, Inc., reports net profits of $17,271,809 for the year ended August 31, 1929. This includes the profits of Stanley Company of America and First National, Inc., subsidiaries of the company. The net profits for the corporate year just ended, are 744.6 per cent above those for the year ended August 31, 1928, which were reported as $2,044,841.

The net profit is equivalent to $6.28 a share, after deduction of preferred dividends on the 2,627,405 shares of the common stock outstanding. This compares with a net profit equivalent to $3.72 a share on the 550,000 combined class AA and common stock outstanding on August 31, 1928. Last June the company split the common stock on a two-for-one basis, and recently increased the dividend rate of $4 annually a share.

Extra Dividend List Augmented

NEW YORK, Nov. 22, (Exclusive) The growing list of extra-dividend declarations by corporations in the last few days was swelled today by the action of three additional companies ordering extra disbursements to their stockholders. Standard Oil Company of Kentucky declared an extra of 40 cents in addition to its regular quarterly of 40 cents.

Pittsburgh Plate Glass Company declared an extra of $1 along with its regular quarterly of 50 cents. Westmoreland, Inc., declared a special of 20 cents from surplus and an extra of 80 cents in addition to its regular quarterly of 30 cents.

Trading Quiet on London Mart

LONDON, Nov 22. (Exclusive)—The stock market had a quiet tone today, but sentiment was cheerful. Shares of companies of international interest were firm. Tobaccos and artificial silks were easier and margarines were lower. The oil and mining lists were in fair demand and rubbers were steady. Talking machines and textiles were quiet. Ford Motors, Ltd., was quoted around £2 3-8, Brazilian Traction ordinary around 44 5-8 and International Nickel around 33 3-4.

The gilt-edged division had a firm tone. Foreign issues were lower. Home rails were steady and Argentine rails easier.

Gorman, Kayser & Co., member of the Los Angeles and San Francisco stock exchanges, has just issued its current number of Investment Topics, which contains an article on how investments should be diversified, firstly for the business man and secondly, for the widow.

PARAFFINE EXPANSION CONTINUES

Stockholders of Company Advised of Bright Future by President

Stockholders of the Paraffine Companies, Inc., were informed in letters received from R. S. Shainwald, president, yesterday that "there is nothing in the present situation that would warrant anything but a feeling of optimism."

"As far as our business is concerned, the management has no intention of curtailing its operating or clerical forces, has not canceled any of its orders, has received no cancellations and is continuing its program of expansion and, while it is expected that there may be some decline in business for a short period, it looks forward to the year 1930 with absolute confidence in the results," the letters stated.

Accompanying this statement was another letter setting forth the directors' belief that a goodly portion of the company's surplus which amounted to $6,878,988.16 on October 31, last, should be distributed to the shareholders and that the directors had therefore resolved to continue the semiannual stock dividend of 2 per cent, payable in December and June of each year, in addition to the regular cash dividends. The first stock dividend of 2 per cent was paid on June 27, last.

Creditors Put Earl Radio in Receivership

NEWARK (N. J.) Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—Harry G. Hendricks and Oscar Klamer today were appointed receivers for Earl Radio Corporation of Clifton, N. J., and New York, by Vice-Chancellor Church. Stockholders and creditors were ordered to show cause December 10 why receivership should not be made permanent.

Application for receiver was made by J. A. Cozzone, a creditor, while a supplemental bill was filed by C. W. Vail in behalf of another creditor, Emeloid Company, Inc., of Kearney N. J. Assets of the concern were placed at $4,000,000 in the original bill with total liabilities of $3,800,000.

In the supplemental bill it was stated that while the Earl corporation claims its assets are $3,078,000 plus $800,000 accounts receivable, they would not bring more than one-third of present value at a forced sale. This bill set the liabilities at more than $3,000,000 to more than 200 creditors and states the company has no ready cash and is insolvent. It declared the company has laid off 2000 employees and is running about 50 per cent of its capacity and at a loss.

Wool Growers Rap Action of Credit Banks

SAN ANGELO (Tex.) Nov. 22. (AP) After denouncing action of the intermediate credit banks for increasing interest rates and at the same time lowering valuations upon which they base loans, the National Wool Growers' Association closed its annual convention here today.

All officers, including F. J. Hagenbarth of Spencer, Idaho, president, were re-elected. The executive committee was given authority to select the next convention city.

Approval of the newly organized National Wool Marketing Association was voted as a matter of routine formality.

A resolution adopted favored the proposed plan to cede Federal lands to States in which they are located with provision that each State be given the option to accept or reject the lands.

Broker Society Adds to Board

Appointment of Edward F. Barton, H. H. Kronick, E. H. Shiek and R. D. Robertson, all of whom operate local stock and bond offices under their own names, to the board of governors of the recently organized California Brokers' Association was announced yesterday by Jack Hines, secretary. Gale D. Frey of Goodnow & Co. completes the board. E. M. Allison is president of the association.

A meeting will be held the 26th inst. at the City Club for the purpose of establishing an initiation fee for future additions to the membership roster. The organization plans to stabilize the price of unlisted securities and to protect the average stock buyer from unscrupulous brokers and salesmen, according to Hines.

Banker Reports Business Sound

CHICAGO, Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—Frank O. Wetmore, co-chairman of the First National Bank, and a member of the Federal advisory council, on his return from Washington stated that leading bankers throughout the country believe that business is sound and will not suffer unduly from the stock market collapse.

Mr. Wetmore said that the most encouraging factor in the general situation is that there has been no inflation in commodity prices or inventories. Members of the council reported there are no serious financial troubles in their districts and that business and general conditions are satisfactory.

MERGER CHECK PROJECTED

Congressman Tinkham Would Give Federal Trade Body Supervision Over All Proposed Combines

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

(Copyright, 1929, by the North American Newspaper Alliance)

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Representative Tinkham, Massachusetts, wants Congress to give the Federal Trade Commission supervisory powers over all contemplated mergers and consolidations in the industrial and banking fields.

Mr. Tinkham would provide for the Federal licensing of all corporations in interstate commerce. The certificate given a corporation would constitute a complete defense against any prosecution or proceeding under the antitrust laws, unless it had been revoked.

Here is where the Federal Trade Commission would come in. Before any revocation order was entered the commission would have to determine whether the Sherman antitrust laws had been violated.

Such suggestions to deal with this new era of mergers have been made before. The Sherman antitrust legislation was placed on the statute books in 1890—nearly forty years ago. It aimed to prohibit monopolies and all restraints of trade. The Department of Justice has no authority to change or lighten the provisions in any way. It must enforce them.

The Tinkham bill would give the Federal Trade Commission, now a governmental agency, power to ascertain all facts in connection with every merger and to decide whether it was in the interest of public policy.

Eventually some legislation will be enacted to meet the new conditions. For today one corporation merging with another does not know whether on the following day it may not be indicted for breach of the antitrust laws.

Lord Beaverbrook, Canadian, who has become a great industrialist and publicist of Great Britain, and who is the leading champion of "free trade within the British Empire," favors the tariff barrier between the empire and all other parts of the world. He took his case to the House of Lords, but was promptly turned down by the government, headed by Lord Arnold, close friend of Ramsay MacDonald.

Lord Melchett, head of great chemical corporations and International Nickel, believes more should be done to make the British Empire an economic unit. In some degrees he has Lord Beaverbrook's idea.

Listen to this Melchettian statement: "Considering the British Empire as an economic unit we could make it so large in area, so big in population, so rich in resources, with such capacity for finance and with such technical and managerial ability and experience, that even the United States would be relatively insignificant."

Stock Markets Will Close for Three Sessions

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—Governors of the New York Stock Exchange voted today to hold regular five-hour sessions next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and to close entirely for the balance of the week. Thanksgiving Day, next Thursday, is a usual legal holiday. All other major exchanges of the country have taken similar action.

When the market closes Wednesday for the balance of the week it will mark the longest recess the exchange has taken since 1901 with the exception of the suspension at the beginning of the World War when it was closed from July 31 to December 12, 1914.

Los Angeles and San Francisco stock and curb exchanges in following the action of the New York markets will hold their regular full sessions Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday and be closed the balance of the week.

All major security markets in the nation will be closed today.

TRADING ON WOOL MART STILL DULL

Weekly Survey Reports Prices Barely Firm as Buyers Hold Aloof

BOSTON, Nov. 22. (AP)—The Commercial Bulletin tomorrow will say:

The week has continued quiet in the wool markets of this country, with prices hardly firm. There are some indications of renewed interest in goods and in wool, however, with the possibility that prices may become firmer. Worsted goods still move fairly well on old order.

London opened about as expected and is continuing steady on opening levels. Australia is barely firm at last week's levels. Other primary markets are fairly steady Bradford, however, is rather easier as are the continental markets.

The fall Texas wools have been practically all cleared from growers' hands this week, mainly in the range of 19-20 cents, or say 83-86 cents, clean basis, at Boston.

Mohair is very dull and somewhat easier, original bag Texas adult hair being quotable at 80-83 cents.

The rail-and-water shipments of wool from Boston from January 1, 1929 to November 21, 1929, inclusive, were 189,700,000 pounds, against 147,775,000 pounds for the same period last year. The receipts from January 1, 1929 to November 21, 1929, inclusive, were 287,267,100 pounds, against 288,097,943 pounds for the same period last year.

The Bulletin will publish the following wool quotations tomorrow:

Scoured basis, Texas—Fine 12 months (selected), 83@85; fine short (2 months), 80@83; fine 8 months, 75@78; California—Northern, 77@78; middle county, 75@77; southern, 72@73. Oregon—Fine and F. M. staple, 84@86; fine and F. M. French combing, 80@83; fine and F. M. clothing, 75@78; valley No. 1, 83@85.

Territory: (Scoured basis) Montana and similar—Fine staple choice, 90@92; ¾-blood combing, 87@89; ¼-blood combing, 85@87; ½-blood combing, 77@78. Pulled: Delaine, 87@93; AA, 90@92; fine A supers, 86@90; A supers, 83@87.

Mohairs: Domestic, good original Texas spring, 80@82; good original Texas kid, 81@83; Arizona and New Mexico, 46@48; Oregon, 48@50. Graded stock: First combing, 80@82; good carding, 83@87.

Anglo-American Oil Deal Pends

LONDON, Nov. 22. (Exclusive)—Announcement of a contemplated merger of Anglo-American Oil Company with another important oil unit will probably be announced her on the 26th inst. The company has issued a statement to the effect that it will make a special statement to shareholders following its action on an interim dividend on that date.

The merger will be consummated through an exchange of stocks. The basis of this exchange is understood to be on a parity of about $14 a share in the American money for each of ordinary shares of one pound per outstanding of Anglo-American Company for stock of the other company in the merger. Although the name of the company that will absorb Anglo-American cannot be learned, it is understood that it is closely affiliated with Standard Oil interests.

WOOL MARKET

BOSTON, Nov. 22. (AP)—Interest in wool and semimanufactured raw material from dress goods manufacturers was numerous yet little business from this source has developed, so far. Most of wool are confined almost entirely to 64's and finer quality, strictly supply territory wool of this grade being in only moderate volume. Arrivals of lots of foreign merchandise were on hand for import.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. (AP)—The bond market ended a week of mostly improvement today with numerous high-grade domestic corporation loans at or near their top prices for the year. Volume of trading declined, but there was good support demand to send more than a score of issues to new 1929 high points.

Money rates again dodged. Time loans, at 5 to 5½ per cent for all maturities, were a shade easier, while the nominal rates for call funds was the lowest in a year and a half. The moderate receipts were due. Liberty bonds and Treasury certificates worked irregularly lower, although the First Liberty 4½s made a new 1929 high at 101.

Attorney general's ruling upholding the position of the railroad list by raising to a par value of $100 per share for the new P. R. R.-Atlantic Coast Line plan to end Missouri-Kansas-Texas first preferred's long arrearage previous year.

Industrials were inclined to drag, but there was substantial buying in some of the popular utilities, including American Telephone 5½s and debenture 5s, Detroit Edison 5s, and Utah Power and Light 5s. National Dairy Products 5½s rose a full point to within a fraction of their high.

The unofficial figures of sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in Wall street, as reported by the Associated Press, were as follows, with last sale when same as high.

Maryland to Get San Diego Suspect Pair

SACRAMENTO, Nov. 22. (AP)—Extradition for two men held by San Diego authorities, permitting their return to Baltimore to answer to charges of murder and robbery with a deadly weapon, were granted today by Gov. Young.

One extradition was granted for the return of Anthony J. Richie, alias Anthony J. Ricci, Rags Richie or Albert Joseph Ross. He is charged with shooting and killing Edward J. Laughlin in Baltimore on the night of October 20, last. The complaint was filed on strength of an affidavit sworn to by Frank J. Deitz of Baltimore, declaring that he identified Richie as the murderer.

The second extradition granted was for Hunter Lewis, alias Charles Wilkenson, charged with holding up Clara Marie Hughes in Baltimore on August 15, last, threatening her with a gun and robbing her of rings and precious stones valued at $2930.

WOMAN HERE NAMED IN WILL OF FATHER

NEW YORK, Nov. 22. (Exclusive) Mrs. Louise Awerdick of the Haas Building, Los Angeles, receives $1000 of the estate of her father, Harry Clay Birch, which was filed for appraisal in the office of the New York State Transfer Tax Department today, showing a net value of $47,456.

On the death of her mother, Mrs. Carletto Eleanor Birch of White Plains, N. Y., Mrs. Awerdick will receive one-half the residuary estate. Mrs. Birch is bequeathed a life interest in the residue which is valued at $57,350. Mr. Birch died July 9, last.

España Tiene la Mira de Aumentar su Armada

MADRID, Noviembre 22.—España esta pensando recuperar parte de su prestigio naval de pasados siglos, y, al efecto, seguirá un programa de construcción de buques de guerra, que, al decir de los funcionarios del ministerio de Marina, la hará ocupar el sexto lugar entre las grandes potencias mundiales.

Los barcos, algunos de los cuales se comenzaron desde hace dos años, serán construidos en los astilleros españoles de Cartagena, Cádiz y el Ferrol, y estarán en gradas para Junio de 1932. Espérase que el programa se termine en unos tres años.

El día de hoy consta la armada española de sesenta y tres buques de todas clases, la mayoría de poco tonelaje. Los mayores son el Alfonso XIII y el Jaime I, que tienen 15,700 toneladas métricas de desplazamiento cada uno.

Los Rojos que no Acudan al Llamamiento de Moscú Serán Reos de Traición

MOSCU, Noviembre 22.—En lo venidero, aquellos ciudadanos soviets, trabajadores o residentes en el extranjero, que no obedezcan a su gobierno, cuando éste les mande volver a Rusia, serán considerados culpables de traición, y cuando lleguen a echarles mano las autoridades de su país, serán fusilados a las veinticuatro horas de haber sido identificados.

Fue adoptada hoy esta medida por el comité ejecutivo central de la unión soviética, debido a la reciente rebeldía del señor Bessodovsky, de la embajada soviet de París, quien se rehusó a volver a Moscú para responder del cargo de desfalco.

STAR QUITS STAGE FOR MARRIED LIFE

Mrs. Marie Merrifield Meeker

SOUTHLAND BANKER WED TO ACTRESS

Leo M. Meeker Married to Miss Marie Merrifield in Ceremony at Yuma

Announcement of the marriage yesterday at Yuma, Ariz., of Miss Marie Merrifield of New York City, great granddaughter of President Jackson, and Leo M. Meeker, Southern California banker, was received here last night.

LEO M MEEKER

Mr. Meeker has served as president of the First National Bank of Beverly Hills, First National Bank of Riverside and the Long Beach National Bank.

Miss Merrifield has been prominent on the New York stage in recent years but with her marriage yesterday has forsaken her career, according to the announcement. She rose to fame rapidly in eastern musical circles following her appearance as soloist with several eastern churches.

She was the prima donna in "No, No, Nanhette," "Sunny," "Hit The Deck," "Katinka," "Five O'Clock Girl," and also played one of the principal roles in "The Three Musketeers." It is said also that she had been chosen to play the lead in the New York road company of "Rio Rita" but decided to leave the stage when she married.

The marriage took place quietly at Yuma late yesterday afternoon and Mr. and Mrs. Meeker left immediately on a month's trip to Mexico City. On their return, they will be at home after January 1 at the Meeker home at 129 North Rockingham Road, Brentwood Heights.

LIEUT. OGDEN PLANS TO MAKE TEST FLIGHT

The Ogden Osprey, a product of the Ogden Aeronautical Corporation, will be given its initial test flight tomorrow afternoon at the Municipal Airport, according to the announcement yesterday of Lieut.-Col. Barnitz, director of airports.

The flight will be made by Lieut. Henry Ogden, general manager of the corporation, who was a member of the Army round-the-world flyers.

TAX LIENS INVOLVE TWO FILM COMPANIES

Two tax liens involving the motion-picture industry were filed yesterday by Collector of Internal Revenue Welch. One is against the Corinne Griffith Productions for additional taxes for 1928 amounting to $717.09 and the other against Paultless Pictures, Inc., for additional taxes for 1928 amounting to $336.98.

MAYOR CHECKS NEW APPOINTEE

Porter Opens Investigation of Goodheart Record

Nomination to Police Board Now Before Council

Candidate Explains Charges Heard by Legislature

Mayor Porter was undecided last night as to his future action in seeking confirmation of his appointment of Ben L. Goodheart as the fifth member of the Police Commission.

The nomination of the attorney is now in the hands of the Police and Fire Committee of the City Council for recommendation, but it became known yesterday that investigators for Mayor Porter were checking past activities of Goodheart. It is understood that the withdrawal of the appointment or its continued support before the Council by the Mayor depends upon results of the investigation.

LOOKS INTO RECORD

Mayor Porter indicated that the investigation was concerned with a legislative hearing at Sacramento in 1927, in which Goodheart was charged with accepting commissions contrary to State law while a State deputy of the Modern Woodmen of America.

The matter of the legislative investigation and the charges brought were termed "an interfraternal political fight" by Goodheart yesterday, in explaining his appearance before the legislative committee.

"There is absolutely nothing to the charges and I am perfectly willing that they be carefully investigated by the Mayor or anyone else," Goodheart said.

"JEALOUSY," HE SAYS

"They were brought about through jealousy arising within the membership of the Modern Woodmen of America while I was State deputy and I was absolved of any legal or moral violation when the case was eventually decided by Atty.-Gen. Webb. I am not seeking appointment to the Police Commission but will serve if appointed and confirmed, and know the source of the matter that has been placed before Mayor Porter. I have no fear of the most searching investigation of my entire life and record, and am not disposed to take issue at this time with those who are now seeking to revive one of the several instances in which I was compelled to exert my authority," he declared.

The matter investigated by Senators Inman, Ingram and Allen, sitting in executive session in Sacramento in 1927, had to do with deposits in two Los Angeles banks of lodge funds Goodheart, his attorney, Charles O. Busick of Sacramento and State Insurance Commissioner Detrick were present.

RECOMMENDED ACTION

After the committee had heard reports of the deposits it recommended that matter be referred to the Attorney-General and State Insurance Commissioner for action. The committee held that the transactions between Goodheart and the banks were a violation of Section 421 of the Civil Code but not a penal offense. Goodheart was charged with accepting a commission of 1¼ per cent interest on the two deposits, which aggregated over $200,000 for placing them with the two banks, while the fraternal order received 2 per cent interest.

Goodheart said that he never made the deposits, as he had no authority to do so, but explained his refusal to talk before the investigating committee by saying that it was strictly a fraternal affair and his obligations to the order prevented his making a complete statement at that particular time.

"I have the written opinion of Atty.-Gen. Webb on the charges and in it am absolved of any blame or violation," said Goodheart, in explaining that the matter was a closed affair, as far as he is concerned.

BEACH PLANS CONSIDERED

Requests from the San Pedro Chamber of Commerce that the Playground and Recreation Commission arrange for a flight of stairs where the foot of Thirty-ninth street connects with Cabrillo Beach, a windbreak of palm trees along the beach, and urging completion of negotiations with the Southern Pacific Railroad for the opening of Thirty-sixth street to the same area, have been referred by the commission to Supt. Shearer for investigation and report.

TWINS RUN POOR OLD STORK RAGGED

Four Pairs Left at One Hospital by Perspiring Bird

WHO is prouder than the father of a new-born son?

A quick answer to that from the Methodist Hospital: "The father of two new-born sons."

And the hospital staff knows because it had four sets of infant twins, two pairs born Monday night, in the maternity ward yesterday, and doubly proud mothers and fathers were all about the place.

The eight twins break a record at the hospital, the oldest employee being unable to remember when the stork was so kind before in the matter of twins. Six boys and two girls, all are doing fine; all willing to have their pictures taken, except one young man who was indisposed temporarily yesterday.

Because the proud parents might become exhausted or run out of cigars before they have a chance to tell everyone in town about the twins, their names are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sano, 442 West Sixty-fourth street; Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Caldwell, 973 East Vernon avenue; Mr. and Mrs. A. Ducret, 10312 South Maple avenue, Inglewood, and Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Jones, 1241 West Eighty-fourth street. The Caldwell and Ducret families were increased by two boys each, while the other couples each got a boy and a girl.

Particular care is taken at the Methodist Hospital so that the identities of the children cannot be mixed. When each baby is born a string of lettered beads spelling the parents' name is woven around the child's neck and remains there until the baby goes home.

FINE BADGE GIVEN BACK BY PORTER

Diamond-Studded Emblem Returned to Fire Board as Too "Expensive"

The diamond-studded gold badge, presented to Mayor Porter Thursday night behind the closed doors of Fire Commissioner Werdin's "shrine of friendship" on the grounds of the Los Angeles Paving Company, of which Werdin is president, was returned to its donors, the members of the Fire Commission, by Mayor Porter yesterday.

Mayor Porter explained, in a letter to Werdin, that he did not think it appropriate for a Mayor to accept from the department "such an expensive badge." The cost of the jeweled emblem was declared to be $400 Thursday night, although speculation placed it at from $1500 to $5000.

The presentation, in the locked and guarded "shrine," was intended to be secret. The Fire Commissioners and the Mayor, when they discovered reporters in the vicinity, appeared astonished.

Mayor Porter, in discussing the badge proposition, said he was convinced there were "no irregularities" in the matter. He returned it to Fire Chief Scott.

The following statement, with his letter refusing the badge, was issued yesterday afternoon by the Mayor:

Last evening in response to the presentation speech giving to me a fire department badge, I indicated that it would not be possible for me to accept such an expensive badge, and later in the evening informed the committee that my final decision would be given the next morning.

Seeing no reason for reversing my first reaction to the acceptance of this badge, I indited the following letter to the commissioners and returned to them the badge:

"Mr. E. R. Werdin, president Board of Fire Commissioners, Los Angeles, Cal.

"Dear Mr. Werdin:

"Referring to our conversation last night in regard to the courteous and gracious action taken by your Board of Fire Commissioners and the executives of the fire department in presenting me with a fire department badge, I hope that you will not misunderstand me when I decline to accept this badge for the reason—and that reason alone—that it is not quite appropriate for a Mayor to receive from the department such an expensive badge.

"Regretting the necessity for tak-

PRAYER BOOK'S DEBUT NEAR

Revised Episcopal Volumes to be Used Here for First Time December 1

The Revised Prayer Book of the Episcopal Church will be used for the first time by congregations of Southern California on December 1, according to an announcement yesterday by Dr. Harry Beal, dean of St. Paul's Cathedral, who said that a large supply of the new books now is on the way to Los Angeles from New York as part of the cargo of the ship Horace of the Luckenbach line.

"December 1 is the date set for use of the new prayer book in Episcopal churches of the United States and the reading of a prayer of dedication, prepared by Bishop John G. Murray, will be a feature of the services at St. Paul's," said Dr. Beal. "The books for St. Paul's Cathedral will be marked with a bookplate bearing the arms of the Diocese of Los Angeles and carrying an appropriate inscription.

"The new prayer book is different on almost every page from the books in use for many years past, although practically all the material in the old books is contained in the revised volumes," said Dr. Beal. However, there are many new prayers reflecting the interest of vital religion in modern conditions. The word 'obey' has been omitted from the bride's promise in the marriage service and the promises of bride and bridegroom have been made identical. Several new services for special days have been added, including one for Independence Day. Provisions are made for a shortening of services, if desired, and the Ten Commandments may be read in their original shorter form. The present revision was completed last year at the Episcopal convention at Washington."

Dr. John W. Suter of Boston, who was one of the leaders in the work of the American revision, is expected to visit Los Angeles within the near future, according to Dr. Beal.

CITIZENSHIP SCHOOL AT U.S.C. WINS PRAISE

The school of public administration and citizenship of the University of Southern California was praised at the annual convention of the International City Managers' Association this week in Fort Worth, Tex., according to a telegram received at the institution yesterday from Emery E. Olson, its director. Olson stated that Sidney Gulick of the National Institute of Public Administration pronounced the school the most significant advance made in the United States this year in the training of men for the business management

RICHARDS QUITS HIS CITY POST

Resignation of Water and Power Board Member Accepted by Mayor

John R. Richards yesterday tendered his resignation as a member of the Board of Water and Power Commissioners and it was accepted by Mayor Porter.

It is understood that Mayor Porter has under consideration as a successor Frank H. Brooks, a real estate operator whose office is at 254 South Western avenue and who lives at 225 South Oxford avenue.

Richards, who has been on the board for the past three and a half years, stated in his resignation that he expects to be out of the city for the next several months, and inasmuch as many difficult problems are to be before the board for solution, he decided it was best to resign rather than to ask for a leave of absence.

Richards's resignation will not affect his position on the board of directors of the Metropolitan Water District of Southern California.

At the meeting of the Board of Water and Power commissioners yesterday a resolution lauding the public service of Mr. Richards and expressing deep regret at his departure was adopted unanimously by the board. The resolution follows:

Resolved, that the members of the Board of Water and Power Commissioners of the City of Los Angeles, (John R. Richards not participating,) view, with sincere regret, the resignation of Mr. Richards as a member of said board, thus terminating a period of unselfish public service on his part of great and lasting benefit to the people of Los Angeles."

Mr. Richards is leaving Los Angeles next Monday with Mrs. Richards for a five months' tour of Europe. He will visit France, Italy and England.

TRAFFIC TAKES TOLL OF FOUR

Highway Patrolman Victim of Cycle-Truck Crash

Pomona Boy 'Hooking' Ride Dies Beneath Wheels

Man Struck in Darkness by Car Later Identified

Four persons were killed in automobile accidents occurring in Los Angeles county territory during the last twenty-four hours, according to reports filed at the Sheriff's office yesterday.

J. M. Black died in the Georgia-street Receiving Hospital from injuries received when his motorcycle collided with a truck driven by Edward J. Nusser of 186 East Portieth Place at Aliso and Vignes streets. Black was a motorcycle officer attached to the Los Angeles county motor patrol. He lived at 140 North Sixth street, Montebello.

BOY TRUCK VICTIM

According to Deputy Sheriff A. L. Hutchison, who investigated the case, the accident evidently was unavoidable.

Erling Iverson, 13-year-old son of Dr. M. Iverson of Pomona, was killed almost instantly when he fell beneath the wheels of a truck driven by Orrin Stratton, a neighbor, while trying to steal a ride on the truck. His 10-year-old brother Willard, who also was trying to steal a ride, witnessed the accident. Stratton was exonerated of blame.

MAN IDENTIFIED

The man who was injured fatally when struck by an automobile at Ninth and Bonnie Beach streets Thursday night was identified yesterday, according to Sheriff's office reports, as W. H. Gorham, 63 years of age, of 5409 Tenth avenue, Los Angeles, a stationary engineer for the Union Pacific Railway. Identification was made by Russell Langdon, a fellow-workman.

According to the Sheriff's office, the car which struck Gorham was driven by Oliver Woods of 709 Woods avenue, Montebello. The latter reported the accident immediately and was released after questioning. He stated Gorham had stepped from the shadows directly in front of his car. The victim, it was reported, was blind in his left eye and had a slightly deformed right foot.

YOUTH CRITICALLY HURT

Hurled from a speeding automobile last night, Robert F. White, 19 years of age, of 718 West Fifty-eighth street, received a skull fracture which surgeons at Georgia-street Receiving Hospital said may prove fatal.

The youth was standing on the runningboard of a car driven by B. Bonapartian of 1114 West Thirty-sixth street, delivering newspapers to dealers, when the car, rounding a corner, flung him off on his head.

A backing automobile knocked down and fatally injured Mrs. James E. Macklin, 80-year-old widow, in an alley behind Mrs. Macklin's home at 249 North Euclid avenue, Pasadena, late yesterday.

Mrs. H. W. Obear, 1112 North Lake avenue, driver of the car, was cleared of responsibility for the accident following an investigation by Detective Sergeant Harry Cheek.

Mrs. Macklin received a fractured skull and was taken to the Pasadena Emergency Hospital. She later was removed to the Pasadena Hospital, where she died.

Dr. C. T. Macklin, her son, is a physician at the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md.

BURIAL RITES TODAY FOR SAMUEL PATCHIN

Funeral services for Samuel Clark Patchin, 48 years of age, who died at his home, 1754 North Kenmore avenue, Thursday morning of heart disease, will be conducted today at 2 p.m. from the chapel of Le Roy Bagley, 5440 Hollywood Boulevard. Mr. Patchin, a real estate broker, was a Mason and Shriner. The Knights Templar will be in charge of the services. Besides his widow, Margaret L. Patchin, he leaves his mother, Mrs. J. W. Patchin, and two daughters, Mrs. Virginia Mae Rush and Mrs. Daisy A. Pursell. He was the brother of Paul A., Clyde E. and Laboeier G. Patchin, Mrs. H. G. Boyce, Mrs. Goldie Powis and Mrs. Margaret Hunter. Interment will be in Hollywood Cemetery.

The Lancer

by Harry Carr

THESE low sobs of grief from the savants from the New York museums who were stopped in the act of looting the dinosaur tracks from Tuba City, Ariz.!

It may be true—as they say—that eastern scientific men wish to make a study of these million-year-old relics. If so, the public highway is open to Tuba City, and they can come out to Tuba City every morning and nearly every afternoon and peer at dinosaur tracks until their tortoise-shell glasses wear out.

Meanwhile these footprints should be set aside by the government as a national monument and fenced to keep out pot-hunting tourists.

EL TORO NEGRO

Somewhere in the hills back of San Diego there still remains a herd of the little black cattle brought over by the Spanish conquistadores.

They are principally distinguished by the fact that they do not give any milk to speak of, and have less beef on their bones than a goat. But they were dear to the hearts of the early Spanish pioneers. They were useful for bull fights. This is the breed still used in Spain for fights. They are as quick on their feet as a cat and as full of fight as a pit bulldog.

The cattle now running on the great cattle ranges are a mixture of Durhams, which are good rustlers for feed, and the Guernseys.

SINGLE BLESSEDNESS

In the ancient days of the cow business the objection to the festive cow puncher was his giddy habits. The reason why Americans are not so highly in favor is their propensity to matrimony.

The iron-bound rule is that one woman is just about all a cow ranch can stand; and even this one is a note of harmony only if she is a good cook.

The Indian boys who do most of the herding seem to be permanently heart whole. They remain reconciled to celibacy.

WHAT IS POOR?

I heard a tourist ask if some of these mountain people were very poor! Gosh!

Poor—with these magnificent mountains—a funny old burro for entertainment—enough to eat and a sky spangled with stars so bright that they flash like steel sparks . . .

The only man I pity from the bottom of my heart is the miserable wretch who reads the paper propped up against the sugar bowl; takes car No. 82 downtown every morning; pays installments on a radio; keeps his pants creased; has lunch at Gus's table with the same people every day; goes to the movies Thursday night; to the lodge Friday night . . .

For two horrible years I lived in New York and saw these squirrels in their cages. What shocked me was that they were happy. That was the pitiful part. They had learned to love the cage.

Killick Resigns to Take New Job

Victor Killick, for four years statistician for the Los Angeles county Sheriff's office, has resigned to become chief of the statistical and public relations bureau of the California State Highway Motor Patrol under Supt. Biscailuz, it was announced yesterday. Killick will assume his new duties December 1.

The new appointee has been associated with statistical work in Southern California for nearly ten years. In 1923 he organized the Western Statistical Association and was named its first president.

LARGER COLISEUM URGED

Mayor Porter Gives Views on Early Financing Plans to Provide for Olympic Crowds

Mayor Porter yesterday issued a statement approving the plan to enlarge the Coliseum, hinting that it may be necessary to float a bond issue. The contract under which the city and county will share in the cost of the enlargement enterprise now is before the Finance Committee, already having been approved by the Board of Supervisors. The Mayor's statement is as follows:

"Nothing should stand in the way of civic progress. Modern athletics are distinctly an American institution in Southern California. I have always been a strong believer in amateur athletics as they form an integral part of our daily life.

"The city of Los Angeles, acting as host to the world in 1932, must be in a position properly to accommodate, not only all of the great athletic contenders who will be our guests, but the many thousands of spectators who will also flock here from all over the world.

"It has been proven conclusively that the present Coliseum is not large enough for our local football crowds, let alone the multitude of visitors who will be in our city at the time of the American Olympic.

"Our problem now is a financial one; just what procedure shall we follow to obtain the necessary funds to carry this through to completion? Possibly it may be a bond issue, in which event the people must decide.

"Timely preparation is the essence of success; especially so in this great undertaking which involves a building program. I, personally, would like to see the city and county of Los Angeles do all that they can toward forwarding this program, and will do all in my power to see that the city of Los Angeles does its part in starting immediately the enlargement of the Coliseum.

"JOHN C. PORTER, Mayor."

NEW POLICE BADGES TO BE OF CITRUS FRUIT DESIGNS

The agreement between the Police Commission and Glenn L. Cox, manufacturer, for the production of the new regular police and special police badges which are to replace present badges, January 1, 1930, was signed yesterday by the Police Commissioners.

Due to the fact that the special police badge, star-shaped, is too much like that used by the Sheriff's office, it has been decided to use a round-shaped badge, which has somewhat the appearance of an orange. The regular police badge, referred to as diamond-shaped, is more on the appearance of a lemon. They were designed by Commissioner Drake and for this reason, it is said, each badge will bear his name on the back.

Agreement with Cox, who provides badges for the fire and police departments, is that the dies of the new badges will be copyrighted and will be made only on the order of the Police Commission.

The new badges are to bear replicas of the seal of the city, as formerly.

It is reported that badges of private patrol officers, who obtain permits for such work from the Police Commission, bear the seal of the State. In an opinion of Atty.-Gen. Webb, it is a violation of the law for any other than State officers to use the State seal without permission.

The private patrol officers are to be requested to buy new badges, of the pattern made for special officers, with permission of the commission. They have been warned by the commission that it is against the law for them to use badges with the State seal and it is expected that new badges will be furnished for them as early as possible to prevent them from being prosecuted.

The prices fixed for both regular and special barges is $5 each which must be paid by the user of each.

SIGNAL SYSTEM RETAINED

Council Decides to Keep Bells Downtown and Provides Funds to Aid Co-ordination

Council definitely determined that the downtown business district will continue to have traffic signals with bells and semaphores yesterday when reports of the Traffic and Lighting Committee and the Finance Committee were adopted appropriating $48,750 for the installation of Acme Company signals, the type now in use, at twenty-five intersections.

Recently Council recommended the transfer of $18,000 for the purchase and installation of conduits and cables to create a co-ordinated system in the downtown district.

Many of the intersections designated yesterday are downtown and are for the purpose of filling in corners not now occupied by signals. It was explained that these intersections must be provided with signals in order to inaugurate the co-ordination.

Councilman Davis stated that the cables and conduits now are being laid in the region between San Pedro and Los Angeles streets and north of Pico street.

The reports were adopted unanimously, although there was some discussion.

The intersections designated, which, however, are tentative, are as follows:

Towne avenue at Fifth and Sixth streets.

San Julian street at Sixth, Seventh and Eighth streets.

Maple avenue at Sixth and Tenth streets.

Alameda street at Aliso, Seventh, Third, Ninth, Washington, First, Macy and Second streets, and Vernon avenue.

Pico street at Broadway, Olive street and La Cienega Boulevard.

Selma avenue at Vine street and Cahuenga Boulevard.

Santa Monica Boulevard at Gower and Hoover streets and Wilton Place.

Sunset Boulevard at Gower street

The action of the Council does not affect the status of the Wilshire Boulevard signal system, where a number of organizations are appealing for a different type of signals where traffic is controlled by lights alone, the bells and semaphores being eliminated.

Gunmen Shoot Two Asserted Hijackers Answering Decoy Call for Liquor Deliver

TEN LIE IN WAIT AS CAR ARRIVES

Victims Near Death With Abdominal Wounds

Assailants Make Get-away Ahead of Police

Neighborhood Terrorized by Fusillade

Gunmen late yesterday afternoon shot down two asserted hijackers who were answering a decoy call to deliver liquor to the 100-block on South Gardner street, terrorized the neighborhood and vanished before police arrived.

One wounded man disappeared and the other was found by police as he lay slumped on the porch of a house at 136 South Gardner street. This man, who first called himself James Jennings, and later admitted he is Robert Murphy of 630 Twenty-ninth street, San Francisco, told detectives at Georgia-street Receiving Hospital that he had been shot down while aiding a hijacker named "Big" Dempsey to deliver hijacked liquor. He could not tell who his assailants were, but intimated that they were the bootleggers from whom Murphy said Dempsey had stolen the liquor.

Two hours later police learned that a man calling himself James La Gros had been taken to California Lutheran Hospital in a similarly serious condition, shot in the abdomen. Detectives said that this man was "Big" Dempsey. He said he had shot himself accidentally while cleaning a pistol in his room at 1024 South Flower street. He refused to admit he is Dempsey, but said that his mother lives at 1134 West Tenth street. Detectives were sent to look for his car, in which Murphy said he left Dempsey.

DELIVER LIQUOR

Murphy refused at first to tell anything, but when he realized his condition was desperate, related that he had come here from San Francisco where he had been in the liquor racket. He had been staying at Long Beach and had made the acquaintance of "Big" Dempsey four days ago. Yesterday afternoon, he said, he joined Dempsey in a hired sedan to deliver liquor to an address on South Gardner street.

When they reached the block and had parked the car, a sedan containing eight men, and a roadster with two men drew up. The pair in the roadster jumped out and demanded:

"Have you brought the liquor?"

Upon receiving an affirmative reply the two men shot Dempsey in the abdomen. Murphy ran for shelter on the porch of Mrs. E. O. Beck's home, 136 South Gardner street. He was shot through the back as he ran, the bullet lodging in the abdomen. He collapsed on the porch. Mrs. Beck telephoned for police.

DEMPSEY CALLS DOCTOR

When Detective-Lieutenants Parker and Driscoll of the Wilshire division responded in a fast car, all of the automobiles described had disappeared. It was thought at first that Dempsey had been taken for a ride, but police later decided that he drove off, although wounded, and managed to hide his car.

Murphy was taken to the Receiving Hospital, where a priest gave him last rites. He then was booked on a charge of suspicion of robbery, although he was not expected to live.

While police were searching for Dempsey, Dr. E. Harrison, of 1053 West Sixth street, was called to 1134 West Tenth street, where he found a desperately wounded man. Dr. Harrison called an ambulance and sent the man to California Lutheran Hospital for X-ray and surgery. This man, who called himself La Gros, was shot in the right side of the abdomen. Detectives promptly identified him as Dempsey, who is said to be known in local liquor rings.

HELD AS WITNESS

Detective Lieutenants Reavis and James fingerprinted La Gros and Murphy, and after examining fingerprint records announced that La Gros has no police record, but that Murphy was arrested in San Francisco in 1922 for robbery. La Gros was transferred to Georgia-street Receiving Hospital, and booked as a material witness.

H. C. La Gros, a brother of James, said that his brother was nicknamed "Dempsey" when he was a boxer in Tucson, Ariz., several years ago. H. C. La Gros said that James was discharged Thursday for smoking a cigarette in the Ford plant, where he was employed as a stationary fireman.

'Actor's Liquor Trial Delayed

Trial of Art Acord, film actor, and Mrs. Marian Morrell on charges of liquor possession, was delayed yesterday by Municipal Judge Lahey until December 20, next. The continuance was granted on showing that Vernon Hamilton, defense attorney, is ill in a sanatorium.

Acord and Mrs. Morrell were arrested at 652 North Vermont avenue October 31, last, following a fight with Milton Moore, taxi driver. Hamilton some time ago indicated that Acord will plead guilty and Mrs. Morrell will not change her plea of not guilty when they appear for trial.

PROTESTS TURNED DOWN

The Council yesterday denied all protests against the improvement of Avenue 45 from Frontenac avenue to Glenalbyn Drive, One Hundred and Seventh street from Central avenue to Avalon Boulevard, One Hundred and Fourth street from Central avenue to Avalon Boulevard, and Scranton avenue, which is on Terminal Island between Seaside and Ocean avenues.

CHURCHMAN ON RADIO

Rev. C. E. B. Ward, executive secretary of the League for the American Home, will deliver two radio addresses next week from station KTBI, Thursday at 8:45 a.m. he will speak on "Shall Our Children Grow Up Pagans?" Friday at 1:30 p.m. his topic will be "How One Christian Home Saved 900 Boys."

SUBPOENAS ISSUED FOR PUBLISHERS

Called on to Produce in Court Records of Porter Campaign Advertisements

In an effort to determine who paid for the newspaper and other advertising in favor of Mayor Porter during his two campaigns last spring, Attorney Arthur S. Guerin, acting for H. H. Merrick, who instituted ouster proceedings against the Mayor, yesterday asked for subpoenas for six Los Angeles newspaper publishers and for Alfred Wright, head of the Bauer, Wright & McDonald Advertising Agency.

The subpoenas for the publishers, "duces tecum," demand that the publishers, or a designated agent, bring into Superior Judge Hahn's court next Monday, all copies of their publications containing advertisements asking votes for Mayor Porter, and all book-keeping entries, vouchers, or other records of payment made for such advertising. The Bauer agency is ordered to provide all of its records involving Mayor Porter's advertising accounts.

Mayor Porter is accused of failing to publish the source of money spent for him during his campaign, as required by law. It is asserted by Merrick in his petition that the Mayor spent much money for advertising not accounted for in his statement of campaign expenses.

Superior Judge McComb issued the subpoenas for the newspaper publishers, after at first objecting to the form of the affidavit because it was "too vague." Attorney Guerin redrew the document, and the subpoenas were issued. Judge Hahn, before whom the ouster proceedings will be heard next Monday, issued the subpoena for Mr. Wright.

Dedication Will Attract Forest and Water Men

Forest service officials and local water-conservation groups will participate in the dedication ceremonies for the new dormitory of the Forest Center of the Los Angeles city schools in Angeles National Forest tomorrow, according to Frank A. Bouelle, superintendent of city schools. This project, where school children receive practical training in forest control, is located on the Clear Creek branch of the Big Tujunga River, back of Mt. Lowe.

John Steven McGroarty will be principal speaker.

Extending an invitation to the hiking public, Mr. Bouelle declared that the work of the school children in converting a desert waste into a potentially valuable watershed should receive the interest of all.

The ceremony tomorrow will be held at the old Edison camp on the Vincent-Edison road, a three-mile hike from Hansen's Lodge or Switzer-Land.

RELICS OF PAST UNEARTHED

Olvera-street Excavators Recover Mementos of City's Early Days Near Casa de Adobe

Anno Domini 1847 projected itself into 1929 and the spirits of Stockton, Fremont and Kearny smiled down upon rusted mementos of a golden past when workmen employed in digging up old Olvera street yesterday unearthed relics buried long ago.

Excavating preparatory to converting the historic old lane into a new street which is to be one of the outstanding attractions of Los Angeles, the workmen found a copper powder horn, the bronze butt of an old pistol, a brass spigot from a wine barrel, hand-made nails, a small crockery doll, a brass button bearing the figure of an eagle, a horse-car railway tie, a toy cannon and a large tooth which once did valiant service for a giant.

Five feet beneath the surface the laborers uncovered three 150-gallon tanks of gasoline. The tanks, which looked as if they had been buried for about twenty years, were rusty but intact. In addition the excavators found several pieces of copper ore and sand containing grains of gold—and thereby hangs a tale.

GOLD FIND RECALLED

The sand and ore were discovered on the spot at which, fifty years ago, on New Year's Day, John Shaffer, a member of the City Council, found gold near the Hotel Di Roma. Gold-bearing sand, to the value of $1.25 a shovelful, was taken from the ground and news of the find caused a rush of prospectors to the spot. Many claims were staked out but there is no evidence that the claims ever were worked.

Among those present when the relics were unearthed were Mrs. Christine Sterling, executive secretary of the Plaza de Los Angeles, and Mrs. Virginia Stivers Bartlett, co-author with Lanier Bartlett of "Adios," a story of the early days of California.

RENOVATION UNDER WAY

The Casa de Adobe on Olvera street, built in 1818 and said to be the oldest adobe building in Los Angeles, was used as headquarters of the American Army in 1847. The building is being renovated, repaired and painted and Olvera street is being changed into a charming thoroughfare by the Plaza de Los Angeles Corporation, to which interested citizens have been invited to contribute. The street is to be made into a market place for Mexicans and Indians who will sell curious to residents and visitors. D. W. Longyear has promised to plant palms and other California trees on the borders of the street, according to Mrs. Sterling.

THIRD TRIAL OF OFFICERS STILL IN AIR

Decision Will be Reached December 23 as Result of Asserted New Evidence

Whether Harry M. Hill, Oscar L. Peterson and Leonard F. Sale, police officers, will be tried a third time on a charge of bribery will be decided at a hearing December 23, it was decided yesterday by Superior Judge Wood.

The juries in two previous trials failed to reach an agreement after long deliberation and were discharged. Dep. Dist.-Atty. Dennison, appearing yesterday for the State, asked for the continuance to December 23 on the ground that the State has new evidence.

Hill, Sale and Peterson were indicted by the county grand jury on a charge of accepting a $600 bribe from Harry D. McDonald, reputed bootlegger.

It was reported yesterday that the State has located Gus Pongrats, said to be an important witness and will endeavor to have him testify against the police officers if the court grants a third trial.

COURT ORDERS BAIL OF PAIR FORFEITED

Bail of $50 each, posted by Robert E. Lee and Alma Lee, accused of telling fortunes without a license, was ordered forfeited by Municipal Judge Bullock yesterday, when the couple failed to appear in her court for trial. A bench warrant for their arrest was issued. The two were arrested by Policewoman Mary Ross at 420 South Flower street, after reading the future for her in exchange for $2, according to the complaint.

MOTION TO SUPPRESS EVIDENCE REJECTED

United States District Judge James yesterday denied a motion to suppress certain evidence in the case of Charles and Zelda Brown, accused of violating the Harrison Narcotic Act. The case comes up on Monday to be set for trial.

HYPNOTISM AND LOST LEG FIGURE IN DIVORCE PLEAS

When Mrs. Clara Doreen Phillips lost one of her legs not even her clairvoyant powers could hold her husband's love, she asserted in her suit for separate maintenance against Raymond Ward Phillips, which took her to Superior Judge Schauer's court, and resulted in an order yesterday that Phillips pay his wife $50 a month until the divorce case can be tried.

Phillips, in a suit for divorce he filed, asserted that his wife tried to use her clairvoyant powers to hypnotize him, and "employ the law of suggestion to compel him to commit suicide." The husband, a shell-shocked war veteran, weighing 140 pounds, and suffering from digestive trouble, several times has been "cruelly beaten" by his wife, who not only weighs 190 pounds, he says, but is "strong and powerful, and possessed of a violent temper."

"It is utterly unsafe for the plaintiff to appear anywhere in his wife's vicinity without an adequate guardian," Philips's complaint states.

Mrs. Phillips recently sued Muriel Bermudez, said to be socially prominent in a South American country, demanding $100,000 from the defendant for alienating her husband's affections. On the stand yesterday, she admitted she had practiced clairvoyancy in connection with her husband, but said she did it only in trying to cure him. She said her husband owns a patent valued at $2,000,000, and that he receives an income from it.

Phillips denied his patent is worth anything, and said he supports himself by driving a taxicab.

FORKS DAM SITE DEEMED UNSAFE

Engineer Fowler Reports to County Supervisors

Advises Against Any Type of Concrete Structure

Earth-Rock Fill of Ample Capacity Questioned

Declaring that exploratory tunnels in the west site of the proposed $25,000,000 San Gabriel Dam have disclosed that the bed rock is "badly shaken and fractured, containing many seams either open or filled with soft material," Frederick H. Fowler, consulting engineer, yesterday reported to the Board of Supervisors that the dam site is unsafe for the construction of a concrete gravity dam high enough to develop economic storage.

Mr. Fowler was one of a board of three engineers employed by the Board of Supervisors in 1927 to investigate and report on a flood-control program on the San Gabriel River, including a study of the Forks site. Although the bulk of the report of this board at that time concerned itself with engineering features, some study was given rock conditions at the dam site, based upon observations made in tunnels. This board approved the site for a 385-foot dam on the basis of these observations. Former Chief Engineer Reagan quoted from this same report when he submitted his own report Thursday approving the dam site.

SITE UNSAFE

In his latest report Mr. Fowler states he carefully investigated geological conditions as revealed in new shafts and tunnels sunk after the landslide of September 15, last.

"The Forks site is not safe for construction of the concrete gravity dam now under contract, 492.5 feet high from the foundation bed," says the report. "Neither is this site safe for the construction of a somewhat lower concrete gravity dam, 435.5 feet high from the assumed foundation bed rock.

"The site, in short, is unsafe for the construction of any concrete gravity dam of sufficient height to develop economic storage."

Discussing the alternate proposals of a rock-fill or earth-fill dam, the report sets forth the opinion that no rock-fill dam ever has been constructed that approached the height of even the low concrete dam.

MORE STUDY ADVISED

"Even a rock-fill dam of 300 feet, which is twenty-five feet higher than any ever built, would impound a lake containing only 97,500 acre feet of water, which is only 33 per cent of the 180,000 acre feet that is regarded as the absolute minimum for storage and flood control in the San Gabriel Canyon. If this 300-foot dam is constructed at the Forks site, it is obvious that other dams would have to be built higher in the canyon.

"The maximum height of an earth-fill dam is 250 feet, which would hold only 30,000 feet, or only 17 per cent of the required storage. Neither of this type of dam appears to be attractive."

The Fowler report recommended, however, further exploration of the Forks site, in an attempt to "salvage" some of the construction work already done there. The possibility of an economic rock-fill dam or a combination rock-and-earth-fill dam is admitted, because of the money already spent at the Forks site, which otherwise would be a total loss.

A survey of all possible storage sites for smaller dams in both forks of the San Gabriel Canyon is recommended, and the suggestion made that an entirely new program of construction be adopted.

Fowler's report is the first one of four that have been received by the Board of Supervisors since the landslide which does not approve the Forks site. Three others, favorable to the site, were sent in by J. F. Sally, Andrew C. Lawson and J. W. Reagan.

Final Tributes Paid by Friends to Mrs. Kintner

With the Little Church of the Flowers filled to capacity with the friends who knew and loved her, funeral services for Mrs. Mamie Piaffenberger Kintner, who died Wednesday at Angelus Hospital, were conducted yesterday, with Rev. B. C. Corey and Rev. Carl Ross officiating. Scores of pupils from Lincoln High School, acting as honorary pallbearers, formed a lane through which the flower-covered casket was carried to Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Mr. Ross of Santee and Mr. Corey, assistant pastor of Grand View Mission Church of San Pedro, who many years ago co-operated with Rev. L. C. Piaffenberger, Mrs. Kintner's father, when he was active in ministerial work in San Diego county, spoke feelingly of the spirit of idealism which characterized the life of Mrs. Kintner, dwelling at length on her loyalty and love and her splendid contribution to the educational progress of Southern California.

For many years Mrs. Kintner taught millinery work in various night schools of Los Angeles and five years ago took up high-school work at Lincoln High School.

DAMAGE CLAIM OFFERED

Attorneys for Morris Niemsky yesterday presented to the Council a claim for $20,000 damages as the result of being struck by an automobile of the Bureau of Power and Light. The claim was transmitted to the City Attorney.

ARTIST AND WIFE FIND SUNNY CLIME

Capt. and Mrs. Gilbert T. White

Leaving Paris when a sudden cold snap dropped the temperature down to 38 deg. Capt. Gilbert T. White, American painter, who has been living in France, returned to California yesterday to spend the winter months in Hollywood and Santa Barbara.

Capt. and Mrs. White were escorted through the Christie sound studios yesterday by Miss Pauline Frederick, American actress, who recently visited the Whites in Paris. They were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Al Christie, who also recently returned from the French capital.

Capt. White, who has been living in a chateau near Rouen for some time, this winter will paint in Southern California. His brother is the author, Stewart Edward White.

Husband Gives Up That Role

Hugh A. Oakes admitted on the witness stand that he had outlived his usefulness as the husband of Loraine F. Oakes, and there was on record yesterday a divorce decree granted to him by Superior Judge Schauer.

"She told me I was too old, and too old-fashioned," said Oakes, adding that his wife wouldn't stay home evenings with him, and when she came in, sometimes as late as 3 a.m., she showed evidences of having been drinking.

DINNER TO BE GIVEN GREGG

John R. Gregg, inventor of shorthand writing, will be the guest of honor at a dinner to be given Monday evening in the Elks' Temple, 607 Park View street, under auspices of the Gregg Association of Los Angeles. Shorthand reporters, stenographers, students and their friends have been invited.

Actor Demands Prosecutor Act Against Agent

A dispute between William Catlett, motion-picture and stage actor, and Max Hart, New York-City theatrical agent, concerning a contrac. allowing Hart 10 per cent of Catlett's earnings, yesterday was brought to the attention of the District Attorney's office when the actor demanded a complaint against his representative.

Catlett asserted that Hart has failed to perform the duties set forth in the contract, and also had misrepresented the facts to him at the time it was signed. He charged that although through his own initiative he had obtained employment with the Fox Studio in Los Angeles, Hart came here from New York recently and collected $3700 as his commission on Catlett's earnings.

Dep. Dist.-Atty. Stahlman declined to take action until he obtains further information, including a statement from Hart, who is reported to be in New York.

Radio Industry Offered Advice

Pointing out the ever-increasing need for radio distributors to meet modern merchandising and advertising conditions, Walter M. Fagan, president of Pacific Wholesale, Inc., addressed members of the Los Angeles Advertising Club's round table yesterday noon at the Chamber of Commerce.

"Especially is this true here in Southern California," said Fagan, "for here radio merchandising and advertising present a vastly different problem from those of other sections. We have, for one thing, an all-year market. And our reception conditions are far better than in other communities."

Carl Martin Heintz presided.

DEFENSE FAILS TO BLOCK SUIT

Breakers Club Litigation Scheduled to Proceed

Demurrers in Action to Upset Sale Denied by Court

Case Will Go to Trial on Its Merits at Early Date

Two demurrers in the suit brought to set aside the foreclosure sale of a ninety-nine-year lease involving the property of the Breakers Club at Santa Monica, with an asserted value of $750,000, were denied yesterday by Superior Judge Enge. The case now will be set and go to trial on its merits in the near future.

One of the demurrers was filed by J. P. Keogh, vice-president, and G. B. Colby, assistant trust officer of the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, and the other by the corporation itself, as three of the defendants named in a suit begun by S. W. Briggs and some fifty other plaintiffs who are bondholders of the Breakers Holding Corporation. The other defendants in the action are Frank Fish, Arthur Bard, the Pan-American Bank, E. C. Bowen, Gordon B. Lindsey and the Breakers Holding Corporation.

SECURITY FOR BONDS

The lease, according to the plaintiffs, represented in court by Attorneys John Deferi and Warren Lee Pierson, was held by the Breakers Holding Corporation and given as security for bonds in the sum of $450,000. The corporation used the money raised by the sale of the bonds, along with $300,000 more, it is asserted, to build and improve the property of the Breakers Club.

It further is asserted by the plaintiffs that in spite of the fact they had a bondholders' committee to represent them, that when the corporation defaulted on the payment of the bonds the lease was sold at a foreclosure sale on April 26, last, for the small sum of $35,000. The committee was composed of Gordon B. Lindsey, William E. Mohr, J. M. Newton and E. C. Bowen.

BONDHOLDERS' CLAIM

The property and lease were sold by the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, as trustee, to Frank Fish, one of the heaviest bondholders. The bondholders who filed the suit assert they got nothing out of the sale, besides the amount of money received in the sale was entirely too low considering the value of the lease and the amount of money that had been spent for improving the club property.

In his arguments on the two demurrers, Attorney William E. Himrod contended that so far as the Title Guarantee and Trust Company, as trustee, and its officers, Keogh and Colby, were concerned the foreclosure sale was regular and legal. He held that the corporation defaulted on the bonds, that the bondholders, now the plaintiffs, knew it and that no action was taken until after the sale of the property to Fish who, being one of the heaviest bondholders, purchased the property to protest his interests.

Attorney Himrod also declared that there were no facts to support the assertion of the plaintiffs that there was a conspiracy between the defendants to have Fish buy the club property in at less than its market value. In fact, he stated, there is nothing in the pleadings of the plaintiff that warrants a cause of action.

TURKEY FACTS

Hot, Fall weather makes poor quality, bony turkeys

For this reason, the Southern California market will be flooded with quantities of turkeys of very poor quality, selling from 33c per pound, up. In every instance, the purchaser will get approximately the exact quality he pays for.

Young's finest quality turkeys are raised and specially fattened for us in the cold, crisp, mountain air of Fallon, Nevada, 5,000 feet above sea level, the finest turkey country in the world. We desire to say that these turkeys are the very best that we have ever been privileged to offer to our Thanksgiving trade.

Our price for this fancy grade is 45c for Hen Turkeys, 48c for Toms.

To meet competition, we will also have the best grades of California turkeys possible to be had, at prices ranging from 40c to 45c per pound.

Writ Seeks to Compel Return of Son to Wife

Chester Gury of Long ... couldn't wait for the State Supreme Court to decide whether he or his wife should have the custody of their 5-year-old son David, who on the 8th inst., he says, was in Los Angeles and, according to a complaint filed in the District Court of Appeals, "abducted, kidnaped and carried 'away' the child, while he was in the custody of his mother, Mrs. Zaida Gury.

The complaint forms the basis for a petition for a writ of habeas corpus to compel Gury to produce the child in court. In her petition Mrs. Gury declares she was granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from her husband on July 2, 1929, and was awarded custody of the child.

Gury, the complaint avers, appealed to the Supreme Court against this action of the divorce court and his appeal now is pending. Date for a hearing on the petitions in the Appellate Court has not yet been set.

SOUTHLAND BEAUTY ACCUSES HER AGENT

Nadine Dore

Doc Myers, 3541 West Boulevard, Palms, her agent in selling Prince Regent, a trick pony used in a stage act, held out $50 when he sold the animal, Nadine Dore, Miss Southern California of 1927, complained to Deputy City Prosecutor Chotiner yesterday. Chotiner ordered Myers into his office to explain, setting the hearing for next Friday.

Miss Dore declared that according to her arrangement with Myers he was to keep any sum more than $150 in case he sold the animal. City Public Defender Orfila, who appeared with her, told Chotiner that the pony was sold to J. Wilhoit of Beverly Hills for $250.

SCHOOL GIRL KIDNAPED BY MOTORISTS

Pair Took Her to Shack, She Says, But She Escapes With Torn Clothing

A daylight kidnaping and attempted attack perpetrated within the shadow of the same school Marion Parker was attending when slain by William E. Hickman was being investigated last night by police following a harrowing tale told in vivid detail by Ida Krause, 13 years of age, of 3580 Homeside avenue.

Escorted by her parents the girl appeared at Georgia-street division and stated she had been seized by two men while on her way home from Mt. Vernon Junior High school at Eighth avenue and Washington street. The men were well-dressed Americans about 35 years of age, she said, and drove up alongside her in a blue Hudson sedan. While one grasped her arms the other gagged her with a night dress she had been making as part of her school work; then the pair forced her into their car.

They drove her to a shack in a section of the city she was unable to name. En route one of the men, she said, made advances to her. As they were about to force her into the shack, the girl reported, she struggled with her captors, finally escaping and running to the nearest street car. She arrived at her home about 6 p.m., parts of her clothing torn and dishevelled.

The girl's parents said their daughter had complained several days ago that two men had followed her, as she left the school. Detective Lieutenants Kofard and Mees and Officer Rush are investigating.

Fitts Requests Inquiry on Leak in Parole Case

Stating that he has been informed that Mary Ross, policewoman, is responsible for the parole of May Bishop Tanner becoming public, and thereby has blocked efforts to solve the murder of Dave Antink, witness in a robbery case, Dist.-Atty. Fitts has sent a communication to the Police Commission asking that the matter be investigated, and if found to be true that she be removed from the police department.

The communication to the commissioners states that May Bishop Tanner had but three months more of a sentence for petty theft to serve, and that the reason for the parole was that information of great value in the solution of the Antink killing was to be obtained.

Fitts sets forth that, according to his information, Mary Ross, in a spirit of spite, communicated the facts of the parole to an afternoon newspaper, "which published it for political purposes only, wholly disregarding the object of the parole." Fitts declares that as a result the investigation into the murder has been checkmated and new leads will have to be developed.

The Police Commission is expected to take up the request at its meeting Tuesday.

Man Suspected as Fugitive Held

Police yesterday turned George Butler, alias Bedford De Voe, 38 years of age, over to Federal authorities. It was stated by police that after conviction at Carson City, Nev., on a Mann Act charge Butler slipped out of his handcuffs and escaped while being transported to Leavenworth prison.

This occurred in October, 1927, it was reported. The defendant is being held pending court action here.

BATTLE BEGUN FOR INSURANCE

Four Children and Widow of D. Hagin Seek $2000

Wife by Second Marriage Denies Influence Used

Modern Woodmen Party to Action Over Estate

A court fight over an old man's insurance, a $2000 policy carried in the Modern Woodmen of America, waged between his four surviving children and his widow, a wife by a second marriage, was begun yesterday before Superior Judge Price.

The action, one for declaratory relief, was begun by Alissa L. Collier, Frank G. Hagin, Fred E. Hagin and Edward S. Hagin, children of Daniel Hagin, against Hester I. Hagin, widow, and the Modern Woodmen of America.

PAYMENT REFUSED

The Modern Woodmen of America organization refused to pay the policy when claims for it were made by both the children and the widow. It therefore becomes a defendant in the action and asks in its answer to the suit that the court declare who has the right to the money.

According to the plaintiffs, their father took out the policy in the fraternal order in 1887, making them the beneficiaries. In 1919, they assert, he being a widower of 77 years of age, remarried, his second wife being Hester I. Hagin. Hagin died on December 4, 1928.

ARGUMENTS MADE

The children contend that in 1922, when their father was 82, he was afflicted with a stroke of paralysis and that the whole of his right side was paralyzed until the time of his death.

The plaintiffs further assert that in June, 1928, Hagin, when 86 and assertedly mentally and physically unfit, changed his insurance policy, making his second wife, Mrs. Hester Hagin, the beneficiary.

Mrs. Hagin denies she used any undue influence.

Home Designs on Show Today and Tomorrow

The exhibit of prize-winning designs in the 1929 national better homes architectural competition will be open to the public today from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. and tomorrow afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock. Admission is free.

The exhibit, which is on the main floor of the Architects' Building, Fifth and Figueroa streets, has drawn a great number of people interested in construction of the moderate priced home. Included in the designs shown are the there national prize winners, two of them drawn by local architects, as well as nearly 100 designs awarded honorable mention, and done by architects from all over the United States. There also are a number of the best designs submitted in the regional competition covering California and Nevada, sponsored by The Times.

The Los Angeles Architectural Club has charge of the exhibit and has arranged from time to time to have architects discuss the designs from a technical point of view.

EDUCATIONAL GROUPS WILL HONOR TOUTON

Dr. Frank C. Touton, vice-president of the University of Southern California, will be honored this evening by a banquet given at the Men's University Club by Phi Delta Kappa education fraternity and Pi Lambda Theta, education sorority. Miss Elizabeth Bates, assistant superintendent of the Los Angeles public schools, will introduce the speakers, who will include Frank L. Bouelle, superintendent of schools; John L. Lounsbury, president of the Phi Delta Kappa alumni; Dr. Mildred Struble, professor of comparative literature at S. C.; Thomas M. Riley and Miss Ethel Percy Andrus. Violin and vocal solos by Miss Winifred South and Arthur J. Wickland will feature the musical program.

STAFFORD SENTENCED TO PRISON

El Monte Business Man Gets One to Fifty Years; Appeal Notice Filed

C. C. Stafford, wealthy El Monte grain dealer, convicted two weeks ago of a criminal attack on Rae Schade, his former secretary, yesterday was sentenced by Superior Judge Wilson to serve from one to fifty years in San Quentin. Sentence was imposed after the court denied Stafford's motion for a new trial.

W. J. Ford, attorney for Stafford, immediately filed notice of appeal and obtained a stay of execution which will permit Stafford to remain in County Jail until his appeal is decided.

At the trial of the case, Miss Schade testified Stafford lured her to a cabin in Turnbull Canyon the afternoon of March 23, last, and there forced her to submit to his advances. She declared Stafford took her to the cabin under the pretext that they were going to his Puente office to transact some business.

Stafford's testimony was directly opposite from Miss Schade. He told the jury they went to the cabin at her suggestion and that she offered no resistance to his advances. After leaving the cabin, he said, Miss Schade told him it was going to be an "expensive day" for him.

FIGHT OVER WOLFSKILL FUND ENDS

Trust Company Appointed Administrator After Two Brothers Terminate Row

Dispute between the brothers of Edith Irene Wolfskill, heiress found mysteriously dead in Solano county September 19, last, has been settled, it appeared in Superior Judge Stephens's court yesterday, when a trust company was appointed special administrator of the $500,000 estate.

Ney and Matt Wolfskill, the brothers, were represented in Probate Court at first by different attorneys, Claude A. Shutt for Ney Wolfskill, and Le Compe Davis, for Matt. Judge Stephens was advised, however, that their differences have been settled, and there will be no contest over settling the estate.

Bold Case Goes to Jury Monday

The case of Dr. Francis J. Bold, Whittier physician charged with second-degree murder in connection with the death September 12, last, of Mrs. Carmelita Wilhite, will be placed in the hands of a jury Monday in Superior Judge Wilson's court. It had been planned to give the case to the jury yesterday, but Judge Wilson decided to put it over to Monday owing to the time consumed by counsels' arguments.

Mrs. Wilhite is asserted to have died from the effects of an illegal operation the State charges was performed by Dr. Bold.

Wife of Boxer Given Alimony

Joe Grimm, flyweight boxer, is a "good guy," his wife, Mary Elizabeth Grimm, told Superior Judge Schauer at her alimony hearing yesterday, but he runs around with other women and sometimes forgets to support his family, she said.

She asked alimony for the support of her 7-year-old daughter.

"My husband has just returned from Akron, O., where he got mixed up with another girl, who followed him in an airplane all the way to Oklahoma," Mrs. Grimm said.

The judge ordered Grimm to pay $20 a week alimony.

"SON OF TARZAN" TO START

New Series of Thrilling Adventures Will Open Monday on Comic Page of "Times"

Although the thrilling pictorial adventures of "The Beasts of Tarzan" end today on the comic page of The Times, further nerve-tingling escapades of the ingenious man-beast creation of Edgar Rice Burroughs will be resumed Monday in the exciting tale of "The Son of Tarzan."

This series depicts Tarzan's boy, at 12 years of age, inheriting his father's strength and love of adventure and he will be found fully worthy of his romantic and indomitable sire.

UNUSUAL STORY

The first of the series was "Tarzan of the Apes" and told of Tarzan being left in the dense forests of the African coast when his father and mother, Lord and Lady Greystroke, died after being stranded in the wild ruthless country.

An ape-mother found young Lord Greystroke and raised him. He grew into young manhood among the apes, adopting their cunning and primeval habits, but retaining many human characteristics despite his surroundings.

Tarzan was taken from the country by men with white skins, like himself. In civilization he established his right to his father's title, but abandoned it and returned to his native forests when his love affair with Jane Porter ended in favor of another man.

EXCITING EVENTS

In "The Return of Tarzan" it is disclosed that Tarzan has made an implacable enemy of the Russian, Rokoff, found cheating at cards on the returning boat. In the Golden City of Opar, Tarzan again finds Jane, and, his rival having died, Tarzan marries her. A year later a child is born. In London where the family begins living as Lord and Lady Greystroke, Rokoff kidnaps the mother and child. Tarzan finds the trail and again heads for the jungle.

This highly exciting series dealt with "The Beasts of Tarzan." Lord Greystroke, with his primeval knowledge, befriends Sheeta, the panther, and brings Akut, the leader of the apes, to his service. With them he pursues Rokoff to the death but is faced with an equally vengeful enemy in Paulvitch, Rokoff's accomplice. With Sheeta and the apes Tarzan rescues his wife and child but Paulvitch escapes. Reunited with his family Tarzan returns to London.

MORE ADVENTURE

"The Son of Tarzan," beginning Monday, is as swift moving and thrilling as the preceding series of the pictorial exposition of the widely discussed and translated novels of Mr. Burroughs. The boy, a strong likeness of his father, is fearless and adventurous. His mother, however, fearing that love of primitive excitement will lure him from the solid achievements of comfort and civilization, shields him from knowledge of his father's antecedents.

But Tarzan's sworn enemy, Paulvitch, pursues his evil designs in the boy's life and from them spring the drama and adventures which will be portrayed daily in The Times, beginning Monday.

MISSING GIRL'S TRAIL PICKED UP

Rose Mary Leath, Long Lost, Seen in Tia Juana

Only Former Clew Found Led to Chinatown

Viola Harness Also Sought; Note Hints Elopement

Search for Miss Rose Mary Leath, mysteriously missing for five years, was renewed yesterday when information was given to Captain of Detectives Allen, head of the missing persons bureau, that the girl had been recently seen in Tia Juana. As details involved a man said to have been acquainted with Miss Leath before her disappearance, Capt. Allen declined to make them public, but intimated that action will be taken which may result in locating the missing woman.

ROSE MARY LEATH

Miss Leath left her home at 242 West Eighty-seventh Place on the morning of September 23, 1924, to visit a branch postoffice at Moneta and Florence avenue for her mother, Mrs. Maud Leath. She never returned, it was stated.

She was last seen by a storekeeper near the postoffice, according to police reports, stepping into an automobile. In the car was a young man, reports stated.

About a year ago police reported finding clothes believed to have belonged to the girl in Chinatown. Though the search was renewed then no other trace of the girl was found.

Capt. Allen was also searching yesterday for Miss Viola Nancy Harness, 18, of 2933 South Hope street. Miss Harness left her home last Tuesday, it was stated. She left a note to her parents which read, according to reports; "Dear Mother: Earl found a job and offered me one for life, so I took it. Please don't try to stop us."

—The youth named, Allen said, is Earl Pronencher. The pair were last seen in hiking clothes in a rooming-house at 2004 East Seventh street the day after the girl left home, according to Allen.

EX-JULIAN OIL GROUP WILL MEET

Stockholders of Sunset Pacific Company to Hear Reports of Carnahan

The first annual meeting of the stockholders of the Sunset Pacific Oil Company, reconstructed from the former Julian Petroleum Corporation, for the election of directors and transaction of other business will be conducted December 10 at 10 a.m., in Trinity Auditorium, it was announced yesterday.

Notices of the meeting are being mailed to stockholders, but only those holders of stock at the close of business on the 9th inst., as shown by stock books of the company, will be entitled to vote, according to the announcement.

While H. L. Carnahan, president of the Sunset Pacific Oil Company and formerly one of the receivers for the Julian corporation, is rushing to completion his report for the meeting, balance sheets and operating statements are being prepared for the stockholders and are expected to be mailed next week.

Usury charges against Cecil B. De Mille, film director, in connection with the Julian Petroleum debacle, were continued yesterday by Municipal Judge Pope until March 4, 1930.

De Mille is accused of collecting interest at the rate of more than the legal 12 per cent on a loan to the Julian company before its collapse.

Selph Testifies Dreams Leave Him Abnormal

Herbert H. Selph, oil worker and former border patrol officer, whose sanity is an issue on trial before Superior Judge Wilson, yesterday took the witness stand and sought to establish that he was insane at the time he is asserted to have shot and killed Mrs. Georgia Greggins Bowman, his reputed sweetheart.

Selph was convicted last week of first-degree murder and faces life imprisonment unless he is successful in proving he was insane at the time of the shooting. Selph declared he suffers from dreams which leave him in an abnormal condition.

At the murder trial he testified he was intoxicated at the time and did not know what occurred.

ACTOR FORGETS TRAFFIC TAGS

Court Calls His Attention to Five of Them at $7 Each

Taken into court by police warrant officers Stepin Fetchit, negro film actor, was fined $35 by Municipal Judge Swain yesterday when he pleaded guilty to five traffic violations. All the citations were given him during the last week in October, the records showed.

Fetchit told the judge he has been busy at a film studio and forgot to post bail.

Better decide to have your turkey roasted for you this year by the Rampart Delicatessen, 2614 W. 8th street . . . or, better still, buy one of their already prepared turkeys. They are, oh, so delicious! Phone them right now; the number is DR. 9227.

Why not learn candy making in your leisure time? . . . You know there is a lot of money in it. Now the Liberty Candy & Supply Co. teach chocolate dipping, candy making, cake decorating, et cetera. Their address is 400 Grant Bldg., 355 S. Broadway—their telephone number TUcker 4156. All supplies can be bought in small quantities at special rates.

Let's follow a smooth food to health by using Castruccio Extra Virgin Sublime Olive Oil. Just take a teaspoonful each day to keep the human machine in good running condition and then, too, use it in your salad dressings, Mayonnaise and cooking. Insist upon the Castruccio Brand when ordering.

Your husband and sons would certainly appreciate for Xmas, shirts made to order—Do you know you can order them now and have them put aside until Christmas at A. M. Werner's, the well-known shirtmakers, 111 S. Spring St. (MEt 7560.) Ties, too, may be chosen now at his shop and laid away for the holidays.

Dried celery tops make an excellent flavoring for soups, stews, etc. Save the nice green leaves and dry them in the oven; rub them down to a powder and store in a glass jar with a tight lid.

Perhaps at various times throughout the year you have picked up unframed pictures—intending to have them framed either for yourself or to give away as presents. Then, now is the time to have them framed in the most ultrafashion by Mathews Paint Company's framing department. They carry the most modern moldings I have seen in many a day and the artistic work this department turns out will amaze you—so well is it done. Their framing of Chinese prints, French prints, woodcuts and etchings is lovely beyond words. Won't you let them show you how well they can please? Here are their three addresses: 1245 S. Hill; 1559 N. Vine (Hollywood;) Oak Knoll and Green in Pasadena.

When pots or pans become black on the bottom, set them in a shallow pan in which a teaspoon of soda has been dissolved in a little water; then bring the water to the boiling point and they can be easily cleaned.

Had the idea of serving Mayflower potato chips with your turkey ever occurred to you? A friend of mine tried them instead of the mashed kind and found them ever so good. Why don't you try following this suggestion and see how much trouble you are saved? Remember, won't you, that it is the Mayflower Brand "sold at the better stores," that you must ask for when ordering.

For cleaning finger rings—a hot lather of soap, water and ammonia will clean rings better than anything else; use a small soft brush to remove dirt from the chasing and beneath the stones, taking care not to loosen the stones; dry on a warmed towel and polish with soft cloth.

Here is a recipe that I feel sure all my readers will want. It is a recipe which calls for Guasti Cooking Sherry and you know what that means . . . an absolute guarantee of perfection in the seasoning of your food, for Guasti (pronounced Gwah-stee) Cooking Sherry, gives us in all its perfection by the Italian Vineyard Company speaks for itself and how well it does this you may judge once you try it. The very first use of this adjunct to your kitchen will find you a booster, of that there is not the slightest doubt—so copy this recipe and use it next week:

TURKEY WITH CURRANT JELLY SAUCE

Two tablespoonfuls butter, two tablespoonfuls flour, a few grains of pepper, one cup soup stock (made by cooking in water the bones, skin and trimmings of roast turkey,) one-third cupful currant jelly, two tablespoonfuls of Guasti Cooking Sherry, one tablespoonful lemon juice, six or eight slices of cooked turkey.

Brown butter, stir in flour, pepper and stock gradually. Cook for or five minutes, or until thick and smooth. Add jelly and when it is melted stir in Sherry and lemon juice. Pour sauce over turkey that has been placed in casserole. Cook in oven until turkey is heated thoroughly (six sevings.)

This recipe and many others equally delicious will be found in "Treasured Flavors," the free cook book issued to all who write in to the Italian Vineyard Company, 1245 Palmetto St., Los Angeles.

You can get six sheets of colored Chinese paper for 25 cents at the F. See One's store, 510 North Los Angeles street, Chinatown! This is the home of real Chinese importations, you know.

For the Thanksgiving Day feast you must have nuts—and I know of no finer place to buy them than at the California Nut Store! Then for a sweet after the coffee buy some of those Russian candies imported from Moscow. They are ever so different and perfectly delicious. Just come in, too. The addresses of these stores are Hill street next Warner Bros. Downtown Theater and 504 S. Broadway next the Tower Theater.

To clean an aluminum pan which has become badly burned, pour in a little water and boil an onion in it; the burned matter will rise to the top. Potato peelings boiled in a blackened aluminum pan will also restore its brightness.

The Salvage Department of the Children's Hospital at 712 Maple avenue, will more than appreciate any size bundle you may gather up of old clothing and articles you no longer have any use for. 'Tis a wonderful charity you thus aid so don't forget them, will you? Their phone number is TUcker 1203.

To mend small holes in graniteware, etc., put a little shellac over the hole and burn it in over a fire. For a small hole in granite or aluminum ware, use a dress snap as a rivet; put the ball through the hole and snap on the other part; then rivet it tight with a few taps of a light hammer.

Curtains and draperies reflect your character more than you realize so have your windows well dressed at all times . . . and let the making of these important hangings be done by the West Coast Slip Cover Company, 1423 W. 8th St., whose work needs no introduction, it speaks for itself. One thing you may be sure of . . . you never will have better made or hung draperies and curtains. You may phone them at DR. 6728.

When making chicken soup, try adding a grating of nutmeg just before serving. Add a little minced onion and parsley to cream of potato soup to greatly improve the flavor.

You can't have too many Fluff rugs . . . there is always a place for them, so send your old carpets to the Hoffman Rug Works, 2914 W. Jefferson St. (EMpire 2048) and have as many as possible made. Yes, they make oval colonial rugs from rags.

To remove grease from the top of soup, throw a lettuce leaf in the pot; this will absorb all grease and may then be removed.

Mental Tests Asked in Police Bribe Inquiry

Charges preferred by Lieut. Stevens of the personnel division that Motorcycle Officer Charles W. Leonard accepted a $10 bribe Tuesday night in connection with a traffic arrest were sustained yesterday at a hearing before a police trial board, which recommended that the officer be dismissed.

The recommendation was tempered, however, with the suggestion that Leonard be subjected to a thorough mental examination and that, if found to be incompetent, he be reinstated to await his retirement on pension, December 27, next. In explaining this reservation, Police Captain Hodson, who headed the trial board, pointed out that Leonard has been injured nineteen times during his nearly twenty years of service as an officer; and that his injuries may have rendered him irresponsible.

Leonard was arrested at Venice and Redondo Boulevards as he accepted two marked $5 bills from Carl F. Swanson of 1319 North Stanley avenue, whom he had cited earlier in the day for disregarding a stop signal.

Drinking of Prescription Brings Grief

Legal possession of liquor is converted to illegal possession when it is used as a beverage, according to a decision handed down by Municipal Judge MacCoy in sentencing William Thompson, jeweler, residing at 631 North Rampart Boulevard, to pay a fine of $50 following his conviction on charges of illegal possession of liquor.

Thompson, according to Police Officer Wood, who arrested him at Sunset Boulevard and Alvarado street, was drunk and creating a disturbance. A pint of prescription whisky was found in an inside pocket. Thompson declared he bought the liquor to cure a cold and that he drank half of the contents of the bottle.

Deputy City Prosecutor Kaufman contended that by not following the prescription, which called for four tablespoonfuls daily and by using the whisky for beverage purposes, Thompson converted his legal possession into illegal possession. Judge MacCoy upheld the contention.

Doner Divorce Dropped After Reconciliation

With the request of the law firm of Emme & Rosencrans that the divorce case of Mrs. Peggy Doner vs. Ted Doner, vaudeville and musical-comedy actor, be put off calendar, it became known yesterday that the Doners, whose marital troubles have attracted considerable attention, recently were reconciled.

Mrs. Doner had her husband arrested as he was about to leave California with his 2-year-old child, which, Mrs. Doner said, he had kidnaped from her home in Beverly Hills. Later Doner was discharged, the District Attorney stating that a man cannot be charged with kidnaping his own child.

Two days later the present divorce petition was filed.

BADGE PROTECTION ASKED

The Police Commission yesterday asked the Council to start proceedings for an ordinance which will protect the proposed new police badge which will go into use January 1, 1930.

The action of Judge Dehy at Santa Barbara in reversing his own order of secrecy in the case of Stanley McCormick is in consonance with long-established principles of American law and the settled practice of California courts. Secret proceedings of any sort in connection with the courts should not be tolerated, in the absence of clear proof that the public interest will be served thereby. In the McCormick case there was no assertion that the public interest required secrecy; there was a mere declaration by lawyers that McCormick's mental state might be injuriously affected if he read accounts of the hearing. Since he is under guardianship, it should be easier to censor his reading matter individually than to censor that of the general public.

The California Code of Civil Procedure has two very clear sections stating the principle which should govern. These sections read:

(124.) The sittings of every court of justice shall be public, except as provided in the next section.

(125.) In an action for divorce, criminal conversation, seduction or breach of promise of marriage, the court may direct the trial of any issue of fact joined therein to be private, and may exclude all persons except the officers of the court, the parties, their witnesses and counsel.

These sections were enacted in 1872 and have remained unchanged ever since. It is plain that the McCormick hearing falls into none of these classifications. It is true that another section of the same code, adopted this year, permits certain classes of matters to be heard in chambers, but a hearing in chambers does not necessarily mean that the public shall not know what is going on and most emphatically does not mean that it shall be denied access to the records. When the new section is read in the light of Section 124, it seems difficult to justify the exclusion which was attempted at Santa Barbara and which was in force during the first day's hearing.

A CO-OPERATION PROGRAM

The announcement of President Hoover that the American Federation of Labor, the Railroad Brotherhoods and other labor organizations have agreed to a truce with leaders of industry is of vast potential importance. The truce amounts to an agreement by the union chiefs that their organizations will not press for higher wages for the present or initiate any other disturbing movements, pending wage disputes excepted, and that capital will not initiate wage reductions. In itself it is not far-reaching, but it may mark the first step toward a general program of co-operation which would solve many problems both for labor and for capital.

Henry Ford's announcement of a general increase in the wages in his factories was an addition to the good news. Ford went farther than the other industrialists present. He was able to do so because he already has the co-operation of his working forces. Other industries, not in such favorable position for one reason or another, may not be able to follow his lead at the present time, but if they could count upon not being hampered when they attempt to cut unit costs by increasing production, which would be possible in a co-operation program, they probably could do as well.

President Green of the American Federation of Labor, the only labor leader named in the dispatches, could undoubtedly do a great deal to bring about this co-operation. It would necessitate, to be sure, the abandonment of most of the plans he has advanced during the past two or three years, especially his pet project of putting more men to work by lessening the daily output of each worker, but the logic of events has disposed of these ideas anyway. Certainly Green cannot very well set up Ford as an example to other employers, since Ford has a complete open shop, even on his railroad.

Probably Green, in view of his training and associations, feels he has made a great concession in agreeing to a truce; but he will discover, if he makes efforts to transform that truce into a permanent industrial peace, that the concession has been more beneficial to labor than to capital.

There should be no need for an "industrial truce." The whole idea of industrial warfare is as mistaken as the idea of international warfare—there is no nourishment in it for anybody. Labor is not helped by strikes, contention and disturbance; it is aided by steady work and high production, which make good money wages possible and make those wages go farther.

If President Hoover can convince President Green of these facts permanently, as he seems to have convinced him temporarily, he will have rendered a great service to the nation.

In the conference which preceded these announcements, pledges were given for expansion of activity by the steel industry, by the telephone industry, by the power, gas and other public utility industries, and by the building industries, and maintenance of a high rate of production by the automobile industry also was assured. It was declared that no reductions in working forces are being sanctioned and that retail business is good.

These pledges, coming on top of and reinforcing the pledges already given by the railroads, mean that there will be no business let-down during the year 1930.

THE STATE BUILDING SITE

The Board of Supervisors, in voting for the First and Spring and Court streets site for the projected State Building, have not only selected a location for it that fits better into Civic Center plans, but also have probably saved the taxpayers a good deal of money. Dispatches from Sacramento indicate that the site now chosen will have full approval there, and that building operations will be started as soon as possible after the closing of the deal by the county. The county, according to present plans, will be able to take title within thirty days.

The State has been reluctant to sanction the First and Hill streets site, in fact, practically refused acceptance without the inclusion of the Kimker Building at First and Broadway, and the condemnation of this threatened to bring the total cost of the project up to an unreasonable amount for the purpose.

The site now chosen is much less costly, much less entangled legally and, from a standpoint of location with reference to the present civic center, much more desirable. The decision to make a change is a wise one and the action of the Supervisors will generally be approved.

CLEANER PLAYS

Critics of the drama in New York hint that a great change has come over the place. A year or more ago the only rivalry was in rottenness. The plays were all sexy, erotic or obscene. Broadway was a string of garbage piles. The police would be drafted every day or two to chase out some of the dirt. But now the report is that the new plays are really clean and moral. There are a few musical shows that are a bit naked and naughty, but the dramatic offerings are almost wholesome in their make-up. Last season the plays were so tough that many respectable patrons ceased attending the theater. Business was very bad. Now it remains to be seen what the reaction will be.

TO PARLOR PINKS

What has been called "Execution Week" recently occurred in Russia. Eighty-three times in seven days the firing squads of the soviets barked their salute to the so-called enemies of their regime.

Fourteen soviet officials at Astrakhan stopped the bullets of the firing squad because they encouraged private trading in fish. Their villainy was estimated to have cost the government $4,000,000. A hundred and nine accomplices were sent to prison.

Some fifteen priests and landowners organized a religious society. For this they were drilled full of bullet holes at Rostov.

Fifty rich peasants were accused of opposing the government's grain-collecting campaign. The crime had three angles: first, for failing to sow all their grain; second, for refusing to sell the grain to the government at the price fixed in Moscow; third, for inspiring others to do the same thing.

Not a single person was executed for murder during the period. Indeed, killing is not a capital crime in Russia—unless some government official is slain.

This is the stuff some of the soap-box orators over on Los Angeles street would have us adopt. This is the propaganda we occasionally find circulated in our public schools. This is the sort of idealism for which Miss Whitney and others up in the bay region have been seeking martyrdom.

A sweet system of government!

THE OCTOPUS AND THE EEL
By James J. Montague

An octopus of hideous mein
Abode beneath the tide;
His appetite was large and keen,
And would not be denied.
His tentacles were lithe and strong
And always in high gear,
Each one a writhing sinuous prong
The monster's prey to spear.

He browsed around the coral parks
And through sargasso vales,
To feed on shrimp and seals and sharks
And even smallish whales.
When this great creature raised his head
And bared his fangs to bite,
The battling barracuda fled,
The porpoise paled with fright.

The octopus, when cruising 'round
One day, to seek a meal,
Upon a reef of boulders found
A large electric eel,
Which was not terrified a bit,
But coiled upon a rock,
And there proceeded to emit
A thousand-ampere shock.

You think perhaps the greedy brute
When this he felt and saw
Forthwith abandoned the pursuit
And fled away in awe.
But nothing like that did he do;
He gave a scornful scoff
The while he bit the eel in two
And shut the current off!

DEAR LEE: Here is a new kind of "blues."

I am a football widow, and if you've never met one you've never been around the U.S.C. campus in football season. There are about forty of us whose steady boy friends are heroes of the campus, while we are the loneliest co-eds in school. If we want our boy friends to escort us to sorority affairs we're just out of luck. Training as dictated by the coach requires them to be in bed at 10 every night except Saturday and abstinence from dancing and rich food.

After practicing every afternoon, the football player either has to study or be rubbed with liniment all evening. And Saturday, when he can stay out till 12—"Gee, honey! Don't drive over bumps so fast. I'm sore in every joint," or "Do you mind if we go to the early show? That was a pretty tough game this afternoon."

Then at the games—every time a man is down you writhe in agony till you see what number is missing from the line-up. You sigh with relief when the game is over and he isn't injured. But sometimes he is injured, and then you rush from the Coliseum to the door of the training quarters till some one recognizes you and tells you he's all right.

And your reward for all this? When the train pulls out for an out-of-town game you may stand at the steps of the Pullman and talk to your boy friend till the brakeman calls "All aboard!" And then he hurriedly kisses you, in front of the entire student body and the dean of women!

All the girls in the crowd sigh enviously—except those who were football widows last year, but this year are clinging to the arms of debaters, glee-clubbers or anything but athletes.—Margery Kent.

What Do YOU Know of First Aid?

At the headquarters of the Ourville volunteer fire department last night we were entertained by the antics of one of the many classes in first aid now being conducted throughout Southern California—and all over the country, we believe—by the Red Cross. The course consists of sixteen lessons, and thirty earnest men and women were taking it. They were made to tie bandages on each other, to the injury of numerous permanent waves, and to give each other first aid for all the commoner casualties, such as drowning or suffocation, fractures, snake bite and shock causing unconsciousness. And though all the class members were persons of more than average intelligence, and the volunteer firemen, especially, had learned a good deal about first aid before, there wasn't a man or woman there who did not learn startling things from the Red Cross instructor. They were all simple things, yet every one of them might save a life some day.

The thing which struck us was that instead of thirty there should have been 300 in that class, for there isn't one of us in this wild-driving community who shouldn't know something of first aid. Years ago we saw a little boy carried out of a lake in which he had gone down. No one knew just what to do, so we covered the little body—which seemed lifeless—and sent for a doctor. Had we known even as much of artificial respiration as we learned by watching one lesson last night, we believe we could have saved that little lad's life.

These courses, which the Red Cross makes possible for every community, are well worth everybody's time.

Extra! Water Problem Solved!

Maybe you have noticed, when driving near Huntington Park, some odd-looking apparatus upon top of an oil derrick. It was there for more than a year, though recently it has been taken down. Some of the people of Huntington Park think the man who put it there was just one more cracked inventor. But there are many others who believe that if he only had backing for his ideas California's rain problem would be solved, and rains could be secured whenever needed.

Yesterday William Haight, 729 East Ninetieth street, called on us and told us all about it. Haight is an electrician, and his theory is that there is abundance of moisture in the atmosphere many miles above Southern California at all times, but that most of it is never precipitated because atmospheric conditions close to the earth prevent precipitation. He claims that his small apparatus at Huntington Park created an electrical field approximately one mile across which so diminished the space between the moisture in the upper atmosphere and the effects of his electrical current that he frequently was able to precipitate showers when all the surrounding territory was dry, and that with more adequate equipment he could increase the radius of that electrical field to, say, ten miles.

Haight came to us with an introduction from a well-known scientist—but well known in an entirely different field.

WHAT OTHERS THINK ABOUT IT

MOSQUITO BITES
[New York World]

The male mosquito, according to scientists, or at least according to scientists as they have been quoted in the newspapers, does not bite, not being equipped with any apparatus suitable for sucking blood. And this is certainly a useless piece of information, for not many of us could tell a male from a female. What we would like to know is what mosquitoes suck when they are not sucking blood.

Their natural habitat, the place, that is, where they breed in large numbers, is the kind of marsh found in New Jersey, Delaware and the eastern shore of Maryland. Here they flourish by the millions, so that if you venture near them you are almost taking your life in your hands. Yet certainly nothing with blood in it lives in a marsh.

It seems possible to us that mosquitoes bite human beings by mistake and that their meal of blood gives them indigestion. It would be interesting to have light on this subject. Perhaps, when the data are all in, it will be practicable to set out a dish of the mosquito's natural food just before we turn out the light and then go to sleep in peace.

HOW TO TELL GOOD BOOKS
[New York Herald-Tribune]

One of the great recurrent mysteries which none of the experts and statisticians has begun to solve is the question, Why do books sell? Many a best seller has behind it a record of rejections by publishers who saw no sales possibilities in it; and the booksellers are flittered with what seemed to be sure-fire hits which, as it turned out, the public refused to read. And now Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, on her way to Hollywood to act as liaison officer for the women's clubs and the motion-picture industry, boldly asserts that "no classic has ever been a classic by anything but the taste of the common people; no work of art has ever been perpetuated by the judgment of highbrows."

Certainly the critics can be counted upon to come around to liking anything which the public continues to adore. They discover profound wisdom in the perennial comic strips and philosophy in pugilists.

Yet there are John Donnes and Thomas Love Peacocks and others in other literatures who, never popular, remain aristocratic classics for the few through changing literary styles and seasons. Cabell, in our own day, is a writer highly prized, whose only mass popularity was due to a censor's absurdity. Highbrows may not dictate their reading to the millions; but there are highbrow critics whose judgments stand the test of time. Mrs. Winter is right, of course, when she says that a classic is a classic precisely because it meets the taste of the common people over a long period of time; but sometimes the highbrow of today is nearer the judgment of the mass tomorrow than is the mass today.

Favors Check Dams

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In a recent issue of the Los Angeles Times there appeared a statement by Mr. F. H. Olmstead pertaining to the desirability of establishing an elaborate system of check dams to control and conserve the flood waters in San Gabriel Canyon.

I think Mr. Olmstead's suggestion at this time is opportune, but the check dams must be confined to the smaller side canyons which feed the main outlet, thereby allowing a slower seepage which will tend to reduce the silting up of storage dams.

The $25,000,000 available for the San Gabriel high dam would be ample to check dam every lateral canyon leading into the San Gabriel and build at least six storage dams at different points along the main canyon and would also provide funds to reforest along and behind the check dams. It seems to me that with the well-organized department of forestry working in co-operation with the flood-control engineer a practical, safe and sensible plan of flood control could be worked out and one which would add to the beauty of the canyons and be of real value to the agricultural interests in the valleys.

Disregard of Signals

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 20.—[To the Editor of The Times:] From time to time I have noted in your editorial page references to the type of automatic signals and intimating that new signals should replace those now in use.

Every motorist knows of the growing disregard for such signals and apparently the moment is almost at hand when such signals, unless sustained by an officer, will cease to have any meaning.

At present bell jumping, running against signals and passing at corners are so common that one who trusts in the other fellow's sense of obedience is apt to be crashed.

It's wonderful to talk of new signals, but if the corners where signals are installed could secure the attention that a traffic officer commands, it would make driving much safer and much more pleasant.

More Car Complaints Heard

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 19.—[To the Editor of The Times:] A word more with reference to the street-car service. I am one with our friend of Highland Park. I am paying between 33 and 34 a week to that company. When the fare was raised I looked for better service. It never came. Why cannot we have a double train at least from 4 to 7? If not that, let us have a trailer. The service is inadequate at all times of the day, but especially in the evening.

My husband complains of women taking possession of the front part of the cars, excluding men from the privilege of having a smoke. They have all the rest of the car to sit in, why cannot they stay in their own place, unless they want to smoke too. Probably the best way out is to bring back the jitneys. Then we can take our choice and anyway have a seat.

WHERE CAN I LEARN

Bookbinding?

BY LOUISE L. TEMPLE

[Prepared in co-operation with the Los Angeles evening high schools. Questions concerning free evening classes will be answered if stamped addressed envelope is inclosed. Address Louise L. Temple, care of The Times.]

In the book-binding class at Manual Arts Evening High School, Forty-second and Vermont, there are two distinct groups of students: those preparing to enter the trade and those taking up art-leather work as an individual pastime or hobby.

In the trade study group, all material is furnished free by the Board of Education and students work on folders, finishing, library and pamphlet binding and other jobs usually found in bindery shops.

In the art leather group students work on tooling and dyeing of purses, binding their own volumes of books and magazines and any individual interests that call for artistic handling of leather. In this group, all materials are furnished by the students and all articles made are the property of the students and may be taken home.

Instruction in both of these classes is absolutely free to people of all ages and they will receive expert training under William H. Reeder, who conducted a private bindery in Colorado before coming to California.

Colds Are Almost Unknown

The natives of the Far North are not subject to colds and the malady is unknown to them until they are brought in contact with the visitors from the southern countries, but even then they soon recover and are not likely to have a recurrence until they have been exposed to a new strain of germs brought to them by another set of visitors. Likewise scarlet fever and diphtheria are rare among the northerners. Residents of the Fiji Islands were introduced to measles by a white man. The outbreak was very violent, although they had never experienced it before.

FATHER'S TURN NOW

BY ALMA WHITAKER

Quite a novel idea, that. At the Presbyterian conclave last week it was proclaimed that:

"The church has begun to realize that the monopoly of religion by women must cease and Christian men must take an active, positive stand in moral matters if our civilization is to stand."

It's almost reactionary, isn't it? Women, you know, have formed 90 per cent of church congregations for so long, that we didn't quite realize religion was open to both sexes.

Then again those stories, plays, news items of the last few generations which rather give the impression that it is quite awful when father is sternly religious . . . most unnatural and all that.

Whereas, of course, through the centuries it has been agreed that all nice females were religious . . . and mamma and the girls have been doing all the church going for the family for ages now.

However, it seems that the ministers have agreed that this arrangement hasn't worked. The only thing that can possibly save civilization now is for father to begin going to church again and being a strong, good, moral influence in the family. When mamma exercised all the moral influence there was, flappers cropped up. And when flappers cropped up, it was all mamma's fault. This has made mamma feel very uncomfortable for years . . . even if she did continue to go to church when her skirts went short and her hair got cropped . . . for that 90 per cent women in the congregations are not necessarily dowds, you understand. She has suspected for some time now that papa should come in on the moral influence and help save civilization.

In the very same week a college dean confesses some painful things about fathers in the Saturday Evening Post. His opinion of fathers is about what St. Paul's opinion was about women . . . not at all complimentary. It's quite a pleasant change after the "What-are-the-mothers-thinking-of . . . era." We are rather glad it's dad's turn for a change.

But there is this to remember . . . when men do get religion they take it frightfully hard and get violently reformative. We really might never have had a flapper era if the 90 per cent congregations had been fathers . . . and civilization might have been saved generations ago.

Anyway, we women have got all worn out trying to save civilization and be the lone moral influences. We have suspected for a long time that if only the boys were good, the girls would just naturally be good anyway. Of course, it's a system that has never been tried, but it might work. Anyway, we have almost proved that female moral influence lacks something or other somewhere.

Go to it, dad, dear, take your turn at saving civilization. The Pilgrim Fathers did rather well in their day . . . or anyway, the newspapers were less informative than they are now.

Still, I would like to point out that most of the pastors . . . at least 99 per cent . . . have always been men. That's a point to be taken into consideration. And . . . well, Aimee does have a larger masculine congregation than any other church in town. But, of course, that probably doesn't prove a thing.

RUSSIAN DIVORCE

BY SUZANNE PENKOFF

Fitting the bill to the size of the purse is the new policy of the soviet government in regard to marriage and divorce. One who is a good proletarian, earning less than $35 a month, can get married for nothing and divorced for next to nothing. Not only have they cut the time down to just enough to let the ink dry on the register, in the case of a divorce, but they have whittled the minimum fee down to a mere two-bits.

As one goes up in the financial scale the price of a divorce ranges upward to as high as $3. Those who had the bad luck to belong to the aristocracy of the old regime are discriminated against to the extent of paying $4. In Moscow last year the number of divorces exactly equaled the number of marriages, showing that nearly everyone sooner or later took advantage of the bargain rates in divorces.

The male of the species must pay alimony, however. A Communistic lady with no offspring cannot lay claim to any, but if she is blessed with a child she is awarded a third of the husband's income, and each new marriage that results in a child and divorce brings her an equal amount. Naturally, there is some incentive for a woman to keep on marrying under such a scheme, especially as the new state apartment-houses all have nurseries up on top, where milady can park her offspring during the day while she is out spending the alimony. But it is hard on the man. Three marriages and three successive children would see him nicked of 90 per cent of his earnings and living on 10 per cent of a soviet salary would be no mean achievement.

PASTOR TO HAIL CANADIANS

Dr. Helms Will Speak at Homecoming Service; Other Events for Tomorrow Announced

Thousands of former Canadians who now are living in Los Angeles, together with other thousands of visitors to the city, are planning for their annual homecoming welcome service to be conducted tomorrow evening at First Methodist Church. A program of special music, featuring Canadian, English and American numbers will be given by the Methodist Church choir and other selections will be rendered by the Canadian-American chorus.

The service will be featured by addresses by Mayor Porter and Godfrey Fisher, H. B. M., Consul-General of Great Britain, and a sermon on "The Gospel as Gotten from Canada and Canadians," by Dr. E. Z. Helms. A program of patriotic music will be given by the firemen's band beginning at 6:30 p.m. At the morning hour Dr. Helms will preach a Thanksgiving sermon on the topic, "How Big Is Your World?"

DR. FRANK DYER

The first public meeting in Los Angeles of the new American National Church, of which Dr. Frank Dyer is preaching dean, will be

CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES

Every Tuesday and Friday at 2 o'clock Mrs. A. L. Wyman will conduct a free class and demonstration of good cookery in the lecture room of the Southwest Building, 130 South Broadway.

FRUIT SALAD DRESSING

Mix four tablespoonfuls of sugar with one tablespoonful of flour, one-quarter of a teaspoonful of salt, four tablespoonfuls of orange juice, four tablespoonfuls of lemon juice, and four tablespoonfuls of pineapple juice, three tablespoonfuls of water and the well-beaten yolks of two eggs, beat hard for five minutes, pour into a double boiler and stir and cook until creamy. Remove from the fire, and allow to chill, just before serving, beat in half a cupful of whipped cream.

ABALONE CHOWDER

Cut the abalone into strips, and run it through the fine knife of the meat grinder, there should be three cupfuls, cover it with cold water, and bring slowly to a boil, and allow to simmer for twenty minutes. Place in an iron pot, one cupful of dived salt pork, heat it, and add two medium-sized onions chopped fine, and cook until the onion is a light golden color. Add to this mixture four cupfuls of hot milk, the cooked abalone and the water it is cooked in and four broken crackers and a seasoning of salt, pepper, two teaspoonfuls of finely chopped parsley. Simmer for five minutes and serve.

STEAMED BRAN PUDDING

Melt three tablespoonfuls of shortening with half a cupful of molasses, add to it one well-beaten egg and a half a cupful of milk. Sift one cupful of flour with half a teaspoonful of soda, and add to the first mixture, with one cupful of bran and one cupful of finely chopped dried figs. Mix well, fill buttered custard cups half full of the mixture, place in a pan containing hot water, and bake slowly until firm. Serve with a lemon sauce.

LEMON SAUCE

Mix six tablespoonfuls of cornstarch with one cupful of sugar, and stir into it two cupfuls of boiling water, cook and stir until thick, add the grated rind of one lemon, one-fourth of a cupful of lemon juice and one tablespoonful of butter.

APPLE AND CRANBERRY PIE

Peel, core and slice firm tart cooking apples, line a deep pie tin with a good pastry, cover the bottom with a layer of the diced apples, cover the apples with a layer of washed cranberries and sprinkle with four tablespoonfuls of sugar and two tablespoonfuls of water. Continue this method until the dish is filled. Dot the top with bits of butter. Cover with a piece of pastry and bake in a moderate oven for forty-five minutes. Serve with a cold custard.

Mrs. Wyman does not reply to letters, but requests for recipes are answered in the department, "PRACTICAL RECIPES," published every Friday.—(All rights to reproduce reserved by A. L. Wyman.)

Your Baby and Mine

by MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope, forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from a week to 5 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, stomach upsets for the new baby sleeping, walking, teething, thumb sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training to cleanly habits, periods of nursing, and liver oil, orange juice, tiny worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, stves and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

THERE AREN'T ANY RUBBER-STAMP BABIES!

Every mother has a right to hope for and expect an ideal baby. The kind which smiles from the pages of advertisements is constantly referred to in the baby book as the "average" baby. These babies sleep from one feeding to the next without waking. They cry just a little bit "for exercise." Their food never gives them a pain, or if it does it is easily diagnosed as a pain and not "being spoiled." Oh, these baby-book infants!

But a mother finds after one week in baby's company that having fulfilled all her obligations to keep baby dry and comfortable and handle him only when changing him and to let him cry rather than be accustomed to being taken up when he cries, that there are days, and hours when all of these things do not bring the promised results and baby screams when he should be sleeping and sleeps when he should be eating. Ah, me! That is what makes being a mother of any baby such an interesting job. There just aren't any rubber-stamp babies. So this optimistic letter causes us to chuckle just a bit.

From Mrs. E.R.L.

"We are expecting our baby the middle of May. What kind of shirts shall I prepare, part wool and cotton, or all wool?

"I have planned a large, rectangular clothes basket, to be lined simply, for cleanliness sake, and mounted on a child's coaster wagon with sides removed. This can be wheeled from room to room. What do you think of this improvised crib?

"I hope to be able to nurse baby nine months. Shall he be weaned to a bottle then? Another thing I won't consent to a pacifier. And not even the parents are to pick baby up after he is comfortable and should be off to dreamland. If he has no pains he can cry a little. If he oversleeps the next period, shall I waken him?"

Answer

I applaud your ideals . . . but don't hew too closely to any line of conduct. There may be times when you won't know whether it is a pain or hunger or what is causing baby to cry. Keep right on with regular habits but don't make a fetish of letting baby "cry it out."

We offer our readers a leaflet on "Information for the Prospective Mother" for the usual self-addressed and stamped envelope, which gives a layet for babies born in winter or summer, and also the necessities for the nursery. I believe you would find this valuable.

Clever as is the coaster idea, the basket alone is enough, for there would be a constant temptation to wheel the baby to sleep and baskets can be so easily carried from room to room. Given a cup early in life babies can be weaned at nine months to a cup, otherwise a bottle would have to be used. If baby is to be kept to regular hours he ought to be awakened at the nursing period. Sometimes it comes about that it is advisable to let him sleep if he has cried for an hour after being nursed. As for pacifiers such habits are the fault of the parent. Smart as our babies are, they can't demand a pacifier if they never had one.

WHEN THE SANDMAN COMES

by THORTON W. BURGESS

Carrying Unc' Billy Possum, Farmer Brown's Boy started back for the barn.

watch. But the hens are hungry. So am I. So I think we'll take you along with us and try our little experiment by and by."

Carrying Unc' Billy Possum by the tail, Farmer Brown's boy started back for the barn to get some grain for the hens. Bowser trotted at his heels and Flip danced and pranced and jumped about him barking, for he was very much excited. So it was that they reached the barn. Farmer Brown's boy looked around for a box into which to put Unc' Billy. A box was on top of a barrel. Farmer Brown's boy laid Unc' Billy Possum on the head of another barrel standing alongside. Unc' Billy lay there perfectly limp. He certainly did look dead. Farmer Brown's boy lifted the box down. As he did so, Unc' Billy seemed to just slip over back of the two barrels. Farmer Brown's boy was so intent on his box that he didn't notice what Unc' Billy had done. When he turned to look for Unc' Billy he wasn't there.

Farmer Brown's boy hastily looked around. Unc' Billy wasn't to be seen. Meanwhile Flip was barking excitedly and trying to force his way behind the two barrels. That told Farmer Brown's boy what he wanted to know.

"So, that's where you've gone!" he exclaimed. "Well, we'll soon get you out of there."

He took hold of one of the barrels and rolled it to one side. There was no Unc' Billy to be seen. But there was a hole in the floor. Farmer Brown's boy remembered then that that hole behind the two barrels had been there for some time. He had intended to fix it long ago. Unc' Billy Possum had just slipped through that hole and down under the barn. Farmer Brown's boy ran out the back way and called Flip. There was an opening under the barn there. He sent Flip in to drive Unc' Billy Possum out. He could hear Flip barking excitedly underneath, but Unc' Billy didn't come out.

It was getting late and Farmer Brown's boy had to go to feed the hens. Then he had to go in to breakfast. Flip was still under the barn, so Farmer Brown's boy knew that Unc' Billy Possum was also still under the barn. When he came out after breakfast he could hear the muffled barking of Flip. If he could have seen underneath there, he would have discovered that Unc' Billy had climbed up on a beam, beyond the reach of Flip, and there was making himself very comfortable while he grinned down at Flip.

He had been very cunning. Yes, sir, he had been very cunning, had Unc' Billy Possum. He had watched for his chance and he had taken it. He wasn't out of his troubles yet, but he wasn't a prisoner, and that was something.

NAVAJOS TO BE TOPIC FOR TALK TOMORROW

Navajo Indians, famous the world over for their blankets, will be the subject of a lecture to be delivered at 3 p.m. tomorrow as one of a series by Charles Amsden, curator of the Southwest Museum, opposite Sycamore Grove Park. The lecture will be illustrated by photographs from the collection of the late Dr. Charles F. Lummis and George Wharton James. Little is known of the Navajos because they were nomads who left but few remains for examination by archeologists. They are believed to have been found by the Spaniards when the latter invaded the Southwest 300 years ago; but the first official contact with them was in 1850, when American soldiers took possession of their territory.

PASTOR TO HAIL CANADIANS

Courts Award More Each Time Playground Board Tries to Get Hold of Lot

Efforts to acquire a sixty-foot lot which is the private property of Charles Lantz, located in one side of the Evergreen Playground, have been shelved for an indefinite period by the Playground and Recreation Commission, which finds that the more it tries to obtain the property the higher the price is fixed by the courts.

When the property first was obtained for the playground, Lantz fixed a price of $6000. There was some question as to the validity of the title and the commission instituted condemnation and quiet title proceedings. The court fixed the price as $11,400. This was considered too high and the matter was dropped.

Two years afterward another condemnation suit was started and the latest award of the court is $14,000.

Redlands Co-ed Wins First in Speech Contest

Winning first place last night in the annual extemporaneous speaking contest for women of Southern California colleges, Blossom Mills of Redlands College spoke on "Fascism in Italy." The contest was held at the University of California at Los Angeles, and the four entrants had only one hour to prepare on the topics assigned. The silver trophy awarded Miss Mills will remain in her possession for one year.

Opal Kuns of La Verne College spoke on "Program of Farm Relief;" Betty Drummond of Pomona College spoke on "Naval Disarmament," and Blanche Cohen of U.C.L.A. spoke on "Professionalism in College Athletics." Miss Mills is a sophomore, a member of the debating squad, and a member of Pi Kappa Delta.

Tailor Dying of Revolver Wound

William J. Wright, 45-year-old tailor, was in a dying condition at Georgia-street Receiving Hospital last night after he is reported by police to have shot himself in the head with a revolver at his home, 10505 South Main street.

Detective Lieutenant Mosena of Seventy-seventh street division reported that Wright is single and that he has been in ill-health recently.

BATTLE PARTICIPANT IN CRITICAL CONDITION

With his skull fractured during a fight, Thomas F. Henry, 27 years of age, of 510 1-2 South Main street, was taken last night to Georgia-street Receiving Hospital from 588 Crocker street. Surgeons said that his condition was critical. Detective Lieutenant Stevens of the homicide squad, went to the Crocker-street address, which he reported to be a speakeasy, and arrested Frank Miller, the asserted proprietor. Miller was booked at Georgia-street Police Station on charges of suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon, and of Wright Act possession.

AIRPLANE NEWS EXCHANGE

(Not all the interesting and out-of-the-ordinary news of the day finds a place on crowding wires or wires. Every evening The Times condenses a news exchange by airplane. By Western Air Express, T.A.T. and Standard Line papers of current and other date from pivotal cities are received. Washington, D. C., constitutes the Sun only two days from the press; Indianapolis and Chicago, alternate hours; Kansas City, Salt Lake City and Phoenix are but halfway 'round the clock. Today's gleanings range in subject from an account of how authorism in Washington, D. C., are attempting to induce wild ducks to use the Tidal Basin, to the report of how a Kansas City baby bit a dog.)

DUCKS WANTED

Washington (D. C.) Star, Nov. 20.

The Tidal Basin is to be used as the laboratory for an interesting experiment this fall, for officials of the office of Public Buildings and Public Parks propose to endeavor to have wild ducks that will soon be coming south, spend the winter in Washington. Decoys are ready for use as soon as the migration starts and will be placed in the Tidal Basin in an effort to bring the wild birds down.

Food, mainly corn, is being prepared and will be placed in the Tidal Basin to attract the birds. Ramps have been constructed for the convenience of the wild ducks. Wild ducks in great numbers visit the marshes of the Potomac and the officials believe that if they can be induced to feed in the Tidal Basin, they will prove an added attraction for Washington's parks during the dull winter season.

AND BUCKWHEAT CAKES

Kansas City Times, Nov. 22.

We had an inquiry a few days ago from a man in Illinois who desired to get in connection with someone who makes old-time Missouri sorghum. The individual who, as a boy or girl, spent long evenings in the fall of the year around a cane mill and breathed the odor from the pile of pummies, crushed cane stalks, that had passed through the mill, and with a wooden paddle scraped the sorghum pan and ate the scrapings, will never forget what old-time Missouri sorghum is.

NO EARS IN LOT

Salt Lake Tribune, Nov. 22.

Utah, this year, has shipped 174 cars of cauliflower, 106 cars of cabbage and ninety-six cars of mixed vegetabes.

ARE TIRES GOOD?

Albuquerque Journal, Nov. 22.

Diamond Joe says he hid a $50,000 diamond necklace in a tin can at Gallup. If there are as many tin cans at Gallup as there are here it's going to take a darned long time to find that necklace.

GHOST WALKS

Chicago Tribune, Nov. 21.

While Tony Ruesk was firing a furnace in the basement of an apartment building yesterday, a masked figure appeared suddenly and silently beside him. The flickering fire gave the figure a ghostly air and Tony was undecided whether it was a wraith or a human being.

He pondered a while upon the proper procedure and decided that if the figure were human he would crack it with his shovel.

But before he could carry out his annihilatory intentions the figure spoke. "Give me your dough," it said. Too startled to wield his shovel, Tony handed over his $5 and the figure vanished as suddenly as it had appeared.

Wife Astray on Pilgrimage to Holy Land

Romance that blossomed at Angelus Temple lay withered in divorce court yesterday when Superior Judge Archbald granted a decree to John A. Grahl, who told the court he had met his wife, Mary Grahl, at a temple service.

"My wife spent all her time attending to temple affairs and I had to stay at home and do the washing," Sparks testified. "But that wasn't the worst of it. She got me to borrow $400 for a pilgrimage to the Holy Land and started out. She got as far as Sparks, Nev., and there I found her in an auto camp with another man. She told me she was going to marry him as soon as he could get his divorce and mine."

The couple were married April 21, last, and separated June 11.

WHISTLING PROTESTED

A complaint of the noise made by trolleys whistling when they approach the intersection of Redondo and San Vicente boulevards was filed with the Council yesterday by Anna S. Cederlind. It was referred to the Board of Public Utilities and Transportation.

TIFFANY-STAHL SECURES CLIVE

English Footlight Star to Play in "Journey's End;" Young Stage Persons With Moran and Mack; First National Signs New Film Leads

BY GRACE KINGSLEY

Seldom, indeed, does it happen that the stage star appearing in a play can at once be secured for the talking screen version. But this is the luck which has befallen Tiffany-Stahl.

At last the suspense is ended and we know who will play the lead, namely the role of Capt. Stanhope, in Tiffany-Stahl's talking version of that remarkable war play, "Journey's End," which has been winning plaudits on the stage in London and New York.

No more suitable player could possibly be found than the one engaged, since he is the very actor who is now portraying the role in London, Colin Clive, noted English player.

Although "Journey's End" is still playing to packed houses at the Prince of Wales Theater in London and will doubtless continue for another year or more, Maurice Brown, London producer, generously permitted one of his chief drawing cards to come to Hollywood long enough to appear in the screen version of the play.

Clive sailed this week on the Homeric and will arrive here within ten days.

James Whale will direct from the adaptation by Joseph March. Other principals in the cast will include Ian Maclaren, David Manners, Anthony Bushell, Charles Gerrard, Billy Bevan, Robert A'Dair, Thomas Whiteley, Jack Pitcairn, Warner Klinger and Leslie Sketchley.

Fifi D'Orsay to Travel

Fifi D'Orsay isn't going to let any shekels get away from her, even if she has an artistic soul. While waiting for the beginning of her next Fox picture, she is going to earn a little pin money by going out on the Loew time for four weeks. She opens at the local Loew's next week in a singing act.

ROMANTIC PAIR ARE SELECTED BY LASKY

Funny as the Two Black Crows, Moran and Mack, may be, there's no denying that six reels of fun without what the producers love to call heart interest wouldn't have the chance to make a hit that such a film, plus romance, would have.

JOAN PEERS

Therefore Paramount officials have chosen two of the most delightful young players on the New York stage to provide romance for Moran and Mack's next film, "The Two Black Crows in the A.E.F."

These players are Joan Peers and Henry Wadsworth.

Wadsworth came to Hollywood from New York a week ago to play a juvenile role in Evelyn Brent's next starring vehicle.

Miss Peers is now on her way from New York to Hollywood.

"Applause," which featured Helen Morgan, was produced at Paramount's Long Island studios and was the first screen appearance for the two young stage players.

Although only 18, Miss Peers has been on the stage since she was 2½ years of age. She played the child role in "Trouble" in Mme. Miura's presentation of "Madame Butterfly" in Chicago, and when only 9 she toured the country with Guy Bates Post as the child in "The Masquerader." When a child she was solo dancer for the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. After appearing in stock she had the leading role in the Chicago presentation of "Companionate Marriage" and went to New York for the ingenue role in "Marry the Man."

While no definite announcement is made, it is understood that Miss Peers is slated for a long-term contract with Paramount.

Lila Lee and Monte Blue

"His Woman" is the alluring title of a story written by the clever Joe Jackson, and to be produced by First National.

LILA LEE

Hal Wallis let us in on that fact yesterday, and also announced that the leads in the picture will be Lila Lee and Monte Blue.

William Beaudine, who comes fresh and supposedly rested from his European trip, will direct the picture.

Monte Blue has been ill a long time, and this will be his first role since his recovery.

"His Woman" is to be a special feature, and will be made in Technicolor.

Sally Starr With Columbia

That charming young actress, Sally Starr, Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer find, is to have a fine opportunity to display her acting talents.

SALLY STARR

Miss Starr, we hear, has been signed by Columbia to portray the leading feminine role in "For Love of Lil."

The picture is to be one of the special Columbia features, and a notable cast will play in support of Miss Starr. The young actress recently completed a feature part in "So This Is College" for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

Harry Gribbon's Next

While Harry Gribbon's next Sennett comedy hasn't been panned, we saw him yesterday all dolled up in the garments of a gob, and were assured that our suspicions were right, and that he is to appear in a sea story.

That clever little English comedienne, Daphne Pollard, will be his leading lady, and no less a personage than Mack Sennett himself will direct. Andy Clyde again has a featured role.

IMPROVEMENT SOUGHT

The Elysian Heights Improvement Association yesterday asked the Council to make an investigation looking toward the widening and improving of Chavez Ravine Road. This was referred to the City Engineer and Public Works Committee.

STAGE BID BY PRINGLE GIRL DENIED

District Attorney's Office Hits Reports Concerning Pantages Accuser

Eunice Pringle, 17-year-old accuser of Alexander Pantages, who was convicted of assaulting her, is not making an attempt to obtain a theatrical contract, it was stated at the District Attorney's office yesterday.

The information was made public following an investigation conducted by Dep. Dist.-Atty. David Coleman.

Lou M. Houseman, booking agent, was among the first persons questioned. He stated that two men had come to him stating that they were authorized agents for Miss Pringle and wished to obtain a contract for her. He denied that he had sought the girl's services or represented her.

Bern Bernard, Orpheum booking agent; Harry Weber, a Hollywood booking agent; William Meiklejohn, production manager of the Pom Pom Cafe, also denied reports that they sought the girl's services.

Later in the day Nicholas Dunaev, former dancing partner of Miss Pringle, and George Dollini, artist, reported to be the two men who approached Houseman, appeared at Coleman's office with their attorney, S. S. Hahn, and denied that they had approached Houseman on the matter.

To the contrary, they stated, Houseman approached them on the subject and Dunaev asserted that he discouraged the proposition, declaring that Miss Pringle would not be interested in such contracts until the Pantages case has been disposed of in the higher courts.

After reviewing these statements in his office, Dist.-Atty. Fitts stated that the entire matter appears to be a plan by several booking agents to obtain a contract for Miss Pringle and then induce her to accept it so that they might collect a commission.

Gas Ends Life of Elderly Man

A man believed to be Coleman Ledman, 73 years of age, ended his life in a rooming-house at 3223 Seymour avenue yesterday, police reported. The body, lying beside an open gas heater jet with a quilt over the head, was found by Mrs. Elizabeth Bell, landlady.

Beside the body detectives found an envelope. There was no note, but scrawled on the back of the envelope was "Notify Bert De Vault at the Imperial Inn, Long Beach." Detectives stated that Mr. De Vault said he knew little of Ledman except that he had employed him as a clerk recently. Police are endeavoring to locate the man's relatives.

AUTOCRATIC EDUCATION ASSAILED

Discipline Subject of German Play at Windsor Square Theater

BY JACOB COOPER

All the terrors of autocratic education were presented in the play, "Flachsmann als Erzieher," which was offered last night by the German Theater in the Windsor Square Theater. Written some thirty years ago by the German playwright, Otto Ernst, this play, known in English as "Flachsmann the Educator," vitriolically depicted the status of the absolute discipline in education which was then typical of the old imperialistic regime.

The contest centers in two characters, Flachsmann, the principal, and Hans Flemming, the young teacher whose ideas of freedom, art and the rights of the pupils to think for themselves prove too shocking for his righteous colleagues. Quite prophetically, the ideas espoused by Flemming form the basis of the German Youth movement which followed the late war.

To make a play out of propagandic ideas such as these, Ernst resorted to all the trappings and paraphernalia of the playwright of the '90's and injected the usual love theme and villain element, which somewhat weakened the otherwise deftly carved situations. The villainous Dierks, who rivals Flemming for advancement and who later gets his just due, was all too obviously melodramatic. This part played by Otto Kottka, could have stood a little more restraint. So also in the case of Lena Malena, who played the part of Gisa Holm, the young teacher with whom Flemming is in love. Her overvivacity robbed her action of much of its conviction.

Examples of fine characterization were shown in the roles of the school-teachers, each one carrying a different brand of humor which found instant appeal. These roles were taken by Paul Weigel, Harry Feld, Angela Crone, Anders von Haden and Hans Hofer. A fine bit was played by Paul Panser in the role of the janitor, who has the interests and the spirit of the school at heart.

Flachsmann was portrayed by Peter Eckelens. A German actor and director of note, he presented his side of the educational struggle in a forceful way.

Humor was left almost exclusively to the lines, and was of the fine, satiric variety which would naturally enter into a play which thrusts at such an institution as autocratic education. Direction and make-up helped to carry it across.

Judging by the size of the audience, German plays are here to stay. The support of the German element promises to bring some fine things in German drama, including Goethe's "Faust," which is advertised for future production.

Comedienne to Appear on New Orpheum Bill

Flo Lewis, the comedienne currently featured on the new Orpheum bill, is one beauty who sacrifices her looks for laughter. Ever since the age of 5, when she made her debut with her mother, Blanche Lewis, she has been adjudged one of the leading beauties in vaudeville and on the musical comedy stage. She was featured in "Twinkle Twinkle," "Tic Tac Toe" and other Broadway revues.

She developed into a first-class comedienne about three years ago and since has toured the principal vaudeville circuits in this country and abroad with a character singing act. Her current offering is entitled "Give Us a Lift," and in it she is assisted by Leon Kryle at the piano.

In addition to Van and Schenck, who headline the Orpheum bill, Lew Pollack and Henry Dunn, popular theme song writer and famous vaudevillian, will appear, assisted by Alice Weaver and Doris Walker. Al K. Hall, Rose's twenty-five Lilliputians, Don Cummings and Frank Evers and Greta are also on the program.

Lawrence Play Announced by Edward Horton

Vincent Lawrence, author of "Among the Married," the modern comedy of manners and modes which will follow "Her Cardboard Lover" at the Majestic Theater, today ranks as one of the most brilliant playwrights as a result of his scintillating dialogue and skill at character portrayal.

"Among the Married," Lawrence's latest success, which just closed its initial New York run, is said to be the playwright's finest work to date. It is done in his typical manner, telling a tale of infidelity in married life and its subsequent problems with a softening, breezy humor that turns the play into comedy. Florence Eldridge and Edward Everett Horton are to again costar in the new Majestic production.

FOREIGN JOURNALIST ARRIVES IN CITY

Planning an indefinite stay in Hollywood, Robert Harari, correspondent for French and Egyptian newspapers, arrived in this city yesterday and is stopping at the Rossyln Hotel. Mr. Harari is on the staff of Candide, the Parisian Journal, and Le Post Egyptienne among others. He is here to study film conditions. In addition to his newspaper work he has written a novel which has been published.

"HEAVIES" IN PLENTY

There will be no shortage of "heavies" in "Murder on the Roof," the melodrama that George B. Seitz is getting ready to "shoot" for Columbia Pictures. Paul Porcasi, who came into the villainous limelight with his characterization of the bad man in both the stage and screen presentations of "Broadway," has been cast for an important role, while Louis Natheaux has been signed to abet Porcasi in his nefarious carryings-on.

Natives Enact Film Roles in Novel Picture

Fresh from the jungle shores of New Zealand to the Filmarte comes "The Romance of Hine Moa," a collection of Maori tribes and customs in celluloid.

This is the first picture to be produced in New Zealand and is entirely enacted by natives who, it is explained, have reached a high plane of civilization. One is tempted to agree with the statement, for they appear to enjoy the novelty of posing in the primitive quite as much as we do in watching them. Most of these actors are not jungle folk trained to act, but natives civilized the white man's way, and no mistake. Their haircuts, for one thing, betoken the expertness of the barber's skill. Their expressions and technique are far too complicated to have been suddenly acquired. A few times, when preparing native feasts or hopping a native jig, they go about their business without consciousness of the camera.

The shadow of the white man is more insidious in this than in other South Sea films which have brought him out in the open as a menace. For it is a white man's story and a white man's direction.

This story is of the legend variety, picturing the old chief sending his noble son out to fetch himself a bride. Across the lake lives the peerless Hine Moa, another daughter of another chieftain. They meet, and love comes upon them with tropic quickness. Under a spreading fern stands the villain, gnashing the teeth and concocting a bit of foul play with three sweet potatoes. Blamed with the theft of these, the hero must walk through the Valley of Fire. If he comes through successfully, his innocence will be established. This offers a chance for many views of volcanic beauty.

Held prisoner by the chief until she can stand it no longer, little Hine Moa strikes out by the light of the moon, swims the lake and joins her downhearted lover on the far bank. A nice ending there, but a confession scene must follow, the villain getting his desserts and the hero becoming more of a prince than before.

The plot was popular in the old days of Indian thrillers. Peculiarly, the Maori peoples show marked Indian likenesses; their garb, architecture, habits and stoicisms. But despite the weakness of theme, the film offers many interests of tribal nature and the usual glories of tropic scenery.

On the same program is found "Crainquebille," a French film directed by Jacques Feyder, who has recently completed "The Kiss" with Greta Garbo. Anatole France is the author of the story, which features Maurice De Feraudy in the title role. A strange thing this, not a story, but a characterization, so supremely natural that it seems at times to be a news reel.

Paramount Will Give Late Show

A special midnight matinee performance of Harold Lloyd's first all-talking picture, "Welcome Danger," will be given at the Paramount Theater tonight. The extra performance is due to the large crowds patronizing the theater to see this melodramatic comedy.

The bespectacled comedian is proving a hit in his first audible film, "Welcome Danger," which reveals an interesting story full of speed and action. Barbara Kent plays opposite Lloyd, and Noah Young has a leading role.

ASSIGNMENT MADE

J. Grubb Alexander is writing the picture version and dialogue on his sixth story since becoming associated with Warner Brothers-First National. His latest assignment is "Faithful," an English stage play in which Billie Dove is to star under the direction of Lloyd Bacon.

ACTOR SIGNS

Having completed the featured character role in Richard Dix's newest picture for R.-K.-O., called "Seven Keys to Baldpate," Lucien Littlefield immediately signed with the Warner Brothers' studios to enact a similarly important role in one of their feature vitaphone productions.

"GIGOLO" PRESENTS COMPLICATED PLOT

Lillian Rivers Essays Leading Characterization in New Drama

A Parisian drama involving affairs of the heart and affairs of state is "The Gigolo," which was presented at the Beaux Arts Theater for two performances only.

The play, a bit of psuedo brilliance, is by Arthur Ruppel and was directed with commendable intelligence by Eugene La Clerk. The plot, a highly complicated work, becomes often involved and vague, depending largely for its glitter on highly artificial dialogue. This dialogue which apes the repartee of an Oscar Wilde or a Bernard Shaw never once reaches the plane on which it is supposed to dwell. Lines have an old-fashioned ring which when tossed back and forth savor but slightly of the diplomatic circle.

The central figure in the play's action is a Mrs. George Belton, a coquette and peddler of valuable information, also a poseur in the social strata. The contrasts of her various natures are nicely brought out by Lillian Rivers. Mrs. Rivers's ease in the reading of her lines does much toward keeping up the action's tempo. At times however, her subtlty is a trifle broad and her poise negligible.

The title character of "The Gigolo" is played by Yorke Coplen, whose performance is both vital and passive. A more sustained vigor would add to the confidence he never lacks. The scenes of his reformation, through the love he holds for Muriel Field, provide some of the nicest spots of the whole evening. Miss Field as the Ambassador's daughter and the other half of the love interest, gives a quiet performance which stands out for its naturalness and sincerity.

A blending of pathos, comedy and determination is the role which D. C. Gould makes remembered, despite its brevity. Jane K. Loofbourrow brings in the only real laughs in her portrayal of the Ambassador's wife who can't get over her exhalted position.

Suave, menacing, though not as dominating as he should be, is Landon La Rue, whose spying ways bring about final complications. Only two performances have been scheduled at the Beaux Arts Theater.

Eugene O'Brien Still Seeking Favorite Role

Eugene O'Brien has taken eighty different roles on the stage and screen. Yet the actor, now appearing as guest star with the Henry Duffy Players at the Hollywood Playhouse in "Girl Trouble," declares that he has no favorite.

"In conversation in London once with Sir Arthur Wing Pinero, the noted dramatist, I asked him to name his favorite play among the many he had written," says O'Brien. He replied: 'A dramatist's favorite play is the one he is going to write tomorrow.'

"That is exactly the way I feel about acting. My favorite role always is the one that is waiting around the corner for me." Assisting the guest star are Isabel Withers, Grace Stafford, Kathryn Givney, Florence Roberts and others.

"Bad Babies" to Reopen Tonight

"Bad Babies," George Scarborough's drama of modern youth will reopen its engagement at the Figueroa Playhouse tonight and will continue there indefinitely, according to an announcement.

The cast for the reopening will be the same as before, with two exceptions. Gloria Gray will replace Jobyna Ralston, and Mildred Van Doran, recently with Arthur Hopkins's forces in New York, will have the role of the little slavey, formerly played by Marjorie Montgomery.

ROGELL SCORES

Executives of the Tiffany Company are reported to be enthused over Albert Rogell's initial directorial effort for their organization, "Painted Faces." This audifilm based on circus life is to be released as one of the studio's specials. Rogell is at present directing another feature called "Mamba."

Whispers in the Wings

BY MURIEL BABCOCK

THE Macloons, Lillian and Louis, are coming back to Los Angeles to resume activity in a theatrical way, it would appear.

They have purchased from Schwab and Mandel the Pacific Coast rights to "The New Moon," which was to have been produced by the original owners at the Mason Theater following the current "Follow Through." Messrs. Schwab and Mandel have now abandoned this plan, even as they have abandoned thought of any new productions in New York for the next few months, to devote all time and energy to producing pictures for Paramount.

Whether Lillian Albertson (Mrs. Macloon) or Mr. Macloon will personally produce "The New Moon" is not as yet known. I presume this will hinge upon their relations with the Actors' Equity Association with whom they were in difficulties some time back.

The romantic musical comedy, for such it is, written by Oscar Hammerstein II, and Schwab and Mandel, music by Sigmund Romberg, should be a great bet for them. It is the logical successor of "The Desert Song," which, under Macloon production here, had a record run of forty-four weeks, and was estimated to have netted $400,000.

Ha! "The Easiest Way!"

Most players hereabouts don't recall this, but Frances Starr, one of America's eminent actresses, and now appearing in "The Shelf" at El Capitan Theater, had a good deal of her early theatrical training at the old Alcazar Theater in San Francisco. In 1903, as a budding ingenue, she joined the stock company there and played for two successive seasons in such elegant dramas as "The Cowboy and the Lady," "The Girl I Left Behind Me," "A Colonial Girl" and "Lovers' Lane."

It was in 1908 in Hartford, Ct., that she first appeared in that old spellbinder, "The Easiest Way," by Eugene Walter, which turned out so luckily that it went into New York the next season and kept her in its tolls until 1911.

Arthur Caesar, once a New York columnist now writing pieces for Warner movies, still smacks his lips over the famous last lines of that drama. As he tells it, Miss Starr, disappointed, disillusioned, prepares to take her departure from the leading man. "Where are you going?" he cries in anguish. "Where?" returns Miss Starr, "Where? Why, I'm going the easiest way. I'm going to Rector's." And the curtain falls to hide the blushes of all concerned.

"The Humbug" Starts Out

Henry Duffy sends word that "The Humbug," Max Marcin's play about a hypnotist, which goes into the Ambassador Theater in New York on Thanksgiving Eve, will be shown here probably in January. Contrary to his usual policy of buying only shows which have already clicked in the East, Duffy bought the Pacific Coast rights after one reading of the Marcin manuscript. It will perhaps be interesting locally, to know that John Halliday, who come here this summer with Fay Bainter in "Jealousy," has the title role in the new drama.

Duffy also sends word that he will be in town to attend the opening performance of "The Climax," with Guy Oates Post at the Hollywood Playhouse on Saturday afternoon, a week from today. The Saturday matinee is a new thought. Duffy openings in the past usually coming on Sunday afternoon.

A "June Moon" in March

According to talk at this moment, the Ring Lardner-George S. Kaufman comedy, "June Moon," the hit show of New York's fall season, will come here, or rather be produced here in March.

Sam H. Harris owns "June Moon" and at present is gloating over record box-office receipts at the Broadhurst Theater. He may come West to produce the show personally, or again, George Holland, Schwab and Mandel's personal representative on the Coast, and Sam's brother-in-law, may do it. Holland, despite the fact that he is packing up "Follow Through" for a road tour, is much interested in Los Angeles as a production center.

This may or may not have anything to do with "June Moon," but Cleve Moore, Colleen's young brother, who has dabbled considerably in theatricals, has gone East with the specific purpose of seeing the Lardner piece.

"June Moon" has been described as a comedy about frustrated music makers, remarkable for its wit, humor and savory characters.

Lily Damita Taps Her Toes

Eleanor Robson Busy Writing

Further word from the eastern play front is to the effect that "Christopher Bard," by Eleanor Robson Belmont and Harriet Ford, announced to open tonight at the Forrest Theater, was withdrawn on Tuesday night in New Haven after only two performances had been given. It will be rewritten.

Eleanor Robson (this was before she added the Belmont to her name) was the original star of "Merely Mary Ann," which is now being revived by Franklin Pangborn for Marjorie Rambeau at the Vine Street. She launched the play in 1903, and it is interesting to note that H. B. Warner came to America to appear with her in it. She is also the author with Harriet Ford of "In the Next Room."

SURPRISE NOTED

When Hoot Gibson first met Olive Young, who will be the leading lady of his new picture, "Fool's Luck," he received the surprise of his life, it is said. Miss Young is a Chinese girl and has frequently been called "The Mary Pickford of China." Gibson expected to talk broken English to her for the duration of his picture but, instead, found she spoke English excellently.

REDS IN COURT HAVE HARD DAY

Leader Gets Jail Term and Fine for Street Row

Communist Party Speaker and Others Penalized

Two Accused as Loiterers Escape Punishment

Frank Spector, secretary of the Communist party in Los Angeles, was sentenced to serve ten days in jail and fined $50 by Municipal Judge MacCoy yesterday, following his conviction on charges of resisting an officer and disturbing the peace.

Testimony of Police Sergeant Haddox and officer Dykes showed that Spector forced them to take him in custody.

"We had no intention of arresting him when we approached the meeting at Brooklyn avenue and Cornwell street on the 9th inst.," Sergeant Haddock declared.

Spector's excited remarks to the crowd created a disturbance, to halt which the officers were forced to call in a total of seventeen police officers, Haddox said. Spector then fled and when overtaken by Dykes, the latter testified, "he kicked my shins and tried to break away."

FINE FOR YOUTH

Martin Shapiro, 18 years of age, of 916 North Soto street, also a speaker at the meeting, was fined $25 following conviction on disturbance of the peace charges. Both men appealed from the decision.

Leo Gallagher, defense attorney, contended that the meeting was held in conformity with law, a permit not being required. He also contended that the officers exceeded their authority in making the arrests.

Leon Mabille, self-asserted Communist, was fined $50 by Judge MacCoy following his conviction for distributing "Red" handbills in automobiles at Third and Main streets.

LOITERERS PENALIZED

Four Japanese Communists, were found guilty of violating the city ordinance which prohibits loitering idly on a public sidewalk and fined $25 each. Officers testified they were discussing the twelfth anniversary of the Russian revolution at First and San Pedro streets and blocking the sidewalk.

Michael J. McCabe and Jack Zeller, accused under another section of the same ordinance, were released and the charges against them dismissed when Gallagher argued that the section under which they were accused recently was held unconstitutional by Superior Judge Shaw.

SPIRITS MAY BE MYTH BUT NOT SO KEGS

Hi-jackers' Specious Plea for Freedom Denied by Court of Appeal

Liquor may be legally nonexistent and therefore something that one cannot be accused of stealing, but barrels containing the liquor are sometimes decidedly tangible and actual and can be stolen.

This point, brought up in Superior Judge Hardy's court when Robert Jones, Abe Mitchell and Ralph Odenwald were tried and convicted of burglary for the theft of a quantity of liquor and its containers, was tacitly upheld in the District Court of Appeals yesterday when their petition for a writ of habeas corpus was denied without comment.

Through their attorney, J. A. Deweese, the convicted hi-jackers sought a writ of habeas corpus for their release from the County Jail on the ground that the liquor containers, theft of which formed the basis of their trial and conviction, "are property designed for the unlawful manufacture of liquor intended for use in violating the law and no property rights exist in any such liquor or property."

Division One of the Appellate Court denied the petition within thirty minutes after it had been filed.

Jones, Mitchell and Odenwald were charged with breaking into a garage at 1547 Holly Vista Drive, and stealing liquor, "the goods of Jeannette Chaffen."

ACUTE ALCOHOLISM BLAMED FOR DEATH

Acute alcoholism was reported yesterday as the cause of death of John P. Riley, 53 years of age, one-time well-known city employee, who died in a room at 1808 South Main street. Acquaintances told police of the Georgia-street division that Riley had been drinking for three months. He formerly was a book-keeper in the Bureau of Power and Light, but of late had been supported by remittances from a sister in Chicago. The Coroner ordered an inquest conducted today.

POLICEMEN FACE INQUIRY

Long Beach Officers to be Asked About Reports They Tried to Intimidate Vice Quiz Witnesses

Long Beach police officers who are asserted to have attempted to intimidate witnesses in the pending inquiry into graft and corruption in the beach city government will be summoned before the county grand jury next Wednesday to explain their actions, Percy Hammon, deputy District Attorney in charge of grand jury matters, announced yesterday.

A subpoena already has been issued for one police officer high in the law enforcement department, Hammon said, and others may be called before the case is closed.

The matter was brought to the attention of grand jury investigators by B. F. Webster, special Long Beach officer, who for some time was assigned to prison camp work. Webster is scheduled to resume his testimony before the grand jury Wednesday.

According to John A. Berwalk, Webster charges that police executives let the prisoners know that it was all right with them if they escaped from custody so long as they went away only in groups of two or three. The names still were carried on the rolls, however, according to Webster, and money collected from Long Beach to pay for their keep.

From evidence thus far given, it is evident that bootlegging in the beach city has been protected, according to Hammon.

No additional evidence of importance has been found to support the theory that Earl Boruff, Long Beach private detective, was killed because of knowledge he had of narcotic, liquor and vice conditions, it was announced.

DEATH SUMMONS PIONEER WOMAN

[Ray Ruff studio]
Mrs. Thomas J. Douglass

RITES TODAY FOR LEADER IN CLUB LIFE

Funeral of Mrs. Douglass Will be Conducted This Morning at 10 o'clock

Funeral services will be conducted at the Little Church of the Flowers at 11 a.m. today by Rev. Hugh Walker for Mrs. Thomas Jefferson Douglass, for many years a leader in Los Angeles club and social activities, who died at her home, 617 South Westmoreland avenue, on Thursday after a long illness. She was 75 years of age and had resided in this city for more than thirty years.

Chief among the interests of Mrs. Douglass during her lifetime was the United Daughters of the Confederacy and she had served as the president not only of the Los Angeles chapter but also of the State chapter. Another organization which she served as president is the Women's Democratic League, and she also was a member of the Ebell Club and the Women's Athletic Club, of which she was a charter member.

Mrs. Douglass was born in Florence, Ala., and was married there when she was 20. With her husband she came to California forty-two years ago, settling first in San Diego, where they resided about ten years, then moving to this city.

She leaves her husband, three children, Thomas J. Douglass, Jr., Clarence W. Douglass and Mrs. Joseph K. Ellison, all of this city, and five grandchildren, Walter B. Douglass, Thomas J. Douglass III, Brandon Douglass, Dorothy Douglass and Douglass Ellison.

STEAM BLAST INJURES RESTAURANT WORKER

Scalded by steam from an exploding steam table yesterday, Katie Robinson, 33 years of age, of 222 West Eighth street, was taken to Georgia-street Receiving Hospital. While working in a restaurant at 126 South Broadway, a burst of steam caused first-degree burns on her face, neck and shoulders. Dr. Spear treated her at the hospital.

PARLEY TOPIC OF MAGRUDER

Forecast Made Concerning London Arms Meeting

Aircraft and Submarine Due for Dominant Position

Views Aired Before Rotary Group at San Pedro

Aircraft and the submarine, having completely changed the concepts of naval strategy in the last few years, will be dominant factors in the discussions of the London naval limitations conference, Rear-Admiral T. P. Magruder, commander of the United States fleet base force, yesterday told the San Pedro Rotary Club at its weekly luncheon. Admiral Magruder outlined what naval experts believe will be the outcome of the London parley.

"Competition is the real cause of any war," he said. "Competition in armaments is, of course, the most destructive agency to any national structure, but almost equally potent is competition for world trade. President Hoover and Premier MacDonald, both clearly aware of this situation, already have made great progress in their discussions preliminary to the January conference.

GREAT GAINS FORESEEN

"I think that great things toward preserving the peace of the world will be accomplished at London. The cruiser problem undoubtedly will be easily settled between England and America, but it is very doubtful about the outcome of the submarine question. Great Britain and our own country doubtless will agree to limitation of submarine warfare, but it is equally probable that France and Italy, both regarding the submarine as an essential weapon to their national defense, will not agree to any sharp curtailment.

"All concepts of naval strategy have been cast aside these last few years by rapid development of aircraft and the submarine. Naturally, therefore, these two arms will be at the forefront in the conference discussions. I do not believe that there will be any attempt to limit aircraft development, because commercial craft could be changed overnight into efficient fighting machines."

NAVAL STRENGTH

Admiral Magruder urged maintenance of a navy only large enough to maintain the nation's policies. Interests of the United States, he pointed out, have become world-wide; it being necessary, therefore, to keep in the United States fleet efficient vessels able to protect America's commerce against any possible aggression.

He praised the efforts of modern American statesmen, including Wilson, Root, Hughes and Kellogg, adding that, in his opinion, the Briand-Kellogg pact of Paris is the greatest step yet made toward promoting the spirit of peace.

"The two great English-speaking powers, between whom there never can be armed strife for many reasons, likewise should maintain necessary navies for the peace of the entire world," he said. "Small countries have their private jealousies toward their neighbors and might start trouble, except that they have great respect for the policing forces kept on the seas by the great powers."

POSTOFFICE IN PORT CITY HAS NEW HOME

The Wilmington postoffice yesterday began operation in its new location at Anaheim Boulevard and Broad avenue. The new quarters afford almost double the space available at the old location, Broad and C streets, and should satisfy all demands for five years, in the opinion of Elizabeth Woods, postmistress of government.

AIR LEAD FOR AMERICA FORESEEN BY AUSTRIAN

Europe's one-time great lead over America in commercial aviation is dwindling rapidly and another year will place this country in the van. Already the United States excels Europe in the matter of night flying on established transport lines.

These are but two of the impressions of American commercial aviation gained by Dr. Joe R. Von Hoffman-Ostenhof, directing head of the Austrian Air Traffic Company of Vienna, who arrived here yesterday via Western Air Express from the East on a tour of inspection of airports and air-transport lines.

Head of a transport system that carried 10,000 passengers to various points in Europe last year, Capt. Von Hoffman-Ostenhof is proud of the fact that 70 per cent of his company's passengers have been Americans "doing Europe."

STRIDES GRATIFYING

"I was gratified and surprised on my arrival in America to learn first-hand the extent to which your country has taken to commercial flying," the visitor said at the Biltmore yesterday. "Many Americans whom I questioned in Vienna said that there was very little passenger traffic in the air here because of serious accidents that had occurred. And so when I came I expected to find that to be true.

"But it isn't true and I am amazed at the tremendous development of air-passenger traffic that is to be seen everywhere, and particularly on the Pacific Coast. Your lines are well organized, your equipment and airports are excellent and the traffic seems to be satisfactory also.

FORECAST MADE

"Europe has been so far ahead of this country in commercial aviation that the surprise was all the greater to me. I predict that in another year the United States will reach a par with Europe and may even pass it," Capt. Von Hoffman-Ostenhof said.

The air-transport man was a fighting pilot on the side of Austria during the war and was shot down twice on the Italian front by British planes. He has seven Italian planes to his credit, but declines, from a spirit of modesty, to discuss his war-time feats.

Capt. Von Hoffman-Ostenhof's transport company serves several routes out of Vienna with daily passenger service, including runs to Berlin, Zurich, Munich, Budapest and Venice.

ENGAGED IN STUDY

He is making a study of airplane and instrument manufacture, the building and management of airports and the methods of handling air passenger traffic in America, he explained. He will be here until Monday, when he is scheduled to fly to Kansas City via Western Air Express.

"It will not be long before you will have an all-air service between Los Angeles and New York," he said. The present rail-air-rail-air system, while it meets early needs, is not air service in the strict sense of that term, and the day is not far off when it will be possible for you to fly the entire distance as a paying passenger on an air liner," the Austrian visitor predicted.

TWO NEW CRAFT ON MAIDEN CALL

Both on European Trade Run to Pacific Coast

Speedy Holland-Owned Liner of Chief Interest

British Line Freighter Also Speedy Carrier

BY WAYNE B. CAVE

Two more new European ships came into Los Angeles Harbor on their maiden voyages at sunset yesterday to swell the list of thirty-odd new carriers filtered into the Pacific-European service in the last year and a half. All are foreign-flag vessels, America yet having no line on this run.

They are the Dutch-owned motor liner Delftdyk of the Holland-America Line and the British steamer Sularia of the Donaldson Line.

FASTEST OF LINE

The Delftdyk, built at Rotterdam clipped off more than fifteen knots an hour in order to arrive yesterday and discharge her thirteen passengers of twenty-four aboard, and drop 2000 tons of continental cargo. She is the largest and fastest of the line's eight ships serving this Coast, having 185,000 cubic feet of refrigeration, electric auxiliaries and unusually large cabins and commodious public rooms. She displaces 21,000 tons and measures 508 feet in length, 64.5 of beam and 51.6 deep.

The public may visit her between 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. tomorrow.

The Sularia is strictly a freighter, 425 feet long, and with a cargo capacity of 9200 tons. Of this, however, there are four compartments comprising 79,000 cubic feet of refrigeration, including 10,000 feet for transporting Pacific eggs to England.

SPEED SHOWS TREND

Her speed typifies the trend of modern freighters, producing 16.1 knots on her trials and averaging 13.6 from Liverpool. She was built by Lithgows, Ltd., and engined by D. Rowan & Co., Glasgow.

The Sularia gives the Donaldson Line six modern freighters in this service, which they started two years ago with half that number. It will afford a sailing frequency varying from two to three weeks, but there are indications two more vessels will be added early next year.

Tile from Glasgow, bananas and cocoanuts from Panama are being discharged here as part of her maiden-voyage cargo.

LINER CALIFORNIA PASSENGER LIST HEAVY

Five hundred passengers will go to New York, via the Canal and Havana, Monday morning aboard the Panama-Pacific electric liner California, as opening of the winter season in intercoastal passenger travel.

Prominent among the departing Angelenos will be Robert Adams, special representative of the Chamber of Commerce, who is en route to South America on a six months' trade research tour; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Matcham of Beverly Hills, en route for an extended tour of the West Indies.

Other local residents sailing are: Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lawrie Wilson, Earl Newton, W. B. Holmes, Mrs. George Herbert, Miss Jesta Worthen, Mr. and Mrs. John Ingram, Mrs. Mary A. Van Alen, Miss Norma Wolter, Mrs. Virginia MacIsaac, Otto A. Voget and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Teare. Travelers aboard the California from outlying Southland towns include Mrs. Kay B. James and Harry H. Lindemann of Long Beach; Miss Dorothy Foster of Hollywood; Chevalier Edward Scovel, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hastings, Miss Paula Merkt and Mrs. Lena Weber of San Diego; Mr. and Mrs. Harry McWhorter, A. W. Dinsmore, W. F. Houx, Miss Gladys Houx, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Culp and W. P. Warren of Santa Barbara; Miss Alice Shade of Santa Ana, and Mrs. C. B. Griffin of Ocean Park.

Also aboard will be Lieut.-Col. Ernest Goldschmidt, retired British army officer and a veteran of the World War and Boer War; W. E. Zwicky, Jr., and Paul Rowland, local mining engineers, en route to Bolivia to open a new tin mine, and Theodore H. Crook, lease agent of the Standard Oil Company, en route to Barranquilla, Colombia.

Seven wild goats, each with four horns, brought here from the Canal Zone by the British freighter Pacific Shipper, are attracting much attention while being held in quarantine at the Banning Terminal. They were brought out of a Colombian mountain valley by Leon A. Dunn, soldier of fortune, who plans to exhibit them in Long Beach.

Local zoologists declare themselves at a loss to classify the weird-looking animals.

Italian-owned Lloera Line announces transshipment of Pacific Coast cargo at Mediterranean points for South Africa by way of a new service inaugurated from Italy to South Africa via Gibraltar instead of the Suez. The new run will be served by the Piave and other 10,500-ton steamers once serving the Pacific-Mediterranean run, before replaced by present larger motor liners. General Steamship Corporation is agent.

Two hundred passengers sailed from here yesterday on the Japanese motor liner Montevideo Maru, bound westward around the world for the Osaka Shosben Kaisha. The vessel also carried out more than 2000 tons of Southland commerce.

Thirty-seven years ago, A. Mathiesen was a seaman on a windjammer, the first able to sail clear up to San Pedro proper. Stages were run from Los Angeles to celebrate the occasion. Yesterday he came in again as captain of the Norwegian motor tanship Sandar, a ship many times as great, but there was no band to greet him. Twenty such arriving ships daily have destroyed the novelty. Gunnar Steenhoft, ship chandler, had to acquaint the skipper with the port again.

George V. Latham, former traveling passenger agent for Matson Steam Navigation Company, has been appointed passenger agent for Nippon Yusen Kaisha. He will have offices with J. Vincent Braga, general agent, at 605 South Grand avenue, Los Angeles.

TRANS-PACIFIC MAIL

November 25, from Los Angeles, specially addressed correspondence for Central and South America.

THANKS FOLKS

We knew close-in North Hollywood property priced fully improved at from $900 to would almost sell itself.

AND IT HAS

And listen, the majority of our sales this week have been made to buyers who have been looking everywhere for just what we have.

They Came—They Saw They Bought

WHY? Millions of dollars of public improvements are now under construction right in front of their eyes—12 minutes from Hollywood Boulevard—and prices on everything that compel purchases.

How long have you wished to work on property to buy? "Just can't help but buy?"

Don't Wait Any Longer

Bring out all those prospects you have failed to sell for any reason; clerks and they will congratulate you on your choice this time and reward you by buying.

To get acquainted drop in at 6301 Sunset Boulevard, N.W. cor. Vine street, and go out to property on one of our office tractorgrams and then hear LARRY WOOD sell the property from the platform. Eat the Roast lunch in town and see a happy, peppy, enthusiastic organization selling property every day to people who go home convinced they have made the best buy in Los Angeles.

This made 83 new people say they are happier this week than ever.

Crowds are getting bigger and bigger every day.

NOW IS THE TIME

To get into the best organization and on the best deal in town.

We can use solicitors, salesmen and two division managers right away. Our commissions are the highest.

MONDAY NIGHT The 25th At 8 O'Clock

In The Main Auditorium Of The HOLLYWOOD CHAMBER OF COMMERCE 6520 Sunset Blvd.
